"In our shop you find naught

"If you're not satisfied with there until tomorrow. The Herzog matter, it is said, is keeping him here. Grant has ordered Herzog to report at the club's training camp at Columbus Ga., but it is not likely that the player will report unless he has some assurance about what Grant expects to do with him after the season starts. Herzog does not intend to go to the training camp, take part in the exhibition games against Detroit, and then come home to Boston for the season.

The Yankee hold-outs are now Pratt, Ernie Shore and Dutch Leonard. Shore notified the club yesterday that he would go to the training camp and talk over his contract with Manager Huggins.
Frank O'Doul, the young pitcher the Yankees drafted from the Pacific Coast League, has signed his contract. The first installment of the Yankees expect to start for Jacksonville on Saturday.

Leon Cadore, the Brooklyn pitcher, and Catcher Otto Miller led the Dodger invasion on Thursday night. In the party will be Manager McGraw, Secretary John B. Foster, Assistant Manager Christy Mathewson, Harry Knaff, Larry Dole, Heinie Zimmerman, George Smith, Ryan Terhune and Brogan, recruit pitchers.

St. John's, Nfld., March 20.—Two leaved ground in the vicinity of St.

John's for the purpose of attempting a turned to England to bring out his ma-

I'VE SOLVED IT! INSTEAD OF A DIVER GOING DOWN IN A DIVING SUIT, MY IDEA IS TO LOWER HIM DOWN TO A BOAT THAT'S ON THE BOTTOM OF THE OCEAN IN A GREAT BIG STRONG GLASS BOTTLE. THE PRESSURE OF THE WATER WOULDN'T BOTHER A DIVER AT ALL! HE'D BE ABLE TO SEE FINE, TOO! GET THE IDEA?
