Ladies' New Suits

AND

Coats For Spring

Striking originality characterizes the new spring styles in Coats and Suits. A glance at some of the new models reveals the radical nature of the new vogue.

It is a change that makes for greater novelty, more fanciful styles, and in some instances more striking extremes.

Among the fascinating styles in the Coats are: "The Balmocan," "The New Sport," "The Slip On," and the much talked of "Flaring Coat."

The Suits are so varied in style that it is difficult to describe them in type, but you must see them.

TRIBUTES TO MEMORY OF LATE SHERIFF

Large Attendance at Funeral - Resolution of County Council - Rev. Mr. Cody Speaks of Mr. deForest's Life as Exemplary in Church, Business and Home

Many prominent citizens gathered today to pay a last tribute of respect to the late Stephen S. deForest, High Sheriff of St. John city and county, whose funeral was held from St. James' church at three o'clock this afternoon. A private service was held at his late residence, 48 Herford street, after which the body was taken to St. James' church where the funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. A. Cody. The hymn, "On the Resurrection Morning" was sung by the choir as the body was taken into the church. "Rock of Ages" was sung during the service, and at the close the choir sang "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er."

The procession formed at the church door and included many business and professional men and others in all walks of life. The members of the county council attended in a body. Interment took place in Fernhill.

The casket was covered with many beautiful floral tributes. Among them were a wreath of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley bearing the city coat of arms; a standing cross of roses from the congregation of St. James' church; where Mr. deForest was a worshiper for eleven years; a wreath of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley from St. James' choir; a wreath of roses and violets from the municipal council; and a crescent of roses and carnations from the members of the Sheriff's staff. There were also a large number of flowers from friends of the family.

His Life Exemplary.

Rev. Mr. Cody spoke from Proverbs 10:1: "The memory of the just is blessed." He said:—

The wise man of old knew whereof he spoke when he uttered those words. He understood much about life. He realized what it meant to lose friends. But when our friends and loved ones pass to that great silent bourne how good it is to have their memory surrounding us like a benediction. For a while the mad fever of life is washed, and the heart grows strong and calm.

Only such a memory comes to us today as we gather here to pay our last tribute of respect to one of St. John's worthiest sons. His memory is blessed, for his life we believe was just and upright. The few strands of his life were not in its wealth nor its industries, but in men such as Stephen deForest ever proved himself to be. He means much in the world of business to ring true to a high ideal like Sir Galahad of old, and to wear the white mantle of honor, his life amidst the stress of keen competition. And yet as far as we know he did it. There is no dishonesty, no sycophancy, no dishonesty upon his name, and none poorer because he lived. During the last three years he occupied one of the most important offices in this city. This position he greeted with that identity, courage, tactfulness, and simplicity which so characterized his whole life. Years ago a great poet sent forth a pathetic and prophetic cry:

"Oh God, for a man with heart, head, hand,
Like some of the simple great ones gone
Forever and ever by;
One still strong man in a blizzard land,
Whatever you call him what care I—
Aristocrat, democrat, autocrat—
Who can rule and dare not lie."

You do find such men. Our city has produced them, and we are with us to-day, but one is not, for God's finger touched him, and he slept.

TENDERS TOO LOW.

None of the tenders for the T. C. Donold drug business at Hampton have been accepted as they were all too low. The business is still for sale, but in the meantime it will be carried on as before by the estate.

ST. JOHN BILLS.

Several of the civic bills will come before the provincial legislature in Fredericton tomorrow, and some of the city commissioners will probably go to Fredericton this evening to be present when the bills come before the house.

IS THIS THE EFFECT?

It is said on what appears to be very good authority that since the closing of the roadhouses there has been an increase in the number of places of ill-repute in the city, and that in several sections people are complaining about the character of some of their new neighbors.

MEDALS PRESENTED.

The medals won at the Maritime Province Skating Championships were given to the winners at the Egery Day Club hall last evening. C. Gorman received three firsts, and a second. The city has a number of very promising young skaters who should be able to develop and take rank among the fast amateurs of Canada.

UNITED MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The members of the United Missionary Society held a meeting on last Monday at the home of Mrs. A. S. McInnes, 54 Orange street, when plans for the Easter meeting were considered. It is planned to have addresses by several noted speakers, including some returned missionaries.

DEATH OF MRS. NYBERG.
