At the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Beekeepers Association last night at Fredericton, H. Peabody of Woodstock, was chosen president; Harry Armstrong of St. John is a director.

It was said yesterday that probably the port of St. John will handle in the vicinity of 200,000 tons of freight each month during the summer of 1918, much of it from the United States.

The three-masted schooner Hilda M. Stark, built in Annapolis, N. S., by the Annapolis Shipping Company, was successfully launched yesterday. She is coming to St. John to load.

Miss Doris Hickman, young daughter of C. B. Hickman, of Dorchester, was conveyed on a special train to Moncton from Netherwood College yesterday in a serious condition. She was to be operated on in Moncton hospital by Dr. Ferguson for peritonitis.

A young married woman was found in Hilyard's slip clinging to a cake of ice last night. She was found by Harry Brown and at the time was suffering intensely from the cold. She was treated by Dr. Mahoney and was progressing well last night. She lost a baby recently and this is supposed to have affected her mind temporarily.

Captain John R. Gale, O. C. A. company of the 21st battalion and a former teacher in the St. John High school, in a letter from the front makes an appeal for funds for the men of his company, many of whom are from New Brunswick. Contributions will be acknowledged by Captain Gale's sister, Alma N. Gale, 208 Main street, St. John.

An entertainment was given last evening in the Red Tangle room in the immigration building, West St. John. Boxing bouts between members of the 2nd Battalion and the Depot Battalion were featured. Other numbers included solo by Mrs. Murray Long and Mrs. Downey; dancing by little Miss Lorna Waring and short address by W. C. Cross and Major Morgan. A. M. McLeod presided.

At the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association last evening in Fredericton, A. G. Turner, reported membership of 100, total assets of $1,000 and a balance of $294.41 on hand. T. H. Estabrooks of St. John was elected honorary president; S. B. Hatheway of Kingsclear, president; F. Fawcett of Sackville, vice-president; A. G. Turner, secretary-treasurer; additional members of the executive, A. R. Gorham, Grey's Mills, and W. B. Gilman, Kingsclear.
