

It has also been very pleasing to many to read in the Presbyterian Record interesting letters from the Rev. Dr. Jenkins on the subject of his recent visit to Egypt, and his many friends rejoice to know that at his advanced age he was able so thoroughly to enjoy such a trip.

Although the number of deaths in the congregation during the past year has not been above the average, some of those who have been long connected with the congregation have been removed. They have entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God. Others have been cut down in the prime of life and in the midst of their usefulness in the Church and in the world, reminding us that "there is no discharge in that war," and admonishing us to work while it is called to-day—seeing "the night cometh, when no man can work."
