At a well represented meeting held in the Main Street Baptist Church on Sunday evening last, after the regular service, a unanimous call was extended to Rev. H. H. Saunders, of Paradise, N. S., to become pastor of the church. Rev. Mr. Saunders has accepted the call and will enter upon the duties of his new pastorate in April.—Sussex Record.

but that all the crew has escaped after some difficulty.

The Ravola left St. John a few days ago for New York. She carried 971,000 laths shipped by Alexander Watson of this city, as agent for the Blanchard Lumber Co. The cargo was insured, but Mr. Smith states that the insurance on the schooner was small. The Ravola, under command of Capt. Smith, carried a crew of six men.

The schooner was built at Salmon River, N. S., by J. W. Raymond in 1892 and was of 130 tons. She was 88 feet long, 28 feet beam, and was registered under the name of J. Willard Smith, owner.

March is evidently attempting to keep up its reputation of going out like a lion. The storm announced at noon yesterday first began to make itself felt about three o'clock this morning, when a wind from the eastward sprung up and increasing rapidly in velocity, was at nine o'clock blowing at the rate of forty miles. At eleven o'clock the velocity had increased to fifty-four miles, but this continued only for a short time, fifty miles being the average. The baromcontinued only for a short time, firth miles being the average. The barometer during the forenoon was falling, indicating continued unsettled weather. Up till nine o'clock this morning the total rainfall was only .32 inches.

P. Ganter died suddenly Monday the 22nd. He was formerly a resident of St. John, but settled with his family on Birch Ridge shortly after the 1877 fire, where he lived for some years, leaving there about twelve years ago. Since that time he has lived in different parts of the county. Last year he went to live with his son, Peter, near Boston, where he died. The remains were brought to Woodstock for burial. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Amos Gaunce, of Riley Brook, and Miss Alice, of Boston, and four sons, Peter, Thomas, and William, of Boston, and Andrew, of Grand Falls. Deceased was in his 85th year and was well known and liked throughout the county.—Victoria Co. News. P. Ganter died suddenly Monday the

Returning to His Ship from the Seaman's Institute

Having Just Written Home-He Walked Into a Dangerous Trap in Pettingill Wharf

David Blair, a Scotchman, aged twenty-six years, walked over the Pet-tingill wharf at 9.23 o'clock last night, and was drowned.

- Body Found Today.

The body was found this morning, and is now on the steamer Cassandra awaiting burial.

The deceased was an assistant steward on the Donaldson liner Cassandra, and this was his first voyage at sea. He left the ship last evening, it is said, to go to the Seamen's Institute to write some letters to his home in Dundee. At the foot of Duke street and at the northern end of the Pettingill wharf, is an open space where small boats land. It is quite dark at thisp lace and there is no railing to

This morning at eight o'clock, Wm. Watters, P. White, J. Leclair and Wm. Higgins, four longshoremen, found Blair's body lying in the mud, only a few feet from where he walked over. Coroner Berryman was notified, and after some enquiry allowed the body to be removed to the ship, and decided In the police court this morning two drunks were fined four dolars each.

Walter Morrison was fined $8 for using profane language on Sydney

Walter Morrison was fined $8 for that an enquiry was unnecessary.

David Blair is spoken of by others on the ship as a most congenial community was unnecessary.
