Mercantile Summary.LAST Saturday's Gazette contains the appointment to the customs collectorship at London of Mr. R. Reid of that city.There were 73 alarms of fire in St. John during last year, and 57 actual fires, exclusive of the great fire of June 20th.MR. A. CHIFMAN SMITH, lately mayor of the city of St. John, has been appointed to the position of Chief Engineer of the fire department of that city.No snow on the Miramichi up to the 5th instant; and open water in the Baie de Chaleur from the main land to Heron island, on the 2nd, the like of which has not been known since that country was settled.THE tenth annual report of the Ontario Inspector of Asylums, Prisons, &c., states that since Confederation $2,000,000 have been expended upon such of these institutions as are owned and controlled by the Government.MR. THOS. RUSSELL, a contractor of Morrisburgh, who has been in business some years as a builder and brick manufacturer, has failed, and is offering a composition at thirty-three cents spread over eighteen months. His estate shows $5,000 to pay $15,000.MESSRS. HURD & SONS, formerly in the hub & spoke manufacturing business at Lambeth, Ont., have purchased the McFate Spoke factory at Amherstburg from Messrs. Fraser & Pulford for $4,200. The new proprietors purpose bringing to the latter place fifteen or twenty of their old workmen with their families.THE affairs of Messrs. Donovan & Moran, the Montreal makers of buff and pebble leather whose stoppage we noted a fortnight ago, are in unsatisfactory condition. Their books are in a bad shape, their losses not explained, and payments appear to have been made out of the business, which have a suspicious look. A son of one of the firm had 'a soft thing' in being paid $2.00 for tanning hides for the firm, which other parties would be glad to get $1.40 for. At the close of December, $58,000 of claims had been fyled, while the assets are given at less than $10,000.
