

east by Lingwick, south-west by Dudswell and north-west by South Ham, containing 64,032 acres of land, was erected into a township named Weedon, February 28th, 1822; and granted to Louis Gagy, Augustin Gagnon, Michel St. Pierre, Joseph Germain, John Monroe, Margaret widow of Francois Lemaihe, Esq., Elizabeth and Margaret daughters of Francois Lemaihe, Mary Algiers, and Charles Patterson.

The St. Francis river enters this township from lake Aylmer, and flowing some distance, expands into lake Louise. Again contracting, it receives the waters of Salmon river, and passes into Dudswell. Many other small streams and outlets of ponds also enter the St. Francis in Weedon. The inhabitants are almost exclusively French Canadians, and have a church, post office and schools. The sum levied for their support in 1866, was $934,46, the government grant being $91, 46. The stage road from Sherbrooke through Dudswell and Weedon, is continued on to the north-east. The census of 1861, gives it a population of 809 inhabitants.

WOTTON.

A tract lying in the district of St. Francis, bounded north-east by Ham, south-east by St. Camille, south-west by St. George de Windsor, and north-west by Shipton and Tingwick, containing 47,500 acres of land, was erected into a township named Wotton, June 2nd, 1849. This is an independent municipality, with a
