

Developing Co., Presdt. of the London and Can. Loan and Agency Co., and Presdt. of the Confederation Life Assur. Co. In 1880 he headed a syndicate for the building of the Can. Pac. Ry. For his services in behalf of Confederation, he was created a C.B., 1867, and in 1879, as a further mark of royal favour, he was apptd. a K.C.M.G. Politically, a Lib.; in religious belief, he is a mem. of the Ch. of Eng. He m. 1st, 1843, Mrs. Webb (she d. 1849); 2ndly, 1866, Susannah Julia, widow of Capt. Hunt, of the Mil. Store Dept. (she d. 1886); and 3rdly, 1895, Elizabeth Mary Rattray, widow of Jas. Bethune, Q.C.—125 Bedford Rd., Toronto, Ont.; National Club.

"As Lieut.-Governor he left a record of rare administrative ability, and the equally desirable one of having made himself widely popular."—Mail and Empire.

HOWLEY, James Patrick, geologist, is of Irish descent, and was b. at Mount Cashel, St. John's, Nfd., July 7, 1847. Ed. at St. Bonaventure's Coll., he entered the public service as a clk. in the Col. Secy.'s office. Apptd. Asst. Geol. Surveyor, 1867, he held that position until 1887, when, upon the death of Alex. Murray, C.M.G., he was made Chief of the dept. and Dir. of the Survey. He has been actively engaged during 26 yrs. carrying out a topographical, trigonomet. survey of Nfd., studying out its geol. features, and he possesses a very minute and detailed knowledge of the resources and capabilities of the colony. Mr. H. is the author of a "Geography of Newfoundland," for the use of schs. (1877), and of various reports, pamphlets and letters embodying valuable information respecting the ancient colony. He was elected a mem. of the Mineral Soc. of Gt. Brit., 1879, and a Fellow of the Geol. Soc. of London, 1883. He is a mem. of the Ch. of R., and was m. to Miss Elizabeth Jane Firth.—St. John's, Nfd.

HOWLEY, The Rt. Rev. Michael F., Bishop of St. John's, Nfd. (B. C.), is a bro. of the preceding. B. at St. John's, Nfd., Sept. 25, 1843, he was ed. at St. Bonaventure's Coll., and studied for the priesthood at the Propaganda, Rome. Ordained at Rome by H. E. Card. Patrizzi, 1868, he received the degree of D.D. from the Propaganda, and in 1869 became Secy. to Archbp. Eyre, with whom he returned from Glasgow to Rome in attendance at the Vatican Council. Returning to Nfd. in company with the late Mgr. Power, 1870, he was apptd. Prefect Apost. of St. George's West, June, 1885, and in June, 1892, was consecrated Bp. in St. John's, and made Vicar Apost. of St. George's. In Dec., 1894, he succeeded Dr. Power, as Bp. of St. John's. His Lordship has been a frequent contributor to the religious press of his ch. He is the author of the "Ecclesiastical History of Newfoundland" (Boston, 1888), and of a "Life of Bishop Mullock" (now in course of preparation). He takes an active interest in all that relates to the welfare and advancement of his native country, and it has been frequently asserted that he favours the entrance of Nfd. into the Dom. of Can.—The Palace, St. John's, Nfd.

"A prelate of learning and ability, and highly esteemed by everyone."—Rev. Dr. Harvey.

"His intellectual activity, his repute as a littérateur, his influence in diplomatic circles, his learning and scholarship, doubtless all influenced the authorities of the Vatican and procured his advancement."—St. John's Telegram.

HOYLES, Newman Wright, Q.C., is the s. of the late Sir Hugh Wm. Hoyles, Chief-Justice of Newfoundland, and was b. at St. John's, Nfd., Mch. 14, 1844. Ed. at U. C. Coll., at King's Coll., Windsor, N.S., and at Trinity Coll., Cambridge (B.A.), he was called to the Ont. bar, 1873, and was for some yrs. a partner of the late Jas. Bethune, Q.C. He was apptd. a Q. C. by the Ont. Govt., 1889, and Principal of the Law Sch. at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, vice W. A. Reeve, deceased, Oct., 1894. A mem. of the Ch. of Eng., Mr. H. has taken an active part in many important religious move-