

CHAP. VIII.

Receive orders to prepare for a long journey—Arrangements for the voyage—Leave York Factory in a small Indian canoe—Canoe gets broken—First encampment—Scenery—Mosquitoes—Portages and rapids—Dexterity of the Indians among rapids—Meet brigades—Running rapids—Narrow escape—Meet North canoes—Lakes—Thunder-storms—Gull's eggs—Oxford House—Arrival at Norway House, P. 179

CHAP. IX.

Continuation of the voyage in a large canoe through the interior, by the Great Lakes, to Canada—Our light canoe—The first day—Delay in Lake Winnipeg—See a bear—The guide's tale—Get some berries from Indians—Pass Fort Alexander—Portages commence—Scenery—See another bear—Flums—Get fresh provisions from Indians—Meet Dr Rae, the Arctic discoverer—Pass Rat Portage and Fort Frances—Meet a party of Indians—Disagreeable walk—Bad travelling—Long Portages—Height of Land—Dangers among the Rapids—Narrow escape—The Kakabecka Falls—One of our men lost—Find him again, and arrive at Fort William—Lake Superior—Nearly swamped in a gale—Detention—Forget our fresh provisions—Pass the Pic—Pass Michipicoton—Provisions exhausted—Arrive at Sault de Ste Marie—Leave the Sault and cross Lakes Huron and Nipissingue—Pass a shanty—Commencement of civilisation—The village of Aylmer—Bytown—Lake of Two Mountains—Arrival at Lachine, 213

CHAP. X.

Winter travelling in Canada—Departure from Lachine—Sleigh travelling—Cahoes—Scenery along the road—Ludicrous accident—Three Rivers—Quebec—Travelling below Quebec—Outskirts of civilisation—Walk through the forest—Arrival at Tadousac—The Gulf of St Lawrence—Mr B——'s adventure with Indians—Seal-hunting, 268

CHAP. XI.

A Snow-shoe Journey—Boating in Winter—Miseries of a thaw—Esquimaux River—Start in company with one man—Our costumes—Sleeping in the snow—Reach Port Neuf—Detention—Attempt to proceed in a small boat—Stopped by ice—Resume our snow-shoes—Arrive at Isle Jérémie—Wrecks on the Gulf of St Lawrence—Frost-bitten sailors—Start for Seven^s Islands—Pass Goodbout—Continue the voyage with Indians—Seven Islands—Salmon fisheries—Seal shooting—The Trapper—Anecdotes—Solitude—Relief—Departure for Tadousac—The last voyage—Conclusion, 28