The U of A Debating Society is accepting entries in its sixth annual Edmonton Open Debating Tournament, to be held on Feb. 19th, in the Henry Marshall Tory Building. Teams will compete for the U of A Cup.

Standard style of debate will be used and entries should consist of two-man (or woman) teams. To avoid the necessity of extensive research and preparation, all debates will be impromptu; the general topic area will be "Nationalism," and specific resolutions will be announced before each round of debate.

The entry fee of $3.50 per team will go toward refreshments during the day, and lunches can be bought on the HUB mall. Forms must be returned no later than Jan. 21, to Cathy Johnson, U of A Debating Society, SUB 62 University Campus, Edmonton, Alta, T6G 2J7.

Roche to speak

Canada's relationship to developing third world countries will be the subject of an address by Edmontonian-Strathcona MP Doug Roche Monday, Jan. 24 at 7:00 p.m. in Ed. 2-115 (multi-media theatre).

Mr. Roche will draw on experience gathered in recent visits to the Republic of China, Indonesia and Bangladesh to discuss Canada's ties and responsibilities with developing countries.

Roche is federal PC spokesman for international development. He has written five books; the most recent, The Human Side of Politics, examines life in parliament.
