Blood and Thunder

Prophet

Sir, 'Reluctant Prophets', this is a title we all can identify with in this modern age. It was also the theme of the National Newman Conference which eight Fredericton students attended in Toronto from August 21-26, 1988. At this conference college/university age students/graduates gather to share and grow in their Christian Catholic faith (although this conference is presented from a Roman Catholic perspective, it is open to people of all faiths) and leave stronger individuals. Our Toronto hosts put on an incredible conference, investigating with us what it meant to lead prophetic lives today and what kills one needed to do so. The speakers that guided, yet at the same time walked with us during the week were: Sr. Mary Jo eddy, N.D.S. on the 'Signs of the Time'; Fr. Roger Haight, S.J. on 'Jesus as Prophet'; Marion Dewar, M.P. on 'I Am Prophet'; and Deirdre and Dermot McLoughlin on 'Role of Community in Nurturing Prophets'. This conference is also the forum from which the executive for the Canadian Catholic Student Association is drawn. This year Fredericton UNB/STU student, Catherine Kerr, was elected to her second term to the national executive. Catherine was also chosen to be the student to represent Canada at the International Movement of Catholic Student's planning meetings in Peru in January, 1989. These meetings are in preparation for the international conference that will take place in Africa in the summer of 1990. The Toronto conference was a personal success for all the 140 individuals that attended from across Canada and especially for the eight of us from Fredericton. God is truly alive and working in our lives. We pray that the experience of this conference leaves us less reluctant as we continue our journey with Christ: God Bless.

Oops!

Dear Editor:

In the Frosh issue of the Brunswickan, I mistakenly said that Frozen Ghost's album A Nice Place to Visit, was produced by Stephen Tayler. It was produced by Arnold Lanni and mixed by Stephen Tayler. Mea culpa. (Thanks Wolf and sorry Arn).
