DIARY DATE

SET FOR.....

1. Concerning above and letter of the Director of Indian Affairs dated the 12th ultimo. The information concerning this subject was obtained through Arch-Deacon Farries, located at York Factory. In view of the Record supplied from the Annuity Paylists, it would appear that an error has been made. There is a possibility that No. 112 Alex Redhead (Wid) has been confused with No. 150 Wm. T. Redhead, wherein it shows a woman as having died in November 1945.

2. This above matter, in any event, will be rectified during payment of treaty this year. May Diary Date please be extended as shown hereunder.
