

Q. QUESTIONED BY JA

- Q. In other words this witness understood that Pte Erisson wanted to play a piano, an instrument, not some sort of a game?
 A. He understood it to be an instrument, a musical instrument called a piano

Defence continues

- Q. Did you go into more than one room in the house?
 A. No sir, I only went into a small hallway and the room.
- Q. Would you tell the Court more about Erisson's eyes? You said before that you thought he was crazy because of the look in his eyes?
 A. There was a sort of a glazed appearance over the eyes.
- Q. Was he properly dressed at the time?
 A. He was bare headed.
- Q. Did he have any weapons?
 A. There was only the Sten Gun I found in the yard.
- Q. Did you play the piano with him or did he play the piano?
 A. No sir.
- Q. Did he make much fuss about wanting to play the piano?
 A. No, he didn't insist. I asked him and he came along with me.
- Q. Had you known Pte Erisson before?
 A. Only some 15 days, I had seen him before but not talked to him.
- Q. Did he know that you were a Regimental Police?
 A. He should know.
- Q. After you brought Erisson back to En HQ would - you say he drove away the 15 cwt in which you brought him back. Is that correct?
 A. It is correct.
- Q. When did you next see him?
 A. I saw him the same night when another RP came to get him.
- Q. How long was that after he drove away?
 A. He drove twice around the little village.

Pros: I object to the answer sir.

JA: To the answer? If the answer does not make sense Capt Currelly will have to put his question again.

Defence continues

- Q. Let us have the answer?
 A. He drove twice around the little village before he was arrested.
- Q. How do you know that?
 A. Because we could see him pass, driving in front of the school.
- Q. Did you see him that same day in your guardhouse?

web