AN INDEPENDENT PAPER - ON MABEE.

The London, News, Independent, editorially says:—

The latest sensation in the political world is indeed a very flat one. The great Liberal party is reduced to the extremity when it takes as campaign literature the impressions of a man of the stamp of C. B. Mabee.

The story is this. Mr. Mabee was engaged to get out some campaign literature. The Conservatives say that his work was unsatisfactory, that he was coaxed away by the money of the Liberals. Mr. Mabee denies this, but whatever may have been the reason, he did leave the Conservative party, and whatever may have been the inducement, he did join the Liberal party.

He now says that Mr. Whitney is a very poor leader, that many members complained of his lack of business.

Who is this man Mabee that so much value should be placed in his opinion of a political leader? What candidate is there in Ontario who has publicly expressed dissatisfaction with Mr. Whitney? If a Conservative candidate expresses confidence in Mr. Whitney, and privately maligns him he is a traitor, and unworthy of the confidence of any person. Until Mr. Mabee comes forward and quotes disgruntled candidates, we shall remain in the belief that the discontent arose and exists in this man's active brain. Altogether this man's charges are about the most absurd on record. Here is one example. Mr. Whitney is condemned because he spent $75,000 in entering petitions rather than in augmenting the campaign fund. In the Mabee school this may be a mistake, but honest Canadians believe that money cannot be better spent than in running to earth election scandals, and in the attempt to abolish election corruption. If that is Mr. Whitney's chief vice we look upon it as a virtue. All that there is to regret is that he had nothing but opposition in his efforts and he failed to break up the machine against him.

The Liberal party has little to boast about when it takes to its bosom a man who criticises such commendable tactics, who is shocked because a leader spends the campaign fund in his efforts to enforce the election law.

A DANGEROUS DREAM.

The Halifax Herald thus comments upon a recent incendiary speech by Mons. Bourassa in Montreal:

"The idea is to arouse race feeling among the Canadians of French origin against Great Britain and against all Canadian public men suspected of loyalty to the empire. And the hope is held out of eventually establishing an independent French state of which Quebec will be the centre."

"As we have said before, this dream may appear to many people to be very absurd, and so it may be. But it is none the less dangerous. Paul Kruger's dream of driving the British out of South Africa was not one whit less absurd; and yet we now see what came of permitting Kruger and Steyn to indulge in such dreaming. Mr. Tarte and Mr. Bourassa are doing in Canada exactly the same kind of work that the Afriander Bund did in South Africa, except that they are more frank as to their purposes. Mr. Bourassa makes no secret of the fact that he is inciting the French people in Canada to hatred of Great Britain, and that he does this with the intention of eventually establishing an independent French state on this continent. To ignore such an incendiary and seditious campaign, or to pretend to ignore it is simply madness. The sooner the true and loyal men of Canada recognize the danger of the movement that Mr. Tarte is leading, the better for both Canada and the empire."

Salt Rheum

It may become chronic.

It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering. It has been known to do so.

Do not delay treatment.

Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured and I have never had any skin disease since."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It is positively unequalled for all cutaneous eruptions. Take it.

paign literature for the Grits, admits that he was turned down by Mr. Whitney, and the Grits admit that they took him up. Mr. Whitney objected to his scurrilous abuse of a political opponent, but the Grit bosses accepted his personal mud-slinging at Mr. Whitney. Mr. Whitney has shown himself to be an honorable gentleman in this matter, and the people will support him as such.—Brockville Times.

The Windsor Record (Liberal) says of the abusive pamphlet against Mr. Whitney, written by C. B. Mabee, of Ohio, and circulated by authority of the Ross Government:—"Political pamphlets, produced under such circumstances are as the one bearing the signature of C. B. Mabee, are an insult to the intelligence and decency of the electors. We should be able to get along with our political discussions without the aid of hired political assassins of the Mabee stamp. They should be regarded as an offence by the clean, self-respecting members of the party in whose interests they are supposed to be published."

NURSING MOTHERS

A mother's poor health is bad enough for the mother but worse still for the nursing baby.

Mothers find Scott's Emulsion a nourishing and strengthening food. If the breast milk is scanty or thin Scott's Emulsion will make it rich and more abundant.

When mothers take Scott's Emulsion the babies share in the benefits. Thin babies grow fat. Weak babies get strong.
