RE-TOUCHING A CORN.

THE prominent professional gentleman whose portrait you see above, might have met with the same fate his more unfortunate neighbor, Mr. Harloweald, did. If he had not seen wide-awake and followed the directions of a friend who advised him to use BARK-WELL'S BURNING CORN CURE. He said—"I tried every known preparation for corns without effect, and concluded there was no cure, till I got BARK-WELL'S; but they so quickly disappeared that I gratefully acknowledge it to be a safe and painless cure."

Then Taylor, popular tailor of King-St. west, says "I was troubled with three very severe corns, and none of my Corn Cures advertised without the slightest effect, until I got BARK-WELL'S, and it completely removed all, and I must say it is a great boon to those affected with corns. Ask for BARK-WELL'S and take no common corn cure."

Mr. Allan, one of London's most reliable ladies, writes to say "My daughter had a corn under her toe from which she suffered great pain. Two applications of BARK-WELL'S completely removed it."

An eminent divine in this city says "BARK-WELL'S cured one of the worst corns I ever had."

Another, "I would not be without BARK-WELL'S, if I could get it, and I know a man who would walk 50 miles to get it. Take none of the common corn cures. BARK-WELL'S costs only 6s. Beware of imitations."

A HORRIBLE BUTCHERY.

THE INHUMAN, whose portrait appears above, has been troubled with three very severe Corns for 19 years, during which time he has suffered most excruciating pain. The above picture will convey some idea of his years of misery, as we see him in his daily routine, shaving the often a corn in a tub of water, and then drawing his razor on them. Sometimes cuts too deep, and then covering much pain, and also a great loss of blood. He might have kept on with this method for another 19 years, without any good results, if the loss of blood had not caused an untimely death.

To avoid the above, rent, stop paring and hacking away at your Corns. The only safe and sure means is to use BARK-WELL'S BURNING CORN CURE, which will cure you, and permanently remove all Corns, warts, Bunions, and Ingrowns, and relieve the slightest pain.

On the other side may be seen a brighter picture, with genuine testimonials, and how to write to them. For sale by all Druggists. Be sure and get the genuine BARK-WELL'S—there is none like it. None genuine unless signed—

SOAKING MY FEET.

I, WM. MCKEIGHT, of 87 York Street, am 65 years old, and have been a resident of this city for the last 25 years. I had my feet so much afflicted with BARKWELL'S CELEBRATED BRONCHIAL BALM, and when you get in the price, that there may appear of my witness, for I never use a preparation to equal it. I caught a cold, I don't "sight," but one of the terrible, old-fashioned "I've come to-day with the season" variety that went to every part of my system, leaving a cough that shook and got me out for three months. I soaked my feet, I tried "I've" it out, tried all the cough syrups, but failed, but one the bottle of it. It made a complete cure, and I feel like a young man. I always keep it on hand. I give it to my grand children, who were suffering with cough and whooping cough. The picture on the other side tells better than words the result with them. All Druggists sell it. Price, 5c and 10c, per bottle. Nothing can take the place of BARKWELL'S, it has no equal. Beware of imitations. None genuine unless signed—

SOUND AS A DOLLAR.

YOUNG MCKEIGHT, from the portrait on the other side of you, had hardly recognized him, is now the picture of health, in the same silly, good-natured fellow he used to be before his cough affected him; all around him are happy again, their cough is completely gone, and, "bringer the bridge that carries them over," they say "BARK-WELL'S BRONCHIAL BALM did it. Good for children or adults."

READ A FEW OF THE GENUINE TESTIMONIALS.

"I had a bad attack of Asthma, a few doses of Bark-well's Bronchial Balm cured the whooping, and the second bottle completely removed it. I think it a wonderful remedy, and recommended it to all my friends. Gratefully yours, CHAS. COOK, 311 Simcoe St., London."

"My little girl was very ill with Bronchitis, and a very few doses of Bark-well's Bronchial Balm restored her, and I believe saved her. I feel a very duty to let others know that they also may be cured of this terrible affection. Mrs. MARRIAGE LUTHER, 51 Bank-st., London."

A BIRMINGHAM TESTIMONIAL.—An honorable member of the Senate of Canada says: "I always get in the highest terms of Bark-well's Bronchial Balm, and I could not leave my house for several days, till I got a bottle of this celebrated Balm."

For sale by all Druggists, 5c, and 10c, a bottle. Be sure you get the genuine, signed—
