

Christian," you play into Satan's hands ; you do not judge yourself, but slur over the evil. We get here three things : Abba's heart, Abba's house, and that the Man, the perfect Servant of God, who was obedient even unto death, has won His place up there. He went in not only as One who had a right to go in, but because He had humbled Himself. These things just mark the place that you and I are in as Christians. God wanted to show what a God He was, and the resources He had in His Son.

If God has raised us up together, etc., it is that we may have communion with Himself through this Christ dwelling in us by faith. We cannot get steadiness of works, unless with a soul abiding in communion with God. If I am in communion with God, what do I get? If a heart be right with God, there is talking about Christ always—Christ at home in the heart. I look up and say, "There is a Man on the throne of God, and He has all power in His hand : " the Son of the virgin, the Seed of the woman ; and God says, "That i. My beloved Son, the fulness of Godhead." If you know Him, you may get all the fulness of God. I never shall know Him ; but I know Himself. God presents in that Man, seen there by faith, what can fill the humblest mind.

God has formed in my soul such an estimate of Christ that I could not do without Him ; and more than that, He cannot do without me (1 Cor. xii. 21). Nothing is good without Christ, and the
