XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the property of any one or more parcel or parcels of any goods so warehoused shall be transferable from party to party on a bonâ fide bill of sale, on which there shall be a written agreement signed by the parties, or a written contract of sale made, executed and delivered by a broker or other person legally authorized for or in behalf of the parties respectively, and the amount of the price stipulated in the said agreement or contract shall have been actually paid or secured to be paid by the purchaser; and any such sale shall be valid, although such goods shall remain in such warehouse, provided that a transfer of such goods, according to such sale shall have been entered in a book to be kept for that purpose by the Collector or other proper officer of the Customs, who is hereby required to keep such book and to enter such transfers, with the dates thereof, upon application of the owners of the goods, and to produce such book upon demand made; and upon such sale it shall be lawful for the proper officer to admit fresh security to be given by the bond of the new proprietor of such goods or person having the control over the same, (with his sufficient surety, in cases where the former bond was given with surety,) and to cancel the bond given by the original bonder of such goods, or to exonerate him (and his surety if any he had,) to the extent of the fresh security so given: Provided that such sale shall be of whole packages only; and the party being the proprietor of any such goods for the time being shall then be deemed to be the importer thereof for the purposes of this Act.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the Governor in Council may by regulation authorize such allowance to be made for leakage, natural and unavoidable waste or deficiency on goods warehoused, as he may deem expedient, but, subject to such regulations, the duties shall be payable on the quantity originally warehoused.

XXX. And be it enacted, That the unshipping, carrying and landing of all goods, and bringing of the same to the warehouse or the proper place after landing, and the opening, unpacking, and repacking of the same for examination or for weighing or gauging, as the case may be, and the putting of the same into the scales, and the letting out of and from the scales after weighing, warehouse rent and expenses of safe keeping in warehouse, and all other expenses attending any thing to be done with such goods in order to carry this Act into effect, shall be performed by or at the expense of the importer of such goods.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That the master of every vessel bound outwards from any port in this Province to any port or place beyond seas, or on any voyage to any place without the limits of this Province, shall deliver to the Collector or other proper officer, an entry outwards under his hand, of the destination of such vessel, stating her name, country, and tonnage, (and if British the port of registry,) the name and country of the master, the country of the owners, the number of the crew, and how many are of the country of such vessel; and before such vessel shall depart, the master shall bring and deliver to the Collector, or other proper officer, a content in writing under his hand, of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees of the goods, with the marks and numbers of the packages or parcels of the same, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content as far
