Mr. Blanchet, from the Committee to whom was referred, the petition of Jacques Morin, of the County of Hertford, reported, that the Committee had examined the matter of the said petition, and had directed him to report their opinion thereon to the House, and he read the report in his place, and afterwards delivered the same, in at the Clerk's table, where it was again read;

The said report is as followeth :

The Committee after having considered the petition of Jacques Morin, is of opinion, that the said petition and conclusions of the same, ought to be granted ; but should any one offer to build a bridge over the River du Sud, the Committee considers that the person so offering, ought to have the preference to build also the one over the arm of the said River du Sud.

Mr. Blanchet moved, seconded by Mr. Taschereau, that the Committee to whom is referred the petition of Thomas Alexis Gosselin, of the County of Hertford, have power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Mure moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Borgia, to strike out all the words after "that," and insert "the report of the Committee on the petition of Jacques Morin, be re-committed to the same Special Committee, for further consideration."

The House divided on the question of amendment,
