

House, on the further consideration of the report of the standing Committee, to examine and liquidate public and private accounts.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Simonds took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Simonds, from the Committee, reported, that the Committee had gone into consideration of the business to them referred, and had directed him to report, as follows :—

No. 20. Resolved, that the balance of £50 5 11, be paid to the Commissioners, but that the charge of £12 12 3, for a Book Case, is considered a misapplication of the money appropriated for the repairs of Government House.

Resolved, that there be allowed to the Commissioners for superintending the repairs of the Government House, the sum of £100, for repairing the Fences, enclosing the Ground attached to Government House, and other necessary purposes.

A. This account appears to be accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

B. This account appears to be accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

C. This account appears to be accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

D. This is very particular, and highly satisfactory.

E. This account is incorrect for want of affidavit and vouchers, which the Supervisor is required to furnish at the next Session of the General Assembly.

F. This account is satisfactory, and accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

G. This account is satisfactory, and accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

H. This account is satisfactory, and accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

I. This account is satisfactory, and accompanied with the requisite vouchers.

K. Since the original report, some vouchers have been received, but neither account or vouchers are satisfactory. Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that Edward W. Miller, Esq. be called upon to furnish a more correct account, with the requisite vouchers; and that steps be taken for the payment to the Supervisor of the £50 in the hands of Mr. Street.

L. This account is satisfactory, and accompanied with the requisite vouchers and affidavit.

M. This account is not accompanied with the necessary affidavits, which the Supervisors are required to furnish at the next Session of General Assembly.

And that the Committee had directed him to move for leave to sit again.

Ordered, that the report be accepted.

The House then adjourned until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.
