On Friday evening last a most enjoyable concert was rendered in the new separate school bail. Titbury, by the students of the Pines Urauline Academy, assisted by the pupils of the Tilbury separate school.

The program was a novel and enjoyable one and was very much appreciated. The recitation and pantomine, "The Lady of Shalott," was very fine. The posing throughout was very graceful and Miss Finn deserves the highest praise for her reading powers. Miss Belle Bast received a hearty encore for her recitation to which she responded. Miss Meriam, a young vocalist, was highly appreciated and responded to an encore. The choruses given by the pupils of the separate school, Tilbury, were of a high order and showed they had been will trained by the reverend mothers. Little Dick Crawford's solo was one of the features of the evening. The vocal duet, "Beautiful moonlight," by Misses Pancher and Sullivan was well rendered and well received. The instrumentals throughout were of a high order and sullivan was well rendered and well received. The instrumental throughout were of a high order and Ranger was faultiesely rendered and greatly appreciated. To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that abe could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters. he is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, hendache, backle, famting and dizzy apelles. This mirade-working medicine is a god-send to weak, sickly, rin-down people. Every bottle, guaranteed. Only of cents. Sold by A. I. McCall & Co.
