26th. I found them, and believe where the men go to have a bath, but as he was out from 2 a m to 7 p m, he did not feel like going; so I took an orderly and I rode off in search of the 26th. I found them, and believe me, I enjoyed the afternoon very much. I saw about all of No. 8 platoon, or at least what is left of them. Cosseboom is looking fine and doing good work in the scouts. Guy Pierce, I understand, is back for a commission. Major McArthur did not turn up until just before I left, but I had quite a chat with him. The colonel, I believe is, going to try and get me back, so he says. I saw both Majors McKenzie, Sandie McMillan, Fairweather, Percy McAvity, Mowatt, Morrison and Geo. Keefe. Boozer' Woods was on pass. I aso saw Edgar March and Nesbitt. It seemed like old times They are a great bunch. I did not know Major Belyea and Lieutenant Ferguson were killed, and Lieutenant Lockhart missing. All three are from "C" company. Mr. Winters is the only original "C" company officer left now, I also saw young Cox from home. Lieutenant Eason, of Fredericton, and Lt. Messereu are there now. Capt. Elliott is over for a month's instruction. They were in some pretty heavy fighting lately and lost quite a few.

"They told me all that had happened since I left. They have had nearly 500 casualties. The colonel is the same as ever. He claims he is getting white where he was gray. In some, I think, I can see the strain of seven months over here, while others show no sign. Captain May is in St. John. Maj. Brown and Lieut Sherman are at St. Martin's Plain. I wish you could take a peep in my dugout. You would be superpiced. Martin's Piain. I wish you could take a peep in my dugout. You would be surprised how comfortable we are. The 26th are in tents for the first time."

To Mobilize at Aldershot

An Ottawa despatch says:
Colonel A. H. Borden is to

Mr. Newton Lee is an Exciting Runaway Monday Morning

Mr. Newton Lee, the veteran liveryman, had a narrow es-cape Monday morning from a cape Monday morning from a bad accident.

Driving from Walker Street into Queen, and just as he turned into the latter thoroughfare, a wheel broke off one of the axles of the carriage, the gear dropping down and striking the horse on the heels, causing it to run away.

Mr. Lee stuck to the carriage and the reins, and finally drove the animal on to Conductor C. D. Philips' lawn and up against that getleman's house, and then there was a sudden stop. Mr. Lee being thrown out, receiving a blow on the nose that drew blood, but no further injury. The carriage was no further damaged nor was the horse injured.—Colchester Sun.

Germans Capture Hill 304 With Awful Slaughter.

London, The summit of Hill 304, west of the Meuse, is now in German hands. Step by step in the battle that has raged without cessation since Friday they have fought their way from the bottom up a slope, literally purchased with thousands of lives. Tonight, for all the satisfaction there is in it, the Germans are able to look down on the other side of Hill 304 into more French trenches, more French guns waiting to continue the exaction of blood.
