ANOTHER ACADIA RHODES SCHOLAR

Lieut Norman McLeod Rogers Chosen.

Announcement has just been made of appointment of a Rhodes scholar by the Acadia university. The recipient of the honor is Lieutenant Norman McLeod Rogers, son of H. Whycoff and Mrs. Grace Dean McLeod Rogers of Amherst.

Lieut. Rogers was a student at Acadia University but enlisted from there in February, 1915, with the 8th Canadian Mounted Rifles, and spent 18 months in England and France. He was recalled to take a commission, but, after fitting him self for this, he was found medically unfit for overseas service, and his discharge was recommended. While at Acadia he was a leading student, a good athlete, and represented the college on the debating team.

Lieutenant Rogers is a splendid type of young man and will undoubtedly maintain the high reputation of Acadia Rhodes scholars. He has two brothers overseas, Lieutenant Arthur W. Rogers of the 246th Battalion who enlisted with his brother, and spent the same length of time with the Canadian Mounted Rifles and Dean R. Rogers, a private in the 85th Battalion.

Two Acadia Rhodes scholars were in residence at Oxford in 1914. Harvey T. Read, of Hartford, N. B., a Lieutenant in the artillery, has been severely wounded, and Vere K. Mason of Falkland Ridge, N. S. has been killed in action.

A ST. JOHN EXCHANGE SAYS

It is not often that one entertainment is favored by so many of the talent of the city as was the case yesterday afternoon when the patients of the General Public Hospital were given a delightful sacred concert. The programme was rendered by the following singers: Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett, Miss Blenda Thompson, Miss Gladys Grant, Mrs. George Amland, Dr. Bonnell and Clive Dickason. The concert was given under the auspices of the Church of England Institute, and Miss Alicia Heales, musical convener of the institute, acted as accompanist.

Miss Annie Saunders of Middleton has been visiting Mrs. S. H. Nichols at Berwick.
