Bartlett's party arrived on the creek on the 18th of December after a hard trip of five days made by way of the Rob Roy trail. They remained until January 27, considerably over a mouth and, finding nothing that they thought would warrant the expenditure of a recording fee, came home without doing any locating.

The homeward trip was made by way of the Arkansas trail and Domirion in three days, which route, Mr. Bartlett says, is in fairly good condition for

Before last week she had never played a soubrette part, and therefore her success is noteworthy.

The change of bill on Mondays will be more carefully noted by a larger percentage of paper readers since the inbut Say Notning of Paying Nature auguration of the Thursday night family performances, and success for this feature, so long as the legitimate drama is maintained upon the boards, may be > "Married Life" at the Savoy is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Dick Maurettus bears the responsibility for the four scened production, but as it goes with those who fill the seats it is no wonder he looks undisturbed and serene about it.

It makes the audience laugh, but that is always the result of the efforts of Post and Marettus, not to mention the others such as Larry Bryant, Jennie Guichard and Madge Melville who are all heavyweight mirth makers.

The program that follows the opening act is varied enough to suit the most diversified tastes, containing as it does, choice musical selections from the best authors, vocal and instrumental, moving pictures by Prof. Parkes, fun by Bryant and Onslow, burlesque by Jennie Guichard and hilarity by Jim

This diversity of program is what makes the Savoy popular and its management successful, and under the present theatrical system all classes of theater goers' can find the class of amusement that pleases them best.
