December 19th, 1908
W. T. Rogers Esq., Brockville Business College.

Dear Sir,—I now write to let you know that I am employed in a different office, I am now with the Canadian express Co. and it is as twice as good a position as the one I had. Sometimes I get from 80 to 120 letters per day and some of them would make your face twist on account of fast dictation. Cardinal is well represented this year at your college, I hope the boys are trying to keep up the name of the old town.

Extend the season's greetings to all connected with the college and hoping you will open with a large number of students, I am,

The Xmas entertainment held in the church on the evening of Dec. 23rd was voted a complete success. The children did remarkably well performing their respective parts without any hesitation. Among the most pleasing numbers on the programme was a quartette rendered by the Misses Frye and Messrs Howard and Singleton, being enthusiastically encored they responded several times. Another pleasing feature was the S. S. Cadets, a march and chorus given by eleven young ladies of the place dressed in white with red cadet caps and sashes and carrying flags. This was repeatedly called for with the result that they were invited to give their drill at Delta the following night, where they were received equally as well. Although all the numbers were specially note worthy "The May Queen" tableau and a duet by the Misses Frye are worthy of mention being of a high class order. A vote of thanks moved by Mr Singleton of Oak Leaf and seconded by Mr Johnston of Delta was tendered the Soperton people for their excellent programme.
