IT MUST BE FINAL

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain on the South African Settlement.

The Salisbury Government Will go Before the People When the Time Comes

London, June 20 .- Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, addressing a meeting of the Woman's Liberal Unionist Association yesterday afternoon said the colonies had seen through the haze of the South African ante-bellum negotiations when Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman the Liberal leader in the House of Commons) and others were mystified. Now that the war was concluded, he added, all were unanimous that whatever the final settlement might be, it must be final and should not leave behind it the seeds of further mischief and make a repetition of the trouble nossible.

trouble possible.

The opposition wanted to know when a general election would occur. He was unable to gratify their natural curiosity, but whether the election took place to morrow or was postponed indefinitely, it would be one of the most momentous presented to the people of the united kingdom during a century involving the question of the fucentury, involving the question of the future of South Africa and the future of th

Empire.

Referring to continental criticism, Mr.
Chamberlain, after remarking that England always expected this, went on to say:

"But there are quarters whence even a note of disapproval would be a matter of serious concern. I refer to our colonies and to the United States. I think we are happy in that we have their good opininion and approval.

'It is true this good opinion of the have been one perpetual denial of the principles upon which their great republic is founded.

"I believe the great majority of true Americans recognize that our aims in this war are as high and unselfish as those which animated themselves in the Spanish-American struggle. They fought then for justice and liberty, not for their own subjects, indeed, but for those whom they believed to be the victims of oppression, and we did not opter into curious disputitions. enter into quizzical disquisitions or technical discussions, but recognized that they were carrying out as Anglo-Saxons, a great work of civilization and humanity.

"Now we are asking their sympathies, and we believe that in the long run we shall gain the final seal of their approval.

IXTY-THREE YEARS A QUEEN To-day is the sixty-third annivertry of the accession of Queen Victor ia. Sne has reigned longer than any other modern monarch, for, although Louis XIV. reigned nominally from 1642 to 1715, his actual reign did not begin until 1661, when he became of United States is not unmixed with other sentiments. Healyites Absent From the Convention at Dublin.

Dublin, June 20. - The Nationalist convention opened yesterday under the presidency of John Redmond, chairman of the united Irish parliamentary party, and was largely attended, many Roman Catholic clergymen being present. The Healyites were absent. Mr. Redmond said it was the most representative assembly of Irishmen since the union. No attacks, he added, would be permitted on their absent brother Nationalists, but the hand of fellowship was held out the hand of fellowship was held out to everyone willing to work on their lines. Resolutions were adopted, declaring there was no longer any-thing to prevent the Nationalists from reuniting, pledging Mr. Red-mond their unflinching support, and asserting that the first object was to secure independence for Ireland as a nation.

CAME UP ON A LAUNCH.

A large party from Tilbury came up to Chatham Tuesday on a fine little gasolinetyacht, in charge of Harry Cartier and John Bagnall, of the lighthouse. The party consisted of Dr. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. F. Scarff and Miss Scarff, Mrs. B. Johnson, Mrs. Chas. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Munro, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Shaw, all of Tilbury, Mrs. Kontze and daughter Florence, Mrs. H. J. Cartier and Miss McLatchie, of Jeannette's Creek, and Mrs. Andrew Crow, of Raleigh. The party lunched on Andrew Crow's lawn on the way up, and spent a pleasant three hours in the city, leaving about 4 p. m., accompanied on their return by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crow, of Chatham.

London, Wednesday, June 20, 3.25 a, m.—The sualties made public by the war office, including a long list of missing, show British losses in engagements hitherto not reported. PELIEF FORCES OF THE ALLIES-THE LEGATIONS ATTACKED-FRENCH AND GERMAN TIN-ISTERS REPORTED MURDERED.

London, Wednesday, June 20, 3 a.m. "The Russian relieving force arrived outside of Pekin this morning," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, "and immediately began to attack the city, on both sides, employing numerous artillery. The force apparently arrived in the nick of time, for the Chinese assert that the attack upon the legations had been successfully renewed. On the night of June 16, the Chinese troops under Gen. Tung-Fuh-Siag and Gen. Tun-Ching, attacked the legations and set on fire five European buildings. Nothing definite is known as to the result except that the Chinese were disappointed, although other reports, utterly discredited by foreigners here, are that the Chinese, infuriated by the destruction of Taku, have since massacred all the Europeans in Pekin." A modified version of these rumors received at Berlin is that the French, as well as the German minister, has been killed. The English at Shanghai think that the Chinese had foreign advice in organizing defences at Taku, because of the precision with which their attack was delivered. The wires connecting with the harbor mines were cut by the boxts of the warships the night before the bombardment. 700 CHINESE KILLED.

It is now reported at Shanghai that was on board the Russian cruiser Koriets, and not the Mandschur, that the explosion occurred, killing and wounding more than fifty. It is re-ported that no fewer than seven hunred Chinese were killed in the forts.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express says he is officially informed that Japan is mobilizing 25,000 men, for immediate transportation. The British cruiser Undaunted arrived at Shanghai yesterday, cleared for action, and took up a position comaction, and took up a position com-manding the Chinese forts. There are three Chinese cruisers in the harbor. The new Chinese cruiser, Hai Yang, built by the Armstrongs; has been taken into custody at Taku by the British and Russians.

At Yum-Nan-Fu, where the rising had been gathering force for days.

had been gathering force for days, 680 Christians have been attacked at the French mission settlement, many being put to death. The French consul and three missionaries are still in prison. The disorderly elements have secured the upper hand at Wuhu and Czechuan, where the native Christians have been massacred. NOTHING FROM PEKIN.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily News, telegraphing yesterday, says:—The Chinese officials here assere that they have newstrom Pekin up to June 17th. The situation was then very serious. Beyone that they claim they have received nothing, but they deny that despatches have been withheld. Although I am unwilling to adopt the alarmist reports, impression gathered from the consuls and the Chinese authorities is that the worst is to be feared in Pekin. Indiminal Seymour's column is in the middle of an arid plain, with no food and no good water, and surrounded by hostile forces." The Shanghai correspondent of the

The Shanghai correspondent of the The Shanghai correspondent of the Times, telegraphing yesterday, says:—
"The British flag is reported to have been flying yesterday over the south gate of Pekin. This is presumed to indicate the arrival of Admiral Seymour. The summoning of Li Hung Chang to Pekin is regarded as a domplete change of front on the part of the Manchus, who have abandoned the hope of opposing the powers.—"
