Japanese ladies sometimes have

CATARH OF THE HEAD

Is very common, but awfully dangerous, because it causes deafness and leads to consumption. Cure is an certain to follow the use of Catarrh-zone as day is to follow night. You simply breathe the fragrant, healing Catarrhzone which spreads through the nasal passages, throat and lungs, driving out every vestige of catarrh.
"I was cured of chronic catarrh of the nose and throat," writes Ernest M. Wilkinson, of Laurenceton, "after many years of misery, by Catarrh-zone, which is a splendid remedy to free the air passages from mucous.
Catarrhzone relieved quickly and my cure has been permanent." Price $1.00 for two months' treatment; trial size 25c.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA?

Qualms, nausea, longing for food yet dreading to eat. You may have the real thing, but Ferrozone will cure you like it did S. D. Huntington, of Hamilton, who says, "I frequently was attacked with such acute dyspepsia that I thought it must be heart disease. I used Ferrozone and got relief. I kept on using Ferrozone and was cured. My digestion is in perfect order and I can eat anything to-day." Nothing is as good as Fer-rozone for dyspepsia and those bor-tered with weak stomachs. Price 50c, at druggists.

rheumatism by Nerviline, the most powerful rheumatic remedy in the world. "I suffered all manner of pain for years," he writes, "and Nerviline was the only thing that did me any good. I canheartily recommend Nerviline for all forms of rheumatism; it goes to the very core of the pain and brings lasting relief. Let every sufferer from la mack, aching joints and swelled limbs use Nerviline. It's sure to cure and costs 25 cents for a large bottle.

CHASED THE LIONS.

An Experience of Alex. MacWillie in Africa —Canadians and the Trade With South Africa.

Mr. Alexander MacWillie has returned to Toronto after a business trip around the world, which occupied two years and a half, and included Hawaii, the Philippines, Samoa, Japan, China, Siberia, New Zealand, Australia and South Africa. Mr. MacWillie had some extremely interesting experiences, for he covered territory not often visited by tourists. He penetrated so far into the interior of China that, for safety's sake, it became necessary to wear the native costume, including a pigtail.

In Africa Mr. MacWillie visited the famous Victoria Falls, traveling 90 miles through the forest in an ox cart. On the return trip he had an experience with a lion. A kral was reached about 1 o'clock in the morning, but the Cape boys refused to come out until threatened with the siam-bok. It was learned that two nights before lions had taken cows from the kraal and the boys were afraid to venture out in consequence.
The party lit a circle of fires and prepared to keep watch in turns. "I had the first watch," says Mr. Mac-Willie, "and was feeling drowsy when I heard the fierce growl of a lion within twenty yards of me. I freely confess I was so terrified that I could not call out. When I recovered myself I threw a stick at a missionary in the party who was sleeping close by me, and, together, we watched and listened. Again we heard the growls, and, picking up burning brands, we threw them in the direction from which the sounds proceeded and from which the lion was proceeding. Later, while we were down the Wankie, the superintendent of the Cape Government railway stopped the train in the middle of a forest at midnight in order to show me the place where a boy had the previous night been killed by a lion. The trail of the beast was plainly marked by the blood of the victim."

Mr. MacWillie says that the Canadian business men do not half appreciate the great possibilities for trade that exist in South Africa, which is especially to be regretted in view of the fact that since the war Canadians have an extraordinarily good reputation at the Cape.

Mr. MacWillie saw a good deal of the fortifications, but owing to his business relations with the Russian Government he did not care to say anything about them. He soon starts out again for South Africa, and will cover very much the same ground as in his former tour, except that, in addition, he will visit India and Egypt.

Sketch of Sir William MacGregor.

Sir William MacGregor, whose appointment to succeed Sir Cavendish Boyle as Governor of Newfoundland has just been approved by the King, was born in Scotland in 1847, and graduated M.D. at Aberdeen. After serving as medical officer at Leychles, Mauritius and Fiji, he was acting High Commissioner for the Western Pacific; Administrator of British New Guinea, 1888; Lieutenant-Governor, 1890; Governor of Lagos since 1899. He has the Albert medal, second-class, and the Clarke gold medal for saving life at sea. In this connection The London Chronicle says: Dr.
MacGregor—as he was then—played a great part in the rescue of a shipful of Indian coolies in the Syria, which struck on a rock about twelve hours steaming from Suva, the capital of Fiji. Dr. MacGregor, then Acting Ce-lonial Secretary, organized the relief expedition, clambered over a broken mass that was the only path to the emigrants, who had been more than two days on the split steamer, and again and again returned with a man or a woman on his back, and sometimes a child, held by its clothes between his teeth. A man of vast physical strength, MacGregor wanted it all for his final feat. Down below on the reef was a woman who had fallen overboard, had got at the spirits, and was mad with drink. The captain of the ship and a police officer who had gone after her were being swept out to sea. MacGregor slid down a rope, caught the knot of the woman's hair in his teeth, and with his hands seized the two men and dragged them both to safety. He went back to Suva in a borrowed suit of pyjamas, having left his clothes and a good deal of his skin on the coral reef. Then he wrote his report of the disaster and the rescue. Several of his assistants gained Royals Humane Society medals and deserved them. But there was no hint in the report that MacGregor himself had been on the scene at all. It was not until the Governor disclosed the real state of the case that Queen Victoria bestowed upon him the Albert medal, and the Clarke gold medal was presented by Australia. Sometime afterwards, speaking of that last exploit, MacGregor said simply that "he never, till that moment, understood the value of his great strength."

Where Cherries Thrive.

In selecting a site for planting cherries the first consideration is that it must be well drained. Cherries will thrive on almost any well drained soil, but they show a preference for a rather light gravelly or sandy loam.

Rio Grande on Rampage.
Laredo, Texas, Sept. 14.—The flood of the Rio Grande swept the valley here yesterday. Great damage has been done. The river is up 21 feet at Laredo, and is still rising. Many thousands of acres of irrigated farms are inundated between Laredo and Hidalgo, covering a distance of 290 miles. The towns of Ignacio, Roma and other smaller settlements on both sides of the river are inundated and many houses are washed away.
Parts of the towns of Carrizo and Rio Grande City are under water. It is feared that many lives have been lost.

November 10 the Date.
Ottawa, Sept. 14.—A general election of this fall is the settled conviction of every man who takes politics.
Announcement of immediate dissolution seems premature, as Lord Minto will not return to the capital until Sept. 26. The contest in 1900 was pulled off on Nov. 7, and the chances are that the coming struggle will take place about the same date, probably Thursday, Nov. 10.

BE QUICK!

Not a minute should be lost after a child shows symptoms of cholera infantum. The first unusual looseness of the bowels should be sufficient warning. If immediate and proper treatment is given, serious consequences will be averted. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the sole reliance of thousands of mothers and by its aid they have often saved their children's lives. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it to-day. It may save a life. For sale by all druggists.

Russian Infants.

Must Pay Doctors' Bills.

The medical practitioners of Friedrichthal, Germany, have got up a "black list" of people who are behind with payments to their doctors. Medical aid will be refused to them as long as they remain on this list.

Dysentery causes the death of more people than small-pox and yellow fever combined. In an army it is dreaded more than a battle. It requires prompt and effective treatment. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and diarrhoea remedy has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery in the United States with perfect success, and has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions.

Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it to-day. It may save a life. Sold by all druggists.

Alcohol and Maternity.

The effects of alcohol are especially seen in the case of mothers among the laboring classes of England; 56 per cent of the offspring of inebriate women die at birth or under two years of age, while in the case of sober women only 26 per cent die.
