SAYS PETER RYAN KNEW

The Reserve Bids In The Miller-Beck Timber Deal

MR. RYAN CONTRADICTED

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Aubrey White, deputy Minister of Crown Lands, gave evidence on Saturday morning in the Miller-Beck timber deal, which was contrary to the testimony given by Peter Ryan, Justice MacMahon heard the evidence, with E. P. B. Johnston, K. C., examining on behalf of Ryan, and James Bicknell, K. C., for Beck.

The suit began over timber lands bought at the Government auction by Beck, when Peter Ryan was auctioneer. Beck swore that Peter Ryan had given him the Government's reserve prices on the different berths. Ryan denied this, and further said that he had no information previous to the auction as to the reserve prices. Mr. Beck showed a list of prices which he stated Ryan had given him.

Aubrey White testified that he had treated Ryan as a Government official and had discussed the reserved bids with him. In answer to questions from Mr. Bicknell, Mr. White stated that Mr. Ryan had the book with the reserved bids the day before the sale. He further stated that he had compared Mr. Beck's list of figures with the list of reserved bids in his books, and they corresponded.

To Mr. Johnston he stated that the prices received for the berths in question were higher than had before been received.

Judgment was reserved.

THE ONTARIO BANK

Justice Mabse Declines to Grant a Winding-Up Order.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Franklin Bates Polson, owner of 120 shares of Ontario Bank stock, applied through his attorney, James Bicknell, of Bicknell and Bain, for a winding-up order for the bank on Saturday before Justice Mabse at Osgoode Hall.

J. H. Moss opposed the motion on the grounds of an affidavit made by W. E. Stavert, curator of the bank, to the effect that "a winding-up order would result in the most serious loss to the shareholders of the bank, both by reason of depreciation of the assets through forced liquidation, and by reason of the great additional cost which would be thereby thrown upon the estate."

Justice Mabse concurred in this view and adjourned the motion sine die, giving either party the privilege of reviving it on 24 hours' notice.

PEASANTS FREED

may Live Where They Please—Communal System is Abolished.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—The Government has issued a ukase removing all restriction regarding employment by the state, making all equal before the law and releasing the peasants from the vexatious communal system. It prescribes also that the peasants are now free to choose their place of residence, and abolishes the poll tax from January 1st, 1907.

A DEADLY BLAST

Two Men Killed by Premature Discharge at Cement Works.

Belleville, Oct. 22.—A terrible accident occurred at the Point Anne works of the Belleville Portland Cement Co. Saturday afternoon, by which two men lost their lives.

A party of men were working in the quarry, and there was a premature blast. George Ryan and William Bowler, two of the employees, were so badly injured that they died soon after.

An inquest will be held. Bowler was a resident of this city, and was about 18 years of age. Ryan, who was also a young man, lived in the country. The men were blasting with dynamite when the accident took place.

BLEACHERS FELL

One Hundred Injured and Three May Die in Football Accident.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 22.—During the progress of the football game between the teams from Syracuse and Colgate universities at New Star Park here Saturday afternoon, a portion of the upper section of the bleachers collapsed.

The stands were densely packed and 400 people were precipitated into the enclosure under the stands.

A miracle that none was killed. Of the 100 or more injured, the death of three of them is expected. Rev. Christopher J. Donigan, assistant pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, sustained an injury to his spine which may prove fatal. Prof. William Lusk, principal of the Union Free School, Hamilton, also sustained a serious injury to his spine, and he is in a precarious condition at a hospital. John West of Rome is injured internally and may die.

The accident occurred just after the resumption of play in the second half.

THE COLLEGE GIRLS AT THE GRAN TONIGHT

The attraction booked by Manager Brisco, of the Brisco Opera House, for this (Monday) night is DeAlva's College Girls, and from numerous favorable newspaper publicity in this show we clip the following from the Galt Reporter: "DeAlva's College Girls, the big musical production, held the boards at Scott's Opera last night. Before eight o'clock every seat was sold, and the large audience present was not disappointed. The opening prologue, 'Hunting for Hawkins,' was a perfect setting, and the opening chorus, 'College Life,' showed a good number of really pretty girls in splendid costumes. Miss Littlechild, the dainty little Soprano, has certainly a marvellous voice and danced her way into the hearts of her audience. Billy Gibbs, as 'Hawkins,' his songs, 'The Wise Guy,' 'The Good Ship Never Plots,' and 'The Sultan' were side splitters. The lady band and orchestra are of the highest type. The specialties were all good and the closing act, 'Shoot the Shoots,' was simply immense. The girls are a pretty lot of jolly girls and who seem to enjoy the fun. It certainly is the best show that Manager Egan has given us this season. Success to the College Girls. May they come again."

Portland, Me., Oct. 22.—Two earth shocks destroyed about 100 feet of the temporary highway structure known as Vaughan's Bridge, which crosses the upper harbor, Saturday night. The first shock was felt at 6 o'clock, the second at 7.07. Both shocks were light, but were distinctly felt.

Will Quit Using Seines.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 22.—The agents and captains of the American herring fishing vessels at Bay of Islands yesterday signed an agreement with the native fishermen to abandon the use of purse seines for the present season. This is a concession to the colonial fishermen, who strongly resent the employment of these contrivances.

ROASTS THE NEWSPAPERS

pers pounce upon him like vultures. They rejoice when they are using the muckrake, and, as a result, when a public man falls, column after column of muckraking appears in the papers. They revel in a general tirade of condemnation. Even if it is an heroic failure they are quick to condemn him."

Mr. Ketchen forgot one thing which generally follows such an outburst. He forgot to tell the people how to run a newspaper. No think he is like hosts of others who think they know more about newspapers than the people who are publishing them. He did not point out the duty of the press, in matters affecting the public interests, and did not touch upon the benefits to be derived from publicity in matters of dishonesty in public affairs, crookedness by men in the public trust, or the illegal acts of the public officer. The publicity given to these durable the past few months has probably done more to eliminate such conditions from Canadian life than would many sermons, even though they should come from Mr. Ketchen himself.

Mr. Ketchen went on to deliver some sound advice in matters of religious duties, giving his words an added strength by repeatedly quoting God's question to Elisha, "What doest thou here?" It is the voice of conscience, and it comes to everyone. Everyone should be an active worker. Why stand speculating as to creeds, criticising the church, and doubting the power of God's grace when the fruits of Christianity are so abundantly evident? Are you doing your best? It is the call to all.

The music at both services was of a high order. In the morning a splendid anthem, "The Lord is My Shepherd," was rendered, and a solo piano solo was excellently given by Miss McKellar. In the evening, besides an anthem, "Still, Still With Thee," a solo was rendered by Miss Peate, and a selection was given by a mixed quartette, composed of Misses McKellar and Peate and Messrs. Angus and Wilson.

The annual tea-meeting will be held this evening. After the supper a program of unusual merit will be rendered by the church choir.
