Member of Industrial Committee of City Council Says Committee is a Farce

Aldermen Ignored at Railway Promoters Banquet, and Reports not Passed in Committee Before Presented at Board

It is said there will be doings at the Council meeting to-night, and judging from the temperature of one of the aldermen—and he says there two others as wrathful as he is—some person at the Board will have a few plain words addressed to him.

It appears the trouble has arisen within the members of the Industrial Committee. One of the members of this committee made the statement that no report yet presented by the Industrial Committee has been approved by the committee before it went to the Council.

The other evening, also, a deputation of railway promoters was supposed to meet the members of the committee at the Garner House. Some of the members of the committee, it is claimed, were never even notified that these people were to be in town. "This Industrial Committee is a farce," said one of the aldermen this morning, "and I think you will find to-night that it will be dissolved and formed over again. The members of the committee are not so because they missed the banquet at the Garner by any means, but they think they should be consulted before anything is done in their name, for they have to account to the people for their actions."

As a matter of fact, there is too much work for the Industrial Committee this year and we should have an extra Railway Committee to relieve the Industrial Committee from responsibility in connection with the Electric Railway.

"However," he concluded, "the whole thing will be threshed out to-night at the Council meeting, and matters will have been arranged into more workable order."

THE KING'S PRIZE.

Does Not Come to Canada This Year—East Surrey Man Won It With a Score of 315.

Bisley, July 24.—The King's Prize at the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association was won Saturday by Armorer-Sergeant Comber, of the Second East Surrey Regiment, with a score of 315.

This is materially lower than last year's aggregate, when Pte. Perry of Canada carried off the trophy with a score of 321.

King Edward himself was present on the range to see the final stage of the contest for his gold medal, which he personally presented to the winner.

Canadians' Place.

In the King's Prize Sergt. Richardson was fifth with 307, winning 230; Staff-Sergt. Crowe was 24th, winning 211; Pte. Morrice, 37th, 21.

The King visited the camp Saturday morning. After inspecting the Canadians and other Colonials, he shook hands with Commandant Hesselin and Adjutant Davidson.

"I take a great interest in the Canadians," he said, "and am glad to hear that they have done well."

In the Broadhead seven shots at 600 yards, Capt. Stuart was first, winning 25 1/2.

In the Leder Challenge Cup, Major Howard, the agent-general for Nova Scotia in London, was first, winning the cup and 25. This is open only to the mounted branches of His Majesty's forces, and is seven shots at 600 yards.

In the Sticklehead match Lt. Boulton was first, winning 210; Sergt. Moore, 2d, 24; Sergt. Kerr, 6th, 23; Sergt. Richardson, 14th, 21; Sergt. Simpson, 15th, 21; Capt. Elliott, 26th, 21; Major Flowers, 27th, 21.

In the Wingrove, Sergt. Phillips was 3rd, winning 25 1/2; Sergt. Simpson, 4th, 25 1/2; Sergt. Russell, 16th, 21; Pte. Brayshaw, 17th, 21; Sergt. Moore, 24th, 21; Capt. Mitchell, 26th, 21.

Canadian Prize Winners.

In the Handsworth competition the following Canadians were among the prize winners: Sergt. Russell, Ottawa, 3rd, 24; Capt. Elliott, Toronto, 8th, 23; Lt. Boulton, Victoria, 17th, 21; Col. Sergt. Moore, Peterboro, 20th, 21; Pte. Morrice, Montreal, 27th, 21; Sergt. Pugh, Quebec, 31st, 21; Capt. Stuart, Vancouver, 24th, 21; Pte. Wilson, Ottawa, 35th, 21; Sergt. Kelly, Toronto, 37th, 21.

Among the winners in the "Henry" competition were: Capt. Mitchell, York Rangers, 3rd, 23; Staff-Sergt. Crowe, Guelph, 4th, 22; Pte. Morrice, 10th, 21; Capt. Jones, P. E. I., 13th, 21.

The following were successful in the "Association" cup series, ten shots at 600 yards. By the regulations each lady member may nominate a gentleman member of the National Rifle Association to shoot for her, which does not interfere with the gentleman's right to shoot for himself. A gentleman may represent more than one lady. Sergt. Crowe, 6th, 23; Capt. Mitchell, 14th, 23; Sergt. Simpson, Toronto, 24th, 23; and 27th, 23; Capt. Mitchell, 26th, 23; and 24th, 23; Sergt. Crowe, 41st, 23; Sergt. Russell, Ottawa, 44th, 23; Sergt. Crowe, 46th, 23; Orderly-Sergt. Phillips, Toronto, 47th, 23; Staff-Sergt. Bayles, Toronto, 50th, 23; Pte. Eastcott, Ottawa, 54th, 23; Sergt. Crowe, 57th, 23; Col. Sergt. Moore, 74th, 23; and Sergt. Pugh, 81st, 23.

CAN BRIDGE NOT BE SOLD?

Suggestion that Townships be Offered Aberdeen Bridge at Bargain

City and Company Could then Unite on Erection of a Successor to Meet Their Needs

A happy suggestion has been made, which, if acceptable, may do much to end the unfortunate trouble which now appears imminent between the city and the Electric Railway Company over the Aberdeen bridge and may save both parties a bill of heavy costs in expensive litigation.

It is well known that for some time the Townships of Dover and Raleigh have agitated for a swing bridge across the river near the French church. It is suggested that these Townships be given the opportunity, with possible assistance from the County Council, to purchase Aberdeen bridge.

This would open the way for the erection of a new bridge more suitable for running the cars over and which the city could doubtless secure the assistance of the company in purchasing.

If this suggestion could be acted upon it would, we feel assured, meet with public approval. Chatham citizens are already sufficiently overtaxed without permitting warring elements and eager lawyers to run up the costs in expensive litigation. The Aberdeen bridge has been valued at $2,000, while it would take nearly $1,000 to move it.

DULMAGE TO TAKE ACTION

Crown Will in That Case Give Wheatley Man Every Assistance

Result of Inspector Murray's Investigation—Whipping and Sousing were Done Regularly

Inspector John W. Murray, of the provincial detective force, returned to the city this morning after his visit to Wheatley investigating the Dulmage assault. On his return Mr. Murray and Crown Attorney Smith were closeted for some time and it is understood that they had further communication with the Attorney-General's Department.

Later the Crown Attorney gave the following statement to The Planet:

"Mr. Murray's investigation shows that Dulmage had been in the habit of drinking hard and abusing his family; that on the night in question he was whipped and soused in the way of his punishment. His wife was present during the operations, a doctor also was engaged to say when the man had had enough and a constable was asked to be present to keep the peace.

If Dulmage desires to prosecute the parties concerned, he will have out an information and the case will be tried before the County Magistrate, Mr. Houston. In this case the Crown has been instructed to give him every assistance. If, however, he does not take action on his own account the Crown will not interfere.

"The names of the parties who did the disciplining are all known and it will be an easy matter to secure them if necessary."

SAD CASE

Provincial Inspector Murray Leaves for Blenheim to Investigate Killing of Broadhead Child

Provincial Detective Murray left at noon to-day for Blenheim, where he will investigate the killing of the orphaned child, Irene Broadhead.

In a brief interview with The Planet before his departure Mr. Murray said: "The case as reported to the Crown is a very sad one. What will be the result of the investigation of course I cannot yet say, but the Government deems it right that it should be thoroughly looked into."

THE MARKET BUILDING

"You might deliver a quiet little little toast to the Council on the way to work by being conducted on the market building," said a market square business man.

"What we want here is a market shed right away, and what we have is a police station partly built and excavations made for the sheds. Now you will notice the workmen are commencing to take up the pavement so that a man cannot get into his place of business without experiencing considerable difficulty. Surely it would be good policy to wait until the shed is ready to be occupied before the pavement is torn up."

HIS HONOR AS PEACE MAKER

Judge Dowlin Seeks to Have Good Fellowship Restored Between City and Company

Ponderous Exhibits Threatened at This Morning's Hearing of Railroad Writ

Those who expected excitement at the County Judge's Chambers this morning were, in a measure, disappointed. Quite a number of citizens were lined about the walls of the Chamber when Judge Dowlin took his seat to hear argument in the matter of the writ issued by the electric road in connection with which they ask an injunction restraining the city from interfering with their workmen on the Aberdeen bridge. His Honor thought the interests of all parties would best be served by allowing them, as he facetiously put it, an opportunity to "bridge" the matter over. Consequently he adjourned this motion and the city's application for a cross injunction to restrain the railway people from disturbing the present condition of the bridge until tomorrow at three p. m.

Edwin Bell, accompanied by General Manager Warburton, appeared for the railroad interests; W. E. Gundy appeared on behalf of the city. The ponderous size of Mr. Gundy's legal bag aroused much speculation. Mr. Bell eyed it suspiciously, evidently fearing that Mr. Gundy was going to put in part of the bridge in question as an exhibit. To checkmate this step he hurriedly gave the young man orders to secure "two Dagos"—being one who had escaped the ducking of Saturday and still remains in all his native unwashed splendor, the other, a humbled castilian who was forced into the humiliating position of having to take a bath—have them labelled "Before" and "After" and "After Taking" and filing them as exhibits, ask if the most sacred traditions of Dagism are to be thus wantonly violated.

When Mr. Bell arose to his feet His Honor immediately made the suggestion that an amicable settlement be arranged.

Mr. Bell—I agree with your Honor and we advocated this even before—His Honor—Before they cooled you off.

Mr. Gundy thought the railroad should give an understanding that matters remain "in statu quo" and both sides, finally, gave such an agreement.

In the meantime the bridge, the bone of contention, is being guarded by three special constables and will continue to be so guarded until the trouble is settled. In addition to this precaution the bridge is partially swung so pedestrians only can get across.

BARRED WHITE

Heartless and Injustified Treatment of the Well Known Sprinting Barrister and Musician

The fat man's race at the Pere Marquette Picnic was a disappointment. When the entries lined up on Saturday they included Barrister J. W. White, the well known champion sprinter and choral director. Mr. White had donned his athletic regalia and was ready for the fray.

But his fame had preceded him and the authorities refused to let him run. The grounds were that Mr. White was a professional. This was very unjust, as everyone knows the popular barrister is a devoted champion of healthy amateur athletics.

"I wish The Planet would chronicle my protest," said the athlete, telephoning to this journal. "It was very unfair to rule me out when I was over there all ready."

COURT NOTES

In the County Criminal Court this morning Frank Lucier, of Dover Township, was charged with the seduction of Sarah Porter, a young girl under 16 years of age. Evidence of the previous unchaste character of the girl was given, on which the prisoner was acquitted. The magistrate reserved his decision in the Rocky case.

ANOTHER TRIBUTE

The following from the Albertan, a paper published in Calgary, refers to the late Dorothy Sheldon, whose funeral took place in this city last Wednesday:

"Miss Dorothy Sheldon died suddenly Thursday night. She has lived with her mother at 614 Eighth avenue east for some time. Miss Sheldon, since coming here, has been deservedly popular, and her loss is deeply regretted by her many friends. She was unfailingly cheerful through the course of a long and tedious illness and was resigned to the last."
