The Way to Keep Down the Cost of Living:

Buy Your Groceries, Teas & Coffees From WENTZELL'S Limited.

From one end of the Province to the other WENTZELL'S LIMITED is known as the "Big Store." It is known as the "only part that is small is the price."

WENTZELL'S LIMITED buy in the very largest quantities direct from sources of supply. Having ample capital, they pay cash, thus securing everything at the very lowest market price.

The policy of the "Big Store" is "large sales and small profits." This has built up a tremendous business, nothing like it east of Montreal. That's the reason why the "Big Store" prices are always so reasonable, and why you can keep down the cost of living if you trade here.

Free Delivery Offer.

We prepay the freight on all orders amounting to $10.00 and over, except for such heavy goods as sugar, flour, molasses, salt, oil, etc. If your name is not on our mailing list, send it along, so that you will receive our catalogue and special lists as they are published.

What is Success?

What is success? To gain a share of gold? To have one's wealth in obvious accounts told? To see one's picture printed in the Press? Ah, there be those who label this success. What is success? To win a little fame? To hear a noble world applaud your name? To be accounted as a genius? Yes, And there be those who label this success. But have we got another standard still? To judge a man of character and will? Are gold and fame the only measures tried? In all the world is there no test beside? Ah, yes. The man who meets with success.

Opened Eyes.

Just look at Ben Todd, the station agent, going back to the depot the other way. Mrs. Perkins called to her daughter. "I'll bet he and Mabel have quarrelled about that whippersnapper Charlie Wilkes, for she was out automobiling with that fellow yesterday, and they passed the depot three times, as if they were just determined Ben should see them."

Gunpowder in War.

There was a period when any kind of "explosive" fighting in war was considered barbarous. The discovery of gunpowder put a stop to the old-fashioned method of attack, in which only missiles and sharpened weapons were considered ethical, but gunpowder did not come into approval until a struggle. In fact it was under the "humility" ban for almost three centuries.

This remarkable compound of saltpeter, sulphur and charcoal which was given its first try out at the siege of Constantinople in 1433, had been known to both the Chinese and the soldier for a hundred years or more. It is said to have been discovered by Roger Bacon in England about the year 1290 and by a German monk named Scheerz twenty years later.

Another independent discoverer of the same dangerous mixture was an unknown and uncelebrated Moor, whose secret was ultimately carried into Europe in the fourteenth century. It was used to make an explosive compound, the Chinese "beat him to it," having used this same kind of mixture for rocket signals before the Christian era.

The fall of Constantinople was brought about by the use of the wholly methal and altogether barbarous use of cannon balls, it was not until about twenty years later that the world gave its full sanction to the killing of men by means of gunpowder.

Piles Entirely Cured.

Mr. Wm. Woodell, 107 St. John St., Carlton, St. John, N. B., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for itching, bleeding piles, and as a result have been entirely cured. For years I was a great sufferer from this distressing ailment, and can say that three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me of it."

Moving Pictures That Displease.

Hugh Knowlton writes as follows in the New York Times: "The other night I went with three friends to the movies in Brooklyn. We were in a room of entertainment pure and simple. What we got was not entertainment, nor was it pure. We had paid a price for our seats almost equal to that charged by regular theatres and in return had received nothing but a feeling of discomfort and embarrassment. Last summer I had an experience in Greenwich, Conn., similar to that of the other night. I protested to the manager. His answer was: 'What can I do? I do not choose my own films, but have to take those which the profiting syndicate sends me. If a play on the legitimate stage is had there is something tangible in point of place and time to censor. When a moving picture is had, even if it were possible to suppress it in the theater, that one picture is being produced simultaneously in different parts of the country and its incalculably vast influence cannot be nipped in the bud."

Moving pictures are a tremendous power, but today they are a power run riot. They are as intangible as fire and for this very reason can spread suggestion for evil as well as good without fear of hindrance. If the "beat movies" at home sink to unhealthy levels what must the effect of the cheap movies be upon the millions of people who patronize them reverently throughout the United States? The bill now before Congress to establish a national official censorship for moving pictures may or may not be the solution, but at all events, let us make some effort to keep the movies from running amuck.

It is whispered. That the difference between honor and discretion is, that honor tells you not to hit a man when he is down, and discretion warns you to be careful about hitting him when he isn't down.

That the fewer relations and friends we have the happier we are. In our poverty they never help you—in our prosperity they always help themselves.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

In a recent copper requisitioning trip a German official said to a German housewife: "The Kaiser wants all your kettles." "Well, I'm sure he'll welcome to them," the housewife answered, "for we've had nothing to cook in them since the tightening up of the blockade."

In Uniform But Not in The War.

As time goes on people grow more observant. They begin to perceive that quite too many of those who cut a dash in uniforms have no intention of cutting wire entanglements in the way of their own advancement.

It is necessary to dress this matter in plain terms. There is a great difference between being a soldier in this war and merely making a pretense at it. A man does not do his bit by wearing khaki while the war is on; he does his bit by being a soldier in the war.

There are others who claim to be "doing their bit" making munitions although it would be fairly examined it would be found that they are "making their bit" too, drawing more money than they ever did before.

The Racking Pains of Sciatic Rheumatism

Were Well-nigh Unbearable—After Five Years of Suffering Cure Was Effected by Dr. Chase's Medicines.

For downright excruciating pain few ailments can be compared to sciatic rheumatism. Since this condition of the sciatic nerve denotes exhaustion of the nervous system, the logical cure is found in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to nourish the starved nerves back to health and vigor.

Reports are continually coming in to us regarding the splendid results obtained in the treatment of sciatic rheumatism by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after each meal and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally as a means of arousing the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels and thereby keeping the system freed of pain causing poisonous impurities.

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edenwood, Mass., writes:—"It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food as a

As It Sometimes Is.

The cost of not knowing is the heaviest burden we have to carry. The boy has no time to get an education, and to the end of his days is a laborer getting only a living wage. The girl is anxious to become a seamstress, and she is not given the opportunity.

We who are older, whose rate of life are deeply worn, look at the present moment merely and stumble over what a little forethought should have told us might become a help instead of the drawback it proves to be. We say too busy to read, and the thing our farm paper tried to warn us against comes along and we are too busy to plan, and the year finds us tramping the same old tread mill.

Light Sleepers.

Should you be a restless sleeper, should sleep come to you only by fits and starts, try simple remedies and do not plunge into narcotics or stimulants—at least not until the others have failed.

I can cure the worst cases of insomnia in this manner. When the patient has retired give her a heaping bowl of bread and milk with just dash of salt to season it. This will draw the blood from the head to the stomach. It will quiet the nerves and put the entire body in a healthy glow, and in ninety nine cases out of a hundred the patient sleeps peacefully.
