SIMMONS BEDS 'Built for Sleep'

No matter how simple or how elaborately furnished the bedroom of your home may be—there is a Simmons Bed of a design and finish that will harmonize easily. Artistic beauty, refinement of design and elegance of finish characterize every number. Simmons steel beds in either "rock" or "flexible" widths, are masterpieces of beauty, and unlike beds of wood, they cannot warp, become loose jointed or noisy. They are strong, correctly proportioned, serviceable, thoroughly sanitary and 100% comfortable. Let us show you these new designs.

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS HERE AUGUST 15

Guarantors are Reminded of their Responsibilities—Public Should Secure Seats Early

The big seven days Chautauque program commences at Florenceville, August 15; Hartland, August 15 and Woodstock, August 16. To have three Chautauques in three towns so close together is rather a heavy undertaking and it is up to every guarantor to do his utmost to sell the required number of tickets. There may be some who have forgotten that they signed the guarantee to the Chautauque. Everyone who signed should remember that they are under an obligation, and that selling a proportionate number of tickets does not relieve them of the responsibility.

From now until mid-August everyone should talk Chautauque and fan the flame of enthusiasm.

In Hartland tickets will be on sale next Tuesday and thereafter at the following places: D. H. Morgan & Son, Bank of Montreal, Hatfield & Co., F. E. Sayre, Hartland Drug Co., W. H. Thornton, Hartland Clothing Co. Hartland Chautauque tickets will also be on sale at the stores of J. W. Boyer & Co., Victoria, G. E. DeWalt, Waterville, W. F. Anderson, Lakeville, G. A. Clark, Stickney, E. B. Estabrook, Coldstream, G. W. Hatfield & Son, St. Andrews, Judd McGee, Lower Brighton, G. G. Barter, Avondale, Perry Fitzgerald, Glassville, Mrs. Perley Wason, Windsor.

You may buy tickets from any of these parties or of A. W. Kyle, secretary, Hartland, and book your seat early. You may phone or write for reservations.

Tickets are not transferable and may be used only by the purchaser. Those who purchase in advance are guaranteed a seat; there will be no waiting or anxiety for a holder of a season ticket; each retains the same seat throughout the course. The cost of a season ticket is $2.50, while those who purchase single tickets after the opening date will be required to pay 50 cents for each evening entertainment.

PROGRESS OF TRUSTEES' ASSOCIATION

For the information of those who may be wondering what the new Trustees Association has been doing I may say that we at once took up the question of having the Teachers' Association hold the new schedule in abeyance for a year with B. C. Foster, President, Fredericton. We presented this matter on the ground that the majority of the country districts are in real difficulty with regard to financing at the legal rates imposed last January; that the whole matter in the cause of much discussion pro and con—neither trustees nor teachers being clear as to which schedule they are bound; that the new rates should not be imposed until after the Provincial Convention of Trustees at Fredericton where the salary question could be taken up jointly with the teachers; and finally, but by no means least, the teachers would have a great deal to gain and nothing to lose by this concession, for they have confessed their helplessness to move the Board of Education to increase their grants, but by standing in well with the Trustees Association which will so largely represent the whole public sentiment of the province, the above Board will very quickly see that something must be done at once.

In order to expedite matters Berton C. Foster was invited to Hartland to discuss the situation. He spent about two hours here on Wednesday with the Secretary and meeting as many of the Association as could be got together. He showed a very superficial acquaintance with the subject as it affects the country districts, but promised to see what could be done. The secretary felt that probably the matter would be dropped unless persistently pushed and embodied above consideration in a telegram to which he received an answer that the Teachers' Executive would be consulted at once and the result made known through the press for the information of Trustees and Teachers.

RIDEOUT-McKAY

A marriage of much interest was solemnized at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. E. A. Tribes, Hartland, on Wednesday, July 13, when Burt Bipperville Rideout of Somerville was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Elizabeth McKay of Florenceville.

The bride was becomingly attired in a travelling suit of navy serge with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by auto for Fredericton. After a short honeymoon trip they returned to reside at Somerville where the groom is an energetic young farmer.

Miss McKay has been an efficient teacher for some time and has many friends who wish the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

DIDN'T GET PIANO; HEAVY COSTS INSTEAD

The Queenston Heights episode was re-enacted after a fashion on Tuesday when a man accompanied by several assistants came from Mars Hill and proceeded to take the law in his own hands—or, rather, to ignore the laws of Canada. The object of this man was to seize a piano which he said was his, but which the laws of this country protected against any claims he had. He secured the services of a certain provincial constable, who also is a "holy roller" by faith, and proceeded to the home of a man at Middle Simonds where the piano was. On pretext of wishing to use the Simonds man's phone the constable was admitted to the house before his real errand was known. Soon as he entered the door he told the others to follow and the men laid hold of the home of contention and hustled it out and on to an auto truck that had been waiting outside.

The Simonds man was powerless to do anything to prevent the seizure except to telephone the Police Magistrate at Hartland. This proved very effective for the magistrate hastily swore in three constables—Frank L. Dickinson, G. M. McLeod and Clayton Craig, and they started in pursuit. The truck was overhauled near Connell and there ensued a very lively scrimmage. Constable Dickinson was the chief operator and tackled a man of very sound build who is said to be the big brother of Mars Hill. He resisted arrest so strenuously that a complete knock-out was necessary. The religious provincial constable also showed strong resistance. All were brought to Hartland and the piano was replaced in the house from whence it was taken.

Tried summarily before the Police Magistrate the men were allowed to go by paying all the costs of the fracas, which were made up at $110. Given their liberty the Yankies made the gravest in their haste to get back under their own flags. The trip was an expensive one, costing the man the hire of a truck for 30 miles, and of his compatriot assistants and the doubtful aid of the "provincial constable." And then the $110—and the injured dignity, and having to listen to the grumbling of the bruised assistants all the way home.

THREE BALL GAMES HERE NEXT WEEK

On Monday evening Bridgewater base ball team came to Hartland and accepted defeat in a score of 21 to 0. Hartland team was never in better form and it was a pity that on the occasion they had not heavier opponents.

Next week Hartland will play in three league games: At Grand Falls on Monday; Perth at Hartland on Wednesday, and Florenceville at Hartland on Friday.

The games on Wednesday will probably be the most interesting played here this season. Perth is at the head of the league list and Hartland is at the foot. The game will start at sharp 4 p.m., and an effort will be made to have the stores close at that hour and let all hands have a breathing spell for once during the summer.

The three games next week should be well patronized.

STIFF SENTENCE FOR ILLEGAL FISHING

American Poacher Finds Netting Salmon in New Brunswick Waters a Costly Pastime

Last Wednesday night Fishery Officers Messereau and Boyer discovered a party of four poachers busily engaged in netting the well known salmon pool at Bristol. They lay in wait until the men came ashore when they "lit out" on them. The men took to their heels, with Boyer after them, Messereau being unable to follow in the pursuit on account of his suffering from wounds received on active duty overseas. The first man Boyer overhauled was a big fellow and not easily handled. Boyer was determined, however, and held the man down until Messereau came up, when the poacher subsided. Meanwhile the other three made a safe getaway. The officers, besides arresting the man seized the whole fishing outfit, including net, boat and automobile. In the net was a large quantity of salmon, which were freed. The man was taken to Woodstock. He refused to give his own name or that of his friends, but it is stated that a fine of $400 was paid and the man was given his liberty.

The prisoner stated that he lived in the United States—his car bore a Maine tag—and had been invited to come over to enjoy some sport at drifting for salmon. It is presumed that the other three residents of the county who knew the locality well. Since it is learned that the name of the man arrested was Phair and that he hails from Van Buren.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school Board has secured the services of Miss Jane McBeath, a 1st class superior teacher of 8 years experience, nearly all spent in superior schools where she had to handle grades 1 to 10. She will have charge of the department next to the principal.

For the next department we have Miss Anna Kingston, late of Havelock Superior School, where she has been for 5 years of her 7 years work as a 2nd class teacher.

Mrs. Anna Nixon will continue to preside over the primary department where she has been very successful. Those who have pupils in her care and who have visited her room, recognize her ability especially with the little tots just starting out.

Gage Montgomery, having shown great interest in the school work and proved himself a worker of ability, has been retained for the 2nd department.

In order to revive interest in the school library the Board has ordered a copy of the Children's Encyclopedia, or Book of Knowledge. There are 20 volumes well written in simple, easy, readable style, with everything well pictured out—the easiest way to build further instruction on the child's present intelligence. The secretary would much appreciate the gift of good magazines, pamphlets or books that would be of interest to the school.
