HAMILTON EVENING TIMES TUESDAY. APRIL 6 1909.

CHAPTER XXVI.

5

was some minutes about it, and Mr Harrington, taking his silence for assent Gerald Moore: it was a musical name, and seemed to haunt Carrie on their way home to the cottage, where they were staying with their aunt, a Mrs. Harrington. Something in the strang-er's face had pleased her also; sick peo-ple take sudden likes and disilikes, and Carrie, in her dull anotherite mode born flowed on. "Ah! that's a pity. A man in position ought to have married attack, but Carrie only smiled with er's face had pleased her also; sick peo-ple take sudden likes and dislikes, and Carrie, in her dull, apathetic mood, born of her weakness, was rather favorably impressed with the fair, bronzed face and gråy eyes with their half sad, halt stern expression. But the eyes and their owner would doubtless have faded from her memory if Philippa had not mentioned him as the three ladies sat over their tea." "Carrie made an acquaintance this af-ternoon, aunt," she said, with a smile. "At least, I found her in conversation with a young and handsome stranger, who seemed loath to depart, though 1 put on my most forbidding air." Mrs. Harrington, who was rather a prim old lady, looked askance. "Fact, aunt," went on Philippa, en-joying the old lady's dismay; "a per-fect stranger, and yet she had learnt his name." faint anusement. "I suppose so," he said. "But I've always missed doing my duty, some-

"Yes," said Carrie, languidly, "and a

"Yes," said Carrie, languidly, "and a remarkably pretty name, too, aunt, Do you like it?-Gerald Moore." Mrs. Harrington nodded and looked suddenly interested. "Moore-Gerald Moore! Dear me! I wonder whether it is the little Gerald Moore I used to know? The Moores of Badgworthy, my dear? you must have heard of them. I used to know his moth-er, and have nursed him on my knee many a time."

many a time. 'He's not a little fellow now, aunt. and you must not think of nursing him, said Carrie, who delighted in horrifying the prim old lady. "Why shouldn't he be the same? The world is very small, you know."

"I devoutly hope he may be," said Philippa, with a yawn, "He would make a pleasant diversion, as the French say, for delightful as Sandgate is, it is, not too fine a point on it, rather

"He was a very nice boy," said Mrs. Harrington, gazing with placid affec-tion into space, "but turned out rather wild, if I remember rightly." "All nice boys do," remarked Carrie, and the subject dropped. But the next morning as the

the next morning, as the chair was creations But the y chair was creeping along the Sandgatians proudly call-"the Parade," with Carrie donkey what ed "the Parade," with Carrie looking like a delicate piece of wax work looking like a delicate piece of wax work in her morning dress and straw hat, who should appear in sight but Gerald Moore. He was walking toward them, and Phi-lippa fancied that a faint flush of satis-faction and pleasure came into the grey eyes as they full upon the chair; but it might have been fancy only. As they approached each other he made a short pause, and, raising his hat, looked as if he would like to speak; but though Carrie gave him a languid little nod, Philippa put on the fiercest and most-developed watch-dog expression, and he passed on.

The wond ince to speak, but choose it is a languid little nod, Philippa put on the fiercest and most-developed watch-dog expression, and he passed on. "Your friend has plenty of confi-dence," she said. "He had he'f a mind to speak, and would have done so if I hadn't glared at him." "Why should you are asked Carrie, care-lessly, watching the vessels in the offing. "Why should you are yourself a little flirtation for my sake? Don't dear. It would amuse me." "I dare say, but—why, good graciona.

would amuse me." "I dare say, but—why, good gracious, he is Aunt Harry's little boy!" she added, as, looking around, she saw her sunt and Gerald coming after the chair. "My dears." said the old lady, "this gentleman whom you met is my Mr. Moore. Gerald—I geg your pardon, you ar not a little boy now!—these are my two nieces, Misses Philippa and Carrie tharrington. How strange that we should meet at this out-of-the-way place after all these years!" "Nothing that happens is strange. Mrs.

all these years!" "Nothing that happens is strange Mrs. "Nothing that happens is strange Mrs. "And when the strange of the strange of the strange of the strange in her dreamy to the two girls, with an unmistakable look of pleasure in his grey eyes. "Oh, but it is! Sandgate is one of the last places I should think of visiting: but we are here under the doctor's He bend a look of respectful sympathy upon Carrie, and inclined his head. "And what have you here doing all "And what have you here doing all arrie, and inclined his head. what have you been doing all re?" asked the old lady, with the y of her sex and age. much good. I am afraid," he an-with a smile, his eyes wander-''''' we shall be very glad to see you. Rose Cottage, you know.''

MY LUCKY DAY Philippa crimsoned at this point-blank

"Ah!" breathed Mrs. Harrington, prim-

MY LUUCKY DAY Mr. Thomas Wylie (Box 384), Galt, says:-"I'I was the luckiest day of my life when I struck PSYCHINE, for I rruly be-lieve I shouldn't be alive now but for that "A neglected cold was the beginning of my trouble, and what seemed to be a simple aliment, soon developed into a seri-ous and dangerous condition. I got so low that it was scarcely possible for me to walk around, and I lost so much flesh that I looked like a skeleton. I was just about ready to 'hand in my checks,' although only 20 years of age. The medicine the doctor gave me made me worse and I got disgusted. Then I struck PSYCHINE." "PSYCHINE did miracles for me. The first bottle gave me new life and courge, and in less than no time I began to put on fleshrapidly, and I felt I was on the high road to recover. My appetite returned, and I 'ate like a hunter,' as the saying goes My friends were surprised, and hardly knew me. In three months I was as strong and well as ever, and returned to work in the mill. I have pot had a day's illness "Ah!" breathed Mrs. Harrington, prim-ly, and taking advantage of the pause, he drew near to Carrie. "I hope you find the air of Sandgate beneficial," he said, in a low voice, as if, as Carrie remarked, afterward, she was too fragile to bear a full-toned voice. "Ut's considered rather first rate for invalids." nvalids." With a spark of her old mischievous-tess, she looked up at him. "Is that why you are here, Mr. Moore ?" "I? Oh. no, no!" he said, faintly unling. "I am here because—I'm afraid don't quite know. One must be some-where." "That sounds unanswerable," she said then, as if the conversation, short as it had been, had wearied her, she drew a little sight and dropped back. He looked as if he had committed some exquisite cruelty toward her, and drew a little aside. "The afraid your sister is still very weak," he said to Philippa, in her elear voice. "But she is feeling better was," is he is not so weak as she was," is her "That sounds unanswerable," she said; every day. She is not so weak as an "No in the delicate face. "Great Heaven! how ill she must have been!" and the tender sympathy of a strong man was eloquently conveyed in his lowered voice. Carrie turned her head with a smile. "Don't let my sister impose upon you, Mr, Moore," she said. "She is telling you that I am a great invalid; but ii isn't true. I am a glaring imposture. The disease I am suffering from is not an uncommon one. You may have heard of it."

and pleasant. Remember, Gerald Moore ! Remember! Pack up your portmanteau and leave Sandgate by the next train !" With a groan he sprung to his feet— he had been fighting this battle between right and wrong for an hour—aud strode off to the hotel,.. resolved to fly while he had strength. But even while "No," he said, with the deepest interest, and venturing to return to her side. "What is it?" "Laziness," replied Carrie, solemnly. His face cleared. His face cleared. "You are relieved," said Carrie, with a touch of her old sharpness. "Why, what did you think I was going to say?" "I"-he was quite taken off his guard-"I thought you were going to say consumption!" he said under his herett while he had strength. But even while he trust his clothes into the portman-teau, that strength failed him. With something like an oath, he flung the coat he held in his hand back into the

he muttered between his teeth breath. She laughed softly. "My lungs are as sound as—as that boy's," raising her hand and pointing to an urchin standing on the quay and not to-day I will go and see her once ore-only once-and then I'll put the

(To be Continued.)

Garments

A Group of Indispensible Gar for Ladies and Children.

2372—Girl's Sailor Suit, consisting a blouse with yoke and double coling to Carrie's face. "Ah! I hope that's not true. You were a had of great promise." went on Mrs. Harrington, as if he were still a little boy, and she proceeded to put him under breath

yelling.

he nodded.

Time is getting short. Don't delay your Easter shopping. Come right to this store when buying is made an easy task for you instead of a worry. Many Pre-Easter sales now going on throughout the whole store possibly in just the goods you require. A few hints for Thurs-day. Read it.

A Big Shipment of New Dutch Collars, Worth Reg-ularly 25c, On Sale To-morrow at 19c each Just received a splendid shipment of Dutch Collars and will go in a special sale to-morrow. Fill your Easter wants here and save. Also in the lot some swell Jabots trimmed with lace and insertion. Out they go to-morrow at each 19c.

Big Rush Out of Women's Handkerchiefs

Pretty Embroidered Handkerchiefs, Worth Regularly 25c, Wednesday Sale Price 2 for 25c 500 dozen beautifully Embroidered Swiss Handkerchiefs, purchas-ed by our European buyer for the Easter selling from a big manu-facturer in Switzerland. Be on time for this great bargain to-morrow. Sale price 2 for 25c.

Paris Veilings in the Big Pre-Easter Sale

Chiffon Taffeta Ribbons for Wednesday, 20c Yard Regular Value 35c, Sale Price Lovely Chiffon Taffeta Ribbon, 6 inches wide, on sale in 17 different col-rs, supply your Easter wants here; splendid for millinery, sashes and chil-ren's huir bows, at, per yard 20c

Easter Style Show of Women's Apparel

Presenting a pageantry of Fashions designed to meet the demand of the most fastidious. Everything for the great Easter fashion event. Never before was the McKay store so splendidly prepared. This is perhaps why we are doing such a wonderful Pre-Easter business, why delighted crowds pause in front of our windows, constantly thronging our suit and costume sections. The woman of refinement who seeks the exclusive obtains it here unstinted-by Women's New Spring Suits $20 Women's 3-Piece Suits $35 These stunning units are cleverly In these you obtain charming and adde from beautiful chiffon Panamas de Serges, in all the new colors and ack. Every new style suggestion in Soleil Cloth. In all the Princess styles. Soleil Cloth. In all the Princess styles, one and two button cut-a-way. Solell Cloth. In all the Princess styles, e semi-fitted and slightly fitted ef- with self-covered braid and button fect. Smart trimmings of self-colored, trimmings. The coat is 36 inches long, buttons, 27 to 32 inches long, very slightly fitted models. faultlessly fash-specially priced for our Pre-Easter ioned, very handsome madels, and Sale, $20 specially priced at$35

$1.25 for 69c 2nd Day of Sale of Positively one of the best Suiting offerings of the whole season. Intending buyers should see this line before making selections of your New Spring Suit. Lovely fine quality with the very newest and latest shadow stripe; on sale in the very best shades of navy, brown, green, Copenhagen and black, worth regularly $1.25, sale 69c vd. ... 69c yd.

Rich Silk and Wool Black Goods, Newest Effects, Worth Regularly $1.50, Sale price

Here's a chance to save in high grade Black Dress Goods, guar-anteed pure silk and wool, decidedly new stripes, etc.; also a limited quantity of plain effects in the lot. We call this the big black goods hit of the season. Take advantage of this offering, that is if you want rich sheer material for Sumer dresses. Worth regu-98c yd.

R. MCKAY&Co.

A DOOMED CITY.

Thousands of Tabriz's Inhabitants Jacob Quackenbush, of Strathroy Staring Death in the Face. Sentenced to Four Years.

London, April 5 .- A special to the ondon Times from Teheran says that the revolutionaries defending Tabriz have charges of forgery, and was sentenced to four years on each charge at the In-dustrial School at Mimico, the sentences to run concurrently. Quackenbush's deed was most daring. In one instance cently been reinforced by an Lrishman nd an American, both of whom are usy drilling volunteers. The sufferings f the town are increasing daily, and it is undoubted that a great tragedy approaching. If Tabriz holds out th sands must die of starvation, w falls probably ten thousand will Noncombatants who may Whatever will be the outcome of the situation, it is feared that appalling loss of human life must ensue. If Tabriz were within reach of Europe, philan-thropic people would be busily preparing to help against the inevitable denonnee-ment, but in Asia there is little human-itarian sentiment, and the inhabitants of Tabriz have nowhere to look for assist-ance. Thousands are staring death in the face, with the knowledge that there can be no escape. FAMILY OF SEVEN KILLED. Toronto,

IRAVELERS' GUIDE

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY. CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY. 7.40 a. m. for Toronto, Lindaw, Bobayy woon, Tured, Kingston, Otlawa, Montreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke, St. John. N. B., Hali-fax, N. S., and all points in the Maritime Provinces and New England States. 8.35 a. m.for Toronto, Tottenham, Beeton, Alliston, Coldwater, Bsia, the Muskoka Lakes, Parry Sound, Point au Baril, Byns linet and Sudbury. 10.00 a. m. (daily) For Toronto, Myrtle, Lindaw, Bobcaygen, Peterboro, Tweed, Brampton, Forgus, Elora, Orangeville, Owen Sound, Arthur, Mount Forest, Harriston, Wingham, Coldwater and immediate sta-Uoas.

Villamin, Conversion and Antonio antonio antonio antonio antonio antonio antonio antoni

TORONTO, HAMILTON & BUFFALO RAILWAY.

Arrive Havilton Hamilton 5.30 a m. Detroit, Chicago and 5.30 a m. Joico Express ... 5.00 a.m. 0.50 a.m. Brantford and Wat-erford Express ... 10.35 a.m. 12.20 p.m. Brantford and Wat-reford Express ... 6.30 p.m. 4.60 p.m. Detroit, Chicago, To-ledo and Cincinnati ex-7.20 p.m. Brantford, Waterford and St. Thomas ... 3.0 p.m. Sleeping cars on Michigan Central connect-ing at Waterford. *Daily, except Sunday. 98c yd.

EAST BOUND.

Hemilton to Burlington-6.10, 7.10, 8.10, 9.10

10.0, 11.00 a.m., 12.00, 1.10, 2.10, 3.13, 4.10, 10.10 a.m., 12.10, 12.10, 10.10 a.m., 12.10, 2.10, 3.10, 5.10, 11.40 p.m.

Hamilton to Oakville 4.10, 13.10, 10.10 a.m., 12.10, 2.10, 3.10, 5.10, 4.10, 10.10 a.m., 12.10, 2.10, 3.10, 10

HAMILTON & DUNDAS RAILWAY. LEAVE DUNDAS. King St. Weet-5.5, 7.66, 7.55, 8.55, 9.63, 10.55, 11.55 a.m., 12.55, 1.55, 2.55, 3.56, 4.53, 5.54, 8.55, 7.55, 9.15, 10.15, 11.65 p.m. LEAVE HAMILTON. Terminal Station-6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 9.16, 10.13, 11.15 a.m., 12.16, 1.16, 2.16, 3.15, 4.15, 6.15, 6.13, 7.13, 8.15, 9.30, 10.30, 11.15 p.m. SUNDAY SERVACE. Leave King St. Weet, Dundas-8.25, 9.55, 11.53 a.m., 1.20, 2.20, 3.20, 4.20, 5.20, 6.20, 7.26 S.20, 9.05, 10:05 p.m. Leave Terminal Station, Hamilton-9.15, 11.00 a.m., 12.40, 1.26, 2.20, 3.20, 4.30, 6.30, 6.30, 7.30, 8.30, 9.15, 10.15 p.m.

INTERCOLONIAL BAILWAY

Maritime Express HAMILTON, GRIMSBY & BEAMS. VILLE ELECTRIC RAILWAY. VILLE ELECTRIC RAILWAY. WEEK DAY SERVICE. Leave Hamilton-7.10, 8.10, 9.10, 19.10, 11.10 a m., 12.10, 1.10, 10.0, 3.10, 4.10, 5.10, 6.10, 1.10, 8.10, manwrille-6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 9.15, 6.16, 7.15, 8.15, 9.16, 2.15, 4.16, 3.15, 6.16, 7.15, 8.15, 9.16, 7.10, 9.10, 1.15, 7.15, 8.10, 9.10, 7.10, 9.10, 1.24, 7.10, 3.10, 4.10, 5.7, 6.15, 1.15, a.15, 1.15, 2.16, 3.10, 4.10, 5.7, 6.16, 7.10, 9.10, 1.24, 7.10, 3.10, 4.10, 5.7, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 1.15, 2.16, 3.15, 6.15, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 1.15, 2.16, 3.15, 6.15, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 1.15, 2.16, 3.15, 6.15, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15, 1.15, 2.16, 3.15, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15

C. P. R. ATLANTIC LINES Liverpool. Lake Erie

East

STEAMSHIPS

March 26 Empress of Britain Lake Champlain Empress of Ireland Lake Manitoba Mar. 17 . Mar. 26 April 9 ... April 17 . Mar. 31 Rates, complete sailings and further par-ticulars on application to nearest agent or S. J. Sharp, 71 Yonge street, Toronto.

DOMINION LINE ROAL MAIL STRAMSHIPS From Portland for Liverpool Ominion ... April 17 WHITE STAR-DOMINION ROYAL MAIL STEAMSHIPS. Laurentic, triple ecrew, Meganice, twin screw, Largeet and finest steamers on the St. Lowrence route. Latest production of the ship-builders' art; passenger elevator serving four decks. Every detail of comfort and hav buy of present day travel will be found on unconstruction.

Jour decks. Every detail of comfort and fux-ury of present day travel will be found on the found on the found on the found on CANADA-_____Way 8, June 12, July 17 LAURENTIC.....May 16, June 12, July 17 LAURENTIC......May 16, June 12, July 17 LAURENTIC........July 3, Aug. 7 (TTAWA-______May 22, June 5 The popular steamer "CANADA" is also scalar scheduled to carry three classes of TAWA.'' as one-class cabin steamers "Collection confortable steamers" "Collection confortable steamers "Collection confortable steamers" Collection collection coll specific or company's offices. 118 Note Daume street., West, Montreal, 41 King street cast.

RAILWAYS

Return tickets at single far-stations in Canada, also to Det Huron. Mich., Buffalo and Niag Y. Good going April 8, 9, 10, Return limit April 13th, 1909.

Via

Express

Carrie did not appear to hear him.

boy, and she proceeded to put him under a severe cross-examination, to the amusement of Carrie, who lean back and listened languidly. He answered the old lady's questions in an absent kind of way, his attention straying continual. It is the valked along the parade slowly. Θ the valked along the ground, his lips stooped and picked up a lace shawl which had fallen from the chair, and with an air suggestive of the gentlest respect and consideration, arranged it on the hoad, carrie just nodding her acknowledg-ments. "And you are still at the bar?" asked Mrs. Harrington, continuing her inter-rogations. "No. Oh, no." "Ah. And your Uncle Thomas, how is he? I met him once or twice?" "My dear Uncle Thomas is dead," he said, patiently. "Dear me! Dear me! Let me see, he was very rich, was he not? An East India merchant? Yet; and you were his is he? I nee many "My dear Uncle Thomas is dead," ne "My dear Uncle Thomas is dead," ne "Wy dear Uncle Thomas is dead," ne "Wy dear Uncle Thomas is dead," ne "Dear me! Dear me! Let me see, he "ace of a lovely woman who has suffer! If dea cruel wrong that has crushed her. Dear me's that is it to me? How savered, when would I give of have the 'can'ie's face. "Yes," he answered, "he made me his heir, Mrs. Harrington." "I'm very glad, very glad indeed! No wonder you left the bar! And where are you living now?"

wonder you left the bar! And where are you living now?" "How pretty the ships look this morn-ing." said Philippa, mercifully endeavor-ing to divert the stream of questions, but she might as well have attempted to stem the incoming tide, for the old lady repeated her interrogatories. "Anywhere-mowhere-at present at the hotel here," he replied, still patient-by ing," said Philippa, mereifully endeavor-ing to divert the stream of questions, but the might as well have attempted to stem the incoming tide, for the old lady repeated her interropatories. "Anywhere-nowhere-at present at the hotel here," he replied, still patiently. "Dear me. You ought to be living at your place-it is yours now, I suppose-at Farrowfield." "Yes, it's mine," he said, and Carrie, turning her head to listen, fancied that his manner had become moody. "Ahl Beautiful place! And-I really ought to have asked at first!-you are not married?" He crossed around to the back of the chair, and arranged the moth-eaten hood so that i shaded the delicate face, and sizes, 32 to 44.

double breasted blouse with a reniov-able shield and knickerbockers. Nat-ural colored linen or khaki cloth are the most suitable materials for this serviceable little suit. 6 sizes, 4 to 1624—Ladies' Sack Apron with high

1624—Ladies' Sack Apron with high neck and turn down collar or Dutch ound or square neck. Plain or strip-d gingham, chambray, linen or duck tre all good materials for this model. 4 sizes, 32, 36, 40 and 44. 2373—Ladies' Nine-gored Skirt, in uspender style. An excellent model or any of the washable materials. 6 izes, 22 to 32. 2404—Ladies' Tucked Semi-Princess Dress consisting of a waist with high 2404-Ladies' Tucked Semi-Princess Dress, consisting of a waist with high or low neck and long or three quar-ter length sleeves, and an attached five-gored skirt. Pale yellow dimity has been used for this pretty frock al-though there are a great many other materials which may also be used. 7 sizes 32 to 44.

Address, "Pattern Department," Times Office, Hamilton. years.

It will take several days hefore yo can get patterns. PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure lich-ing. Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or mousy refunded. Soc.

HAD WONDERFUL MACHINE. But Moses Shtein and His Wife Had to Abandon It.

to Abandon It. Toronto. April 6.—Moses Shtein, an Austrian Jew, and his wile, who were recently arrested on a charge of vagraney, were arraigned in the police court yester-day morning and allowed to go on giving an undertaking to leave the city within twenty-four hours. At the time of their arrest the couple had in their possession an electrical machine which they claimed would make counterfeit money so well that it could not be detected, and they tried to get some local people to buy it. The machine has been added to the collection at police headquarters.

FAMILY OF SEVEN KILLED.

Within Four Years All Have Met Violent Death.

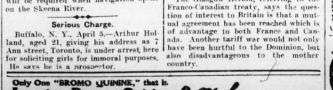

Violent Death. — Quebec, April 5.—News was received on Saturday from Tadousae that a young man named Joseph Terring, aged 23, had been instantly killed by falling from the top of the mast of a schooner. This death completely extinguishes a family of seven, all of whom have met with violent deaths in the last four years.

Matches Poison Baby.

St. Thomas, April 5.—Luella, the baby iaughter of Edward Wilson, Edge Ware road, near this city, ate the head of some matches yesterday and died to-bay. day.

Will Need 2,500 Men.

Vill Weed 2,000 Men. Vancouver, B. C., April 5.—The strike on the G. T. P. at Prince Rupert has been settled. Labor Agent Conway, who is now here, declares 2,500 more men will be required when navigation opens on the Skeena River.

other cheque was drawn for $9, with t name of S. Oakes forged on it. Th cheque was cashed at the Traders Ban The forgery was detected by F. P. Hughes, manager of the Traders Bank. This Bank.

A BOY FORGER.

Strathroy, April 5.-Jacob Quacken guilty before P. M. Noble to-day to two trew a cheque on himself for $ signed the name of T. W. Crea, for whom he worked last fall, led it at a local grocery store.

bush, a fourteen-year-old youth

WET OR DRY?

Hundred Option Fights in Ontario BRANTFORD & HAMILTON ELECin January.

April 5.-The Ontario branch of the Dominion Temperance Alliance is already preparing for the local option contests to be held next local option contests to be held next January. It is expected that there will be one hundred of these, many naving al-ready intimated their intention of having by-laws submitted. These are as follows: Cities-Brant-ford and Peterborough. Towns-Col-lingwood, Cobourg, Port Lope, Pie-ton, Brampton, Burlington, Meaford, Oshawa and Embro. The townships so far heard from are as follows: atbion, Brantford, Cale-don, Essa, Sunnidale, Mono, Marl-borough, Esquesing, Eramosa, Bur-ford, Blenheim, East Zorra. Dranned Dead in Hallway.

Dropped Dead in Hallway.

As your dragging for it. If your dragging for it. MARE VE is accepting other, but send stamp for illustrated hook-sended. It gross illustrated hook-sended. It gross illustrated hook-sended. It gross The Glasgow Herald, referring to the Franco-Canadian treaty, says the ques-tion of interest to Britain is that a mutto ladies. SOR SUPPLY CO., Windsor, O General Agents for Canada.

MEN AND WOMEN.

King Street West stablished 1843 Private Mortus

