EMIGRANT'S GLANCE HOMEWARD. for from these vious tender watchings bred me ir from the hede-row hunts that pleased my y from the friends whose gentle teachings led me the best way of innocease and truth; from my pecular Northern Star, our every childin memory I am far!

Yet I am happy in my distant home;
A sunny sky amics over me;
And let what will from God's good pleasure com
My friend, my lunband, I have always thee;
And gaily round, our laughing treasury plays
In all the winning grace of childhood's ways.

I never can be leastly. Where I go
With these, is home; but yearnings fond and bland
For these departed days, where all things glow
With a bride glory from that far-off land,
Wind round my heart, with a magic chain,
Which I must kiss ere I unwind again.

Oh! days for ever gone—for ever fair!

Pair, because gone—Oh, sunbright, youthful days!

Are ye not worth one earnbut thought, one care,

One heartfelt lay, devoted to your praise?

But not the lays of an immortal tongue

Could give me back the days when I was young.

The kindly hands which mine with love would The beaming eyes that with affection shone, The loving lips, whose sweet and pure caress Still marked how dear that young beloved one: England again my hopeful eyes may see, But these can never be the same to me.

Far from the hedge-row haunts that pleased my youth,
Far from the friends whose gentle teachings led me
In the bleat ways of innocence and truth;
E'an from my own pecaliar Northern Star,
From every childish memory, I am far!

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. There & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can rouch for the following statement.—August 2, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sin,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquinisted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPILAINT.

Copy of a Letter addressed to J. K. Heydon, Eag., Sidney, New South Wales, dated February 25, 1851.

Sin,—A Mr. Thoman Clark, a settler at Lake George, was for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a complaint of the Liver, ingesther with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further folict useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and asa forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required.
