When Plebiscite is Taken On Temperance Question

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—It is understood that when the question of prohibition was under consideration in the government caucus today it was suggested by many members that when a plebiscite is taken subsequent to the return of Canada's fighting men to be submitted to the people, it was their home several questions should be argued they should be asked whether they desire bone dry prohibition, or the sale of light wines and beer. Another suggestion was that the people should decide whether the sale of such beverages as may be voted for, if any, should be in the hands of licensed private citizens or under government, also whether bars should be allowed or the sale confined to government dispensaries, or privately owned stores. There was no definite announcement by the government as to what course would be adopted when the referendum is held, and there will be further consideration of the matter at caucus in the future.

CHINESE HOSTS TO STUDIO FOLK

So pleased were the Chinese of Los Angeles with "The City of Dim Faces," the latest Paramount Picture starring Sessue Hayakawa which is being shown at the Happy Hour on Thursday, that they gave a special dinner in Chinatown in honor of Miss Frances Marion, the author, George Melford, the director, Sessue Hayakawa, the star, and the other members of the company. About fifty of the Chinese appeared in the picture, which they voted the only true-to-life story of their countrymen they had ever seen. So, led by Moon Kwan, a young Chinese poet, and fiction writer, who acted as interpreter during the filming of the picture, they planned the dinner. The affair was delightful in every respect.

QUADRUPLETS BORN

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—With the birth of quadruplets, Mrs. Annina Lizi has thirteen children. Mrs. Lizi has been the mother of eighteen, but five are dead. She is also the grandmother of five children.

Of the quadruplets, two are boys and two girls. The boys were named Dominick and Anthony and the girls Rita and Martha. The new children are physically perfect. Each weighs about seven pounds. The girls are blonde and the boys dark.

Mrs. Lizi was born in Philadelphia forty two years ago. She was married when fifteen years old to John Lizi, who was born in Italy.

DERELICT IN BAY OF FUNDY DISAPPEARED

St. John, Feb. 25.—I. Chesley, agent of the Marine and Fisheries department, has received a wireless message from the G.P.O.S. liner Tydens, outward bound, notifying him that the steamer had passed a derelict seven miles off the Lurcher Light in the Bay of Fundy.

Later Mr. Chesley got in touch with the caretaker of the light and was informed that there was a derelict in sight and it was on fire.

Later he received another message that the derelict had exploded and spare and other wreckage were floating about, but the hull had disappeared.

SUFFRAGETTES EJECTED FROM BOSTON JAIL

Boston, Feb. 26.—Three of the suffragists who were sent to the Charles Street jail because they refused to pay fines, imposed as a result of a demonstration while President Wilson was in that city on Monday, were forcibly ejected from the jail after T. H. Howe had paid their fines of $5 each. The state laws provides that prisoners must be released immediately after fines are paid.

When Sheriff Kellieher announced that their fines had been paid they declared they would not leave their cells. Two deputies were summoned for each suffragist and the women were carried out, struggling and screaming and placed upon the sidewalk.

The three women announced that they would consult an attorney if an injunction could be brought to restrain the Sheriff from accepting payment of their fines without their consent.

Mr. Howe, who paid the fines, is unknown to the women.

SMILE NEVER OUT OF PLACE

One Thinks It Can Be, Here Is a Little List to Be Used as a Guide.

Get a smile in your voice, an exchange suggests.

When you talk over the telephone. When your wife tells you what you ought to have done and you try to explain why you didn't.

When your little boy asks you for something and you have to refuse.

When a confused woman with a scrambled mind is buying at your counter and doesn't know what she wants.

When you're selling tickets at the railway window and an irritating purchaser is asking forty-nine useless questions.

When you tell the waiter to hurry along with the food, as you have an engagement.

When you call up the grocer and tell him that the things you ordered two hours ago haven't come yet, and here it is about dinner time.

When you're a policeman and tell an automobilist that he can't park there, but must go over to the other side of the street.

When you're an usher in a theater and ask somebody to rise so that some other people may pass.

When you take your husband out into the next room and ask him why he brought those men to dinner without letting you know, so you could have prepared for them.

When you inform the young man that while you cannot love him as he asks, yet you will be a sister to him.

When you tell Willie and the neighbor boys not to rehearse the battle of the Somme on the front porch.

When you tell the bore, "Don't go. Here is your hat."

When you're busy and worried and somebody asks you foolish question No. 99.

When you meet an old friend unexpectedly.

When the hired girl tells you she is sorry, but the roast is burnt.

When the pup has gone off with your overshoe, or your young son has made ink marks all over an important paper on your desk, or you can't find your hat although you are positive you hung it right there, or the missus is not ready and you have barely time now to get to the show if you would see the first act, or you have to tell your clerk the same thing the tenth time, or you have done a fine act with the best of intentions and find you're in the wrong and everybody blames you for it.

Smile when you say it. You'd just as well. And don't you forget the telephone.

ANCIENT CZECHO-SLOVAKS

The Czechs are an ancient race. They were flourishing in Bohemia away back in the fifth century before Christ, and they have always been noted for their progressive spirit, for their longings in the direction of liberalism and democracy, and above all for their industrial and commercial enterprise, thanks to which they have been for the past 400 years the economic backbone of the Hapsburg monarchy.

They were independent, and therefore unfettered, until they foolishly elected Emperor Ferdinand of Austria as their ruler in 1526, not only because he was married to the daughter and heiress of St. Wenceslaus, but also because he solemnly pledged himself to respect their national rights and liberties. Needless to add that Ferdinand failed to keep his promises.

This is a peculiarity of the house of Hapsburg, which is at last to bring ruin upon their empire.

Excuses Somewhat "Fishy"

Two men, who are quite well off, but very miserly in their expenditures, met recently in the gallery of a theater.

Each was annoyed to be seen by the other in the cheapest place of the house.

"What brings you here?" each asked the other.

"To tell the truth," said the first, "I've got a fearful cold in my head, and as the heat ascends, I came up here where it is warm. Besides, I'm a terrible sufferer from rheumatism. But what brings you here?"

"My opera glasses!"

"Your opera glasses?"

"Yes; they enlarge too much. I can't see from the boxes what is going on on the stage. I have to come up here in the gallery to be able to see with them at all!"

Much Honey in Australia

The supply of sugar in Australia is as limited as it is here, but one part, the state of New South Wales, has an abundance of sweet on hand. It is honey. A record crop was gathered last year and next month this season's crop will be collected. Because of limited shipping space exports were stopped, but the beekeepers are now asking that the embargo be raised.

CARBONOL

Makes Housekeeping Sure and Easy

FOR house-cleaning, put a little Carbonol in a pail of water—the water immediately becomes a most powerful cleanser, with greater grease-dissolving power. Soap and water tend to make a floor decay, but Carbonol has the opposite effect, killing the germs of decay. Sprinkle some Carbonol on the carpet—can, and the smell will be replaced by a clean, healthy airy odor, less attractive to flies.

For smoky, greasy, greasy use a little Carbonol in the kitchen sink, and the drain it removes stains on clothing or carpets, especially greasy stains.

In the kitchen sink, use Carbonol to dissolve away the grease. If the drain trap is clogged with grease, a spoonful of pure Carbonol will frequently clear it.

Carbonol has a hundred uses for cleaning and disinfecting. A small bottle goes a long way. If your local store can't supply you write to:
