Caw's " Dashaway" Pen.

In this age of strife and hurry, when each indivi dual is trying to outstip his neighbor in the race for wealth, it is important that all who wish to win should be possessed of the most modern appliances to accomplish their purpose. These remarks apply particularly to those engaged in the profession, and in mercantile pursuits whose attention has been attracted to the merits of Caw's DASHAWAY FOUNTAIN PEN.

Auw.good writing or conving ink may be need. pen in writing.

Records, accounts, and letters written with this pen have a uniform c.lor of ink on every page and line, because the ink is fresh and is laid on more evenly than with a dip pen.

It is the simplest, cleanest, readiest and most easily managed of all the fountain pens.

When the cap is removed it is ready to write, and when the writing is done the cap can be replaced and the pen is ready for the pocket.

The hard rubber is incorrodible, and with a gold pen there is nothing that can be affected by the ink, and unless unnecessarily injured it will LAST A LIFETIME.

Opinions of the Press. Evening Post.-" Caw's ' Dashaway ' surpasses all hurry."

Tre Times.—" The Dashaway' is not a stylograph, but a regular 14-carat gold pen attached to a fountain holder. It can be unused, carried in the pocket for months, and when needed is always ready."

The Mail and Express.—"It can be fitted to any hand, and does for the writer just what the continually the eaded needle does for the sewing machine, and what the untiring locomotive does for the traveller." BAND CONCERT. - The band of the Royal evening. The night was beautifully fine, and The World.—"It is an amazingly simple con trivance, and so far as our experience goes, neve gets out of order." the citizens young and old turned out in
