In January of this year, 1921, Our Holy Father, Benedict XV, received in private audience the venerable Foundress of the Sodality of St. Peter Claver and conferred upon her Society a new proof of his interest and benevolence; all the members of the Society of St. Peter Claver, Religious and Externs, are aggregated to the Third Order of St Francis of Assisi, and therefore enjoy all the privileges and numerous indulgences accorded to this order without the obligations attached to the same. This favor alone considering the increasing attraction to the Third Order of the seraphic St. Francis, should induce many to become Extern Members of the Society of St. Peter Claver.
