"Mr. Carnegie transferred to the corporation for its corporate purposes, twenty-five million dollars par value first mortgage gold bonds of the United States Steel Corporation. "It is intended that the business of founding and aiding libraries and educational institutions, which has been carried on by Mr. Carnegie as an individual for many years, be turned over to the corporation at an early date and carried on by the corporation.'

Gifts of Over $200.000,000. Mr. Carnegie's donation of $25.-000.000 for the Carnegie corporation increases the total of his gifts for various philanthropic purposes, ac-l cording to the best estimates, to far beyond the $200,000,000 mark.

His library gifts alone make girdle of monuments around the world to a man' who some sixty years ago began his industrial career as bobbin boy in a cotton factory. The approximate totals of Mr. Car-
