

SUPERB NOVELTY NECKWEAR!

New Neckwear Novelties of a quality that will admit of no comparison for the satisfaction they are sure to give. Smartest Colorings and Concepts, many of the handsomer one's being confined exclusively to MARSHALL BROS. Aside from the splendid variety and elegance of this exhibition there is yet another acceptable attraction in

The Very Low Price, namely, 10 cents.

Buying direct and eliminating all intermediate profits makes it possible for Marshall Bros. to sell the handsomest Neckwear that can be had at about the figures other stores have to pay.

LADIES' BELTS, Values 25 to 50 cents, Now 10 cents.

Our Belt Sale started last week with an enthusiasm that promises a phenomenal Belt Sale record. In presenting this week's lot we draw special attention to the VARIED ASSORTMENT AND NEWNESS OF STYLES.

WASH SUITS!

Our boys' clothing department is unusually well prepared to take care of the Tub Suit question.

For the Youngsters at mother pleasing prices.

Two Specials, 70c. and $1.00.

Marshall Bros.

It is a principle of business science to sell all merchandise in its own season, that's why our

Ready-to-wear Hats

ARE REDUCED

One Quarter in Price.

Canterbury Lamb

That's Our Specialty This Week.

We have our usual stock of Choice Beef and Mutton.

The St. John's Meat Co.,

EAST-WATER STREET-WEST.

July 11, 1913

PHONE 800.

Our Pitiable Condition.

Nothing to do but work.
Nothing to eat but food;
Nothing to wear but clothes.
To keep one from going nude.

Nothing to breathe but air.
Quick as a flash 'tis gone;
Nowhere to fall but off,
Nowhere to stand but on.

Nothing to comb but hair.
Nowhere to sleep but in bed;
Nothing to wear but dress;
Nothing to bury but dead.

Nothing to sing but songs.
Ah, well, alas! 'tis gone;
Nowhere to go but out,
Nowhere to come but back.

Nothing to see but sights.
Nothing to quench but thirst;
Nothing to have but what we've got
Thus through life we're cursed.

Nothing to strike but a gait.
Everything moved that goes;
Nothing at all but common sense
Can ever withstand those.

Opium King Sentenced

Man who has Aided in Wreck of Human Life Goes to Jail.

New York, July 4.—Dr. Abraham Gluckstein, known as the cocaine and opium king, was last night found guilty in the Federal District Court's Criminal Branch of conspiracy to use the mails in marketing cocaine, and of the manufacture and sale of smoking opium. He was sentenced to serve two years in the federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $2,000. Judge Mayer, presiding, said he was appalled at the number of human wrecks who had testified to having purchased opium and cocaine from the defendant.

On June 12th last, four of Dr.

Gluckstein's confederates—his brother, Elias Gluckstein, Isadore Gluckstein, Nathan Ulrich and Louis Levy, were found guilty on a similar indictment. Sentence was suspended on the former pair, but Ulrich and Levy were given terms in Atlanta penitentiary.

Too Sure.

A furniture king, having made his pile, settled down to the pursuit of a country gentleman. He invited his friend, Plane Fieger, to stay with him. One day, armed with the latest appliances for dealing out sudden death, he and his friend trudged over the brown furrows, but at the end of these hours they were still looking for something to start the bag with. Suddenly a hare got up. Bang! came from the furniture king's gun. Bang! came from Plane Fieger's, and over went the four-footed one.

"My hare!" shouted the former furniture king.
"My hare!" cried his friend.
They argued as to whose weapon had worked the mischief. Then the keeper was called up to adjudicate.
"You'd take your oath it's yours," he would say.
"You'd take your oath it's yours," he would say.
"You'd take your oath it's yours," he would say.

"If necessary, certainly."
"And you'd swear 'twas your hare?"
"Certainly, to Plane Fieger."
"I would."

"Then think yourselves lucky you're caught," said the keeper, "for perjury, 'cos it 'appens to be my dog!"

Fresh Strawberries & Cream at WOOD'S CANDY STORES.
July 10, 1913

SENT TWENTY PATIENTS.—Yesterday Mr. Eli Whiteaway sent 11 patients who were waiting a chance to get there to the hospital, and Wednesday 9. The place is filled and daily other patients are arriving in the city.

A Matter for the City Fathers.

Two members of the sanitary staff have smallpox amongst their families. The men had to quit work, are quarantined at their homes and it is said, their wages is stopped at the Council. The man should get their regular weekly earnings. It will be determined at this afternoon's session of the Council Board as to whether the employees will be paid fully while they are under quarantine.

French Relief Ship Arrives.

The French Hospital ship St. Francis Dussane arrived in port this morning from Sydney where she took coal aboard. The ship is solely engaged for cruising about the Grand Banks, particularly among French fishing vessels, and helps to relieve, when necessary, distressed seamen. The vessel was here on a visit last year. Her mission at present is to take mails such as letters, cards, etc., which she will distribute to those whom they are addressed.

The Police Court.

Two drunks were discharged.
A drunk and disorderly was fined $5 or 14 days.
An assault case was dismissed.
A woman for the larceny of a mat, valued at $3 was released on paying costs.

Plenty of Funds.

Last evening a resident of a nearby outport was acting in a disorderly manner on the street and was arrested. He told the police he had lost three hundred dollars. Later the police rounded up his chum who was keeping the money for the owner. Both men were locked up for the night.

Cape Report.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CAPE RACE, To-day.
Wind S.W., light, weather fine; the S. S. St. John's left at 8.45 a.m., Letta, west, and Benda, east at 11.45 a.m. Bar, 29.64; ther, 59.

INFECTIOUS DISEASE.—Thirteen cases of diphtheria were reported during the week—5 of anaphylaxis, 4 of diphtheria and one of scarlet. There are now in hospital six scarlet, 12 diphtheria and 12 anaphylaxis patients.

Fourth of July Fights.

San Francisco, July 4.—A wicked right cross, the same blow which was so effective against Ald Wolgaat, proved too great a stumbling block for Joe Rivers in his attempt to wrest the lightweight title from champion Willie Ritchie at the Arena here today, the Mexican being knocked out in the fifth round.

The fight throughout was viciously contested, and twice in the earlier rounds it looked as though Rivers might win. Ritchie's wonderful ring generalship and ability to hit effectively straight from the shoulder with either hand, however, offset the Mexican's attack, and it was not long before Rivers became disheartened and pinned his faith solely on wild swings, some of which he hoped would land for a knock-out.

The battle opened with both men eager to mix it close. The first round left no choice, but in the next three the fight was vigorously aggressive and punished the champion severely with swinging blows to the face and body, several of which staggered Ritchie and caused uneasiness in his corner. Ritchie rallied in the fifth, and thereafter displayed true championship form. He met the Mexican's wild rushes with snappy left and right smashes to the face, which cut deeply and easily blocked or evaded the poorly timed swings, many of which were far wide of the mark.

The champion fairly beamed with confidence as the fight progressed. In the seventh he opened a gash over Rivers' left eye and in the following cut his face severely with a volley of snappy left jabs. The tenth round seemed to presage ultimate defeat for the challenger, a left uppercut to the chin, which struck the pugilist's jaw, causing him to flinch perceptibly.

The eleventh and final round had scarcely opened when Ritchie's right shot out straight from the shoulder, catching Rivers squarely on the jaw and sending him to the mat. Nine seconds later he was rolled off before the almost helpless fighter, regained his feet. Quickly the champion's left found the Mexican's stomach, and a right uppercut struck the pugilist's jaw sending him prone.

The battle was fought under perfect weather conditions in the open and was witnessed by 7,000 persons. The receipts aggregated $30,000.

A WONDERFUL SWIMMER.

San Francisco, July 5.—Duke Kahanamoku, the Olympic champion, proved to-day that he is the greatest short distance swimmer the world has ever seen. Entered from the Hui Nalu Club of the Hawaiian Islands, in the Pacific Coast championships of the A. A. U., he broke all records in the 100 yards and 75 yards dashes. His time for 100 yards was 54.5 seconds. The course was 75 yards straightaway, turn and 25 yards on the home stretch. He swam the 75 yards in 29.4 seconds, a new world's record.

NEW HOUR RECORD.

Stockholm, July 6.—Jean Bouin, the French runner, in the one hour race at the Stadium to-day, covered 19,021 meters (11 miles, 1,445 yards), beats the world's record of 11 miles, 1,346 yards, made by Alfred Shrubbs, the English champion, in 1904, by 307 yards.

WESTERN BANDITS COMMIT OUTRAGE.

Calgary, July 7.—Jack Wilson, son of Thomas Wilson, the famous Banff guide, is in the Banff hospital with two bullets in his breast and a gash in his throat as the result of an encounter with bandits on a lonely road in the Banff country. After the bandits had thrown the unconscious man in the bush, covering him with leaves and got away. The mounted police are scouring the country, several arrests have been made.

BOWYNG'S BOATS.

The S. S. Frontier left Bule Verte at 6.30 a.m. to-day.
The S. S. Portia left Placentia at 2 a.m. to-day.

Welcome Accorded to Patriot's Wife.

Dublin, June 29.—The unveiling of a memorial in Tipperary to the late Michael Cusack, the well-known Fenian leader, who took such a prominent part in the 1867 movement, brought into view a woman that the present generation of Irish-Americans might have easily overlooked or forgotten.

Mrs. Cusack, widow of Captain Cusack, of the United States army, stood by John Dillon, M.P., who performed the unveiling ceremony, her appearance giving the gathering a touch of homely sentiment that provoked much enthusiasm. It was her husband who brought the body of Col. John O'Mahoney all the way from America to lay it in the soil he loved so well.

When it became known that Mrs. Cusack was to be present the whole of Tipperary turned out, and public bodies as far north as Sligo and as far west as Westport and Ballina sent bands and contingents to perform the double duty of honoring the memory of the dead patriot and to show Mrs. Cusack that the many self-sacrificing acts of her husband in the cause of Ireland were still green in the memory of his countrymen on this side the Atlantic.

Personal.

Mrs. Long, wife of Mr. Jno. W. Long, pressman of the Advocate, left here Wednesday to spend several weeks at Kelligrewa. Mrs. Long has been in poor health for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Johnston and 2 children, of Millertown, who were here on a holiday for a week left for home by the Baidy express yesterday.

It All Depends.

"I have never been to the Woodbine, I have never been to a theatre, and I never have cards in my house." This is the statement of a very prominent Toronto citizen who is also a leading American layman. There are those who will count it to him for righteousness that his attention is so steadfastly set upon the important things of life that he has no time or mind for the frivolities. It all depends upon what a man has done with his time. It is to be feared that some people occupy their time to so little advantage that it might be to their credit if they remained home on evening playing cards, or took their family to a theatre on some occasion.

BORN.

On the 9th inst., a son to Mrs. and Mr. Wm. Pike, painter.

On Wednesday, the 9th inst., the wife of Const. Churchill, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, July 6th, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. Dr. Rogers, Miss Kate Norris Vey, to Mr. A. Simpson Butler.

A Christ Church, Quidi Vidi, on June 29th, by the Rev. H. Clayton, Elizabeth Pendergast, daughter of Garret Pendergast to Walter Day.

On July 4th, by the Rev. E. A. Butler, Port au Port, Mr. John Maxwell, of Annapolis, to Miss Gertrude W. Payne, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Payne, this city.

DIED.

On the 10th inst., at the General Hospital, Joseph, beloved husband of Rachel Torralve, aged 67 years; leaving a wife, two daughters, three brothers and two sisters to mourn their sad loss; funeral at 2.30 p.m. Saturday, from his late residence, No. 8 Flavin Street. Montreal and Toronto papers please copy.

To Poultry Fanciers!

GEORGE KNOWLING

offers the following:

Park & Pollard Lay or Bust Dry Mash, 10 lbs. for	30c.
Park & Pollard Growing Feed, 10 lbs. for	30c.
Spratt's Pulto for Pullets, 10 lbs. for	38c.
Spratt's Henno for laying hens, 10 lbs.	35c.

Also a full range of all poultry requisites.

G. KNOWLING

July 5, 1913

We have here just the Summer Underwear you are looking for. Our stock is quite new, and we have a full range of all sizes.

COMBINATIONS—Knee Length and Ankle Length. Prices $1.40 and $1.60 suit.
B. V. D. as cut, $2.80 suit.
BALBRIGGAN 2-piece Suits, Knee Length & Ankle Length Drawers, $1.40 per suit.

K&S Store

The Regatta.

Many crews were practicing on the Pond, last night. It looks as if only two crews will row the Press Race—the News and a mixed crew.

It is said that Bell Island will be represented in the Trade, Fishermen and Laborers' Race. The committee meets to-night. The collectors so far are doing as well as they expected.

AN EXCELLENT JOB.

A complete day's work of painting and decorating the interior of the Bank of Montreal was finished and the building now presents a very handsome appearance. It is the work of McGrath Bros., and was finished in the very quick time of 5 days.

Dr. de Van's Female Pill
A reliable French regulator; never fails. These pills are exceedingly powerful in regulating the generative portion of the female system. Relieve all clumpy obstructions. Dr. de Van's are sold in a box, or three for $10. Mailed to any address. The Roswell Drug Co., St. Catharines, Ont.

If you would know how good the best Brandy can be, buy

HINE'S
Three Star Brandy
Guaranteed Twenty Years Old
F. Hine & Co. are the holders of the oldest vineyard in Cognac
B. & S. HINE, of Toronto, Sole Canadian Agents
JOHN JACKSON, RESIDENT AGENT.