

Charity Towards Our Enemies.

From a Pastoral Letter By Cardinal Mercier.

to utter a word of reprobation when the object of our vengeance, the German armies were slaughtering And how are we to judge of the Virton, Andenne, Tamines, Aerschot ing wrath? Does morality demand and Louvain, shooting our priests, burning our open towns and defence-should be impossible?

ams, Toronto.

New York.

high grade

e city. As

rices 40, 50

ans.

nd purchased

eight pre-

$5 accompanies

Co.,

OF HONEY.

RESPOND.

RUMS AND

CIAN.

prevalent on the subject of our rela- ful to virtue, utiles virtute. tions of charity and justice towards they take the forms of desire and pas-

ed; what we are now examining is form an act of virtue. the propensity to anger and vengeance, animal passion or inclination hate, and charity excludes hate.

rooted in the sensitive part of our ha- one person.

will is just and equitable or not. "To would be highly culpable. zeal, to act rightly."

Under the date of January, 1917, But to desire vengeance immoder-Cardinal Mercier, Archbishop of ately, whether by overstepping law-Mechlin, wrote to his priests a letter ful limits, or by making the destrucdealing with the Pastoral Virtues pro- tion of the offender the first considper to the Present Hour, from which eration, and the repression of evil a he following is taken:

Catholics beyond our frontiers— in this latter case, indeed, the suffersecondary object, is to act wrongly;

the innocent inhabitants of Dinant, participation of passion in this avenglowed to be propagated, the calumnies which sought to exculpate the criminals by transforming the victims

contrary. Passion is, no doubt, dangstrikes at us.

Should promise not to repeat his oftaposed to the other threads of the
criminals by transforming the victims

on the plea of meekness, should wish

on the plea of meekness, should wish

on the plea of meekness, should make restitution,

Thus we can understand, the mind into agressors; who for the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agressors; who for the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agressors; who for the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agressors; who for the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then, into agrees the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three to be accomplished; it may the last three three to be accomplished; it may the last three to be accomplished; it may then the last three th years have been looking on with fold- deed, perturb the serenity of judged arms, unpitying eyes, and closed ment. But directly the justice of an penal code? lips at the torture of a nation, their act of repression is evident, and the which violates the rights of another ablatum; and the acceptance of a penmeans of reconciling the two. former friends, who had felt nothing but goodwill for Germany—these very Catholics are now, in pathetic accomes the auxiliary of the will, it recents, chanting hymns to Christian inforces the vigour and promptitude the passions, thus kept within proper Very confused notions seem to be bounds, are, says Saint Thomas, use-

The application of these principle the enemy of our Belgian Fatherland. to the present situation is obvious: The present occasion seems a favour- the injustice of the violation of ou able one for recalling certain points territory is flagrant, and is, indeed, of doctrine of the master par excel- admitted by those responsible for it. lence of Christian theology, Saint The disregard of our rights, from the fateful days of the invasion to the There are in the heart of man two present, is patent. The repression deeply rooted propensities, the one of these iniquities is therefore a manitowards enjoyment, the other to- fest right, and for those in a posiiwards anger. The object of the first tion to perform it, a duty. To desire is the possession of some good; enjoy- that this right should be exercised, ment is the outcome of this posses- that order should be re-established sion. The object of the second is to that the offenders against order avert some evil, or to rebel against should be chastised and rendered in capable of doing further injury: to to animals and ourselves; in animals, be able to live in peace; that the last sion; in ourselves, they exist not only right and to the honour of the God as desire and passion, but also as rea- of Justice; to desire this with all the energy of our will and all the pas An inclination to pleasure, sensi- sionate ardour of which our human tive or super-sensitive, lies outside the nature is capable, is to answer to the question with which we are concern- requirements of justice, it is to per-

But this, it is objected, implies Undoubtedly, charity excludes hate; Saint Thomas defines anger as an hate is its antithesis; charity and appetite for vengeance, ira est appeti- hate are as mutually exclusive as fire tus vindictae. This appetite may be and water; they cannot co-exist in ture, or in our supersensitive will. But what is it to hate? It is to How are we to judge it from the moral wish evil to another for evil's sake, to desire that our fellow-creature It may be good or evil, replies St. should suffer merely that he may Thomas, it may engender an act of suffer, that is, to make his suffering virtue or a sin, according as to a consummation on which we dwell the safeguarding of their independwhether the object of the avenging complacently. Such a spiritual state ence.

have the will to avenge evil, while re- On the other hand, to desire that have invoked strict justice, and we specting the order of justice, is to physical evil should overtake him who understand your claim. But there is perform a virtuous act. To desire has committed an injustice and who another point of view, that of Christhus the redress of a moral wrong, persists in it, not as an end in itself, tian perfection. Is it not more pergry with evil, to perform a work of end; to desire that an offender should not the Christian to be able to forsuffer in order that, under the stress give?

ed, but that the wicked turn from his way and live."

should be excluded from Paradise, of entering therein. He who loves well chastises well.

says the proverb. The love of avengthe guilty.

evil is properly a virtue. Saint which, in each one of us, completes who is doubtful of the fustice of his cause should endeavour to see in war only subjects for pity or horror. But for us, war is the means of enforcing respect for honour, of causing Right to triumph, of establishing Truth and the worship of the God of Truth in high places. And this is why war is full of greatness and justifies such sacrifices! Let us therefore be careful not to destruction.

The virtue of vengeance is inspired the King, the Government and the thou Me?" people of Belgium manifested this August 2, when they braved the inand God as offences against itself; love of God and of humanity; it ac- and scathing irony. cepts self-sacrifice-anything rather than submission in dishonour. This is charity, and the zeal which

This great act of charity was approved by the Belgian people; they remain faithful thereto; their tears, to offer for the triumph of Right and take place in his soul, is not to hate individual wrongs suffered in secret. embrace all these interests. Hear there are in the parishes of your deanpleasure in the death of the wick- been ravaged, pillaged and burnt; the resist the wolves which inflict spirit absentees, either military prisoners ual death on their flocks; they mus or deported civilians, are legion. Is it also make a stand against the ravish-Following the example of our God, to avenge these personal wrongs that ers and tyrants who cause them to we do not wish that our enemies your people demand justice? In the suffer physically. Not that the re and degenerate into cruelty; but it rages on public order must not re- should pray fervently, they should may also err by omission, and refrain main unpunished. The prince who from inflicting just punishment on should systematically show mercy to munication."

answer: No!

True, the Gospel inclines to pardon. But the Church knows on what conwell-known declaration: Non re- accepts the idea of charity without The collective crime of a nation mittetur peccatum, nisi restituatur justice, and then casts about for a > filled these conditions, the hour mercy will have struck for them. Certain sentimental souls are or casionally disturbed by recollection of the words in the Gospel: "Who soever shall smite thee on thy right But if you desire to understand this evangelical precept aright, says Saint Augustine, study the example of Our Lord Himself. When our Divine Masconfound hatred, a vice, with the ter was examined before Caiaphas an officer dared to strike Him in th Hatred is inspired by an instinct of face. Our gentle Saviour did not say: "Here is the other cheek." He presented this dilemma to the aggressor by charity. Valour makes way for it, "If I have spoken evil, hear witness by banishing fear from the heart; of the evil; but if well, why smitest The Apostle St. Paul also, remark wall," he rejoined, "for sittest thou mandest me to be smitten contrary to the peril of its brethren becomes its the law?" To this retort Saint Paul own peril; it is fired by the double further added a sentence of subtle

The Gospel precept must not b taken literally. Its meaning is that, must be master of himself, and able that one should exercise a certain CURE for all kinds of Coughs, Colds, interests rather than his preference

But did not God say in the Book of Deuteronomy: "To Me belongeth ven-And does not Saint Paul, in his within the limits of law, is to be an- but as a means to an ulterior moral fect to return good for evil? Ought Epistle to the Romans, repeat this precept: "If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with wrath; for it is written: Vengeance s mine, I will repay, saith the Lord?" Obviously these inspired texts do not mean that God reserves to His own immediate action all exercise of repressive justice, for in this very these texts are taken, the Apostle Saint Paul expressly says that the wrath upon him that doeth evil."

all men. Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto

This, says Saint Thomas, is the neaning of these words of Scripture: "External offences are to be deal with by the public powers, but I reserve to Myself the power of judging and punishing hidden faults. And you, Christians, refrain from hasty judgments. Nolite ante tempus

Or again, says the holy Doctor, the texts may have another meaning "The crimes of men offend God. Therefore justice and reparation belong to God. It is to usurp a divine prerogative to ascribe the intention of justice to oneself."

Finally, a last question: Is it right for the clergy to take part in the conflicts brought about by the war and the occupation? Are not the functions of the Bishop and his priests exclusively confined to the spiritual needs of souls?

The Church is not an invisible soiety of pure spirits. The faithful are exposed to perils of the body and Yea, to return good for evil would of the soul, of time and of eternity further, Saint Thomas Aquinas on this point: "The pastors of the name of my own experience, and sure presentatives of ecclesiastical aubut that they should become worthy as to the nature of yours, I venture to thority should themselves handle material weapons: but they should make use of their spiritual weapons, that eyes and dimpled with an expression which has aroused general indigna- is to say, they should address saluing justice may be carried to excess, tion and requires reparation. Out- tary warnings to the guilty, they

The ambiguities we have endeavor Virtue lies in the golden mean, For curity. Peoples who would amnesty ed to clear up in this view of charity who did not find it in their hearts ing of our fellow-creature becomes the desire to execute vengeance for injustice would not be worthy of lib-the natural repulsion we feel for all ditions this can be granted. Let us ity, the virtues are like so many par things noxious to us, causes us to re- follow her example. She demands allel threads. These threads are of burning our open towns and defence-should be impossible?

less villages; who propagated, or alNo, replies Saint Thomas, on the lowed to be propagated, the calumlowed to be propagated, the calumcontrary. Passion is, no doubt, dangtribes at 100 her example. She demands that the offender should confess his incites us to vengeance when it fault; that he should repent; the should repent the should condemns to prison or the guillotine. As soon as our enemies have ful- gle tissue with all the threads of our Broadly speaking, there is but one precept: We must love God, and love strong, just, prudent, but by charity;

he should believe in God, and hope in Him but by charity: he should practise charity, by charity. Charity is the sole inspirer and director of the whole moral and religious life. There is no Christian justice without charity, and no charity without justice. And as avenging justice is a part of the virtue of justice, there is no charity without avenging justice. To desire to close our eyes to injuscharity, and to allow the enemy to ommit crimes with impunity. because he is the enemy, is to fail to recognise the soveregn full incessary sway of charity in the carnisation of the moral, individual, and social life of Christianised humanity.

3 SPECIALTIES.

STAFFORD'S LINIMENT for Rheumatism. Lumbago, Neuralgia and all Aches and Pains.

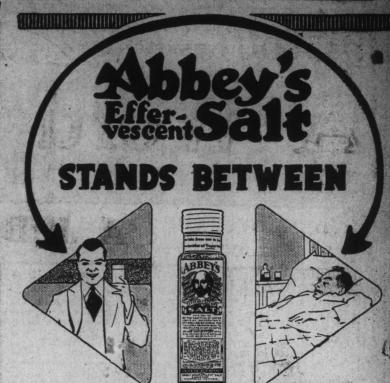

STAFFORD'S PRESCRIPTION "A" for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Gastritis and Nervous Dyspensia. Price 25c., 50c. a bottle. Postage 5c.

STAFFORD'S PHORATONE COUGH Brochitis, Asthma and Various Lung Troubles. Price 25c. bot. Postage

Prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld Theatre Hill Drug Store

very night till 9.30. Red curants, chopped raisins an range peel ground fine, are delicio

If you need stylish, perfect fitting and well-made clothesin Suit or Overcoat—and reli able Cleaning and Pressing, call or phone SPURRELL, 365 Water Street. Phone 574.-eod,tf

YOU and ILLNESS

WHEN you're not yourself and feeling out of sorts, slightly feverish, sallow complexion, nervous headache or depressed—take a spoonful of ABBEY'S SALT in a glass of tepid water, morning and night.

The regular use of ABBEY'S SALT will keep the intestines clear, sweeten the stomach and promote a vigorous, healthy digestive system. C Your Doctor will proudly prescribe ABBEY'S-WE GUARANTEE IT.

In Sealed Bottles Sold Everywhere

Your Boys and Girls. A Little More and

All babies are lovely-at least mothers think so. Their features may not be perfect, but their complexion when healthy are always beautiful, bright plexion is a question often asked aftare often confined in ill-ventilated homes, this should not be so, for oxygen is an agent that nourishes the blood which forms the complexion. A home of this kind not only de stroys the complexion, but it brings about numerous other bodily ills.

You Can't Find Any Dandruff, and Hair Stops Coming Out

Save your hair! Make it thick, wavy, glossy and beautiful at once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a sin-gle trace of dandruff or falling hair few weeks use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over. For the struggling hero that's left in doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and through your hair, taking only one small strand at a time. The effect is mmediate and amazing —your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and A little less graveyard sentime have an appearance of abundance: an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any— that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A 25-cent bot-tle will double the beauty of your Household Notes.

Late peas are best used for puree. Rice with cheese sauce is very nu

Do not be wasteful in preparing ve-Coffee should be kept ealed jar. Cold milk should be used white sauce. Omelet with rice in able change. Cooked squash squash biscuit. Rice and olives reamed salt fish. Spoon bread is delicious ice and corn meal. Squash can be canned just as other getables are.

Small potatoes should be selected or baking under meat. Dried celery may serve as a r cream-of-celery soup.

Corn. tomatoes and rice make good lling for stuffed peppers. White loaf cake is delicious dusted with sugar and cinnamon. r raisins set in their tops.

Slices of stale cake can be toasted

A Little Less.

A little more deed and a little less creed. A little more givg and a little less greed;
A little more sharing other people's load. A little more Godspeeds on the dusty

A little more rose and a little less To sweeten the air for the sick and

A little more song and a little les And kinds of gold for uplift of the

A little less kicking a man that is down. A little more smile and a little less frown;

A little more Golden Rule in marts
of trade,

A little more sunshine and a little less shade;
A little more respect for fathers and others; little less kn

the rear; A little more love and a little les hate:

scraggy, just moisten a cloth with A little more neighborly chat at the A little more helping hand by you and me tality; A little more flowers in the pathway of life A little less on coffins at the end the strife.

ed to vegetable soup with advantage.

teen minutes, then stuff and bake

DANGER TO SYSTEM UNLESS ACTION IS TAKEN

Ignorance alone can excuse neglect of the health when all indications point to Kidney trouble, Everyone should know that from the hour the Kidneys fail to remove the poisons from the blood stream, these poisons are accumu-lating ready to cause sickness, pain and lating ready to cause sickness, pain and suffering.

How are you to know that the system is in danger from poisoning? One or more of the following symptoms should leave no doubt in your mind. If you are the victim of backache, pains in the back or sides, or Lumbago, be sure nature is calling for better Kidney action. Take Gin Pills.

At the first twinges of Rheumatism, swollen ankles and joints, or any other manifestation of uric acid poisoning, take Gin Pills. Dozens of Testimonials prove Gin Pills to be the soverigm

Gin Pills are sold by all de

ROSE FA "is good tea"