be greatly prized by the winner. Sport followers of local pugilism are reminded that the Newfoundland Boxing Championship of Newfoundland for the season of 1924 will take place in the Prince of Wales Rink on Wednesday, May 2nd, under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Association. The entire proceeds of the Great meet will go to the aid of the War Veterans Association for the purpose of defraying expenses in connection with the visit of Earl Haig, who will be in St. John's early in June. Our local boxers of the various class weights have been already notified to get ready for action. Six weeks of good hard training is now left at their disposal, and by the time the date of competition comes round a large number of aspirants for championship honors, not alone from the city, but many of our outport friends will be found ready to step into the ring. The offering of a belt for the Heavyweight class is, we feel sure, a good inducement for the fostering of this manly art. Surely there must be a number of strapping fellows in this island home of ours with the kick of a Dempsey only too eager probably to try conclusions, and it would not be at all surprising that entrants will come in from far and wide, and a dark horse of no mean ability may have a look in for the belt. The belt will be placed on exhibition in the store window of Jas. Baird, Ltd., to-day, when all those interested will have an opportunity of viewing it. A meeting of the A.A.A. with the Executive of the G.W.V.A. and Padre Nangle will meet in a few days to finalize all preparations for the proposed meet. At this meeting the rules governing the winning of the Championship Belt will be decided upon. It is understood, however, that a special Gold Medal will be presented to the champion each year. In the meantime all Boxing Instructors are asked to get their pugilists started, and help make the forthcoming Boxing Tournament the best in the annals of local sportdom ever witnessed here.

St. Patrick's Night at Brigus
Despite the many changes that recent years have brought in its personnel, the Brigus Dramatic Troupe went over the top last night as usual, and delighted a capacity audience with their performance of "Rose O' My Heart," a delightful drama of Irish country life. It would be unfair to make special mention where all the performers reached such a high standard of efficiency, but Mr. Ern. Jerratt's localized version of Gal-lagher and Shean is deserving of a word of praise, and is in our opinion superior to the city artists' description of the doings of the men and times. The vocal selections with the capable assistance of the accompanist, Miss Sheehan, were well rendered and received hearty applause. After the performance dancing was indulged in until the wee sma' hours, when a tired but happy gathering wended its way home beneath the mellow moon.

Personal.
Mr. A. E. Harris, General Manager of the A. N. D. Co., Grand Falls, arrived in the city on Thursday and left by the Silvia en route to St. John, N.B., where he will make boat connection for England.

CHAMPIONSHIP BOXING TOURNAMENT BEING ARRANGED.
Handsome Belt Donated for Heavyweight Championship.
Local boxers, especially the "heavies," will be glad to learn that J. Col. Nangle, C.F., who recently returned from the Old Country brought out with him a valuable belt made to order in London for competition for the Heavyweight Boxing Championship of Newfoundland. The Belt is of a most unique design. In the centre is a plate ornamented in beautiful colored enamel, showing a full view of the ring with two boxers posing ready for action, while inscribed thereon are words: "For Heavyweight Boxing Champion Newfoundland." On either side of the centre plate four shields stand out very prominently, and are connected by chains with ample space allotted on each for the engraving of the winners name. This belt, the gift of Padre Nangle, is the first of its kind ever offered for amateur boxing in this country, and will, we feel sure,

Dear Sir.—With your kind permission grant me a space in the columns of your paper to record one more of these sad drownings that are still happening in and around our shores, in the person of William Quinton, Sr., of Red Cliff, B.B., aged 60 years. Deceased left his home on Friday morning, Mar. 7th, to go "swatching" alone He travelled overland about a mile to Tickle Cove Point, from whence he proceeded on the ice. After travelling about half a mile from land he met three or four men belonging to Tickle Cove, returning back, who told him that the ice was moving, but on telling him they saw several seals, he decided to go on, but later he was signalled by three other men on the ice from Red Cliff, which signal he immediately obeyed and started at a smart rate for the land. He was observed by these men to be coming all right, and in less time than it takes to tell, from the time they looked back until they looked again he had disappeared. To get him now was impossible as the ice was rapidly opening and a lake of water had formed which would take an hour or more to walk around. They hurried on shore and launched out a boat and search was made until dark but no trace of anything could be found and again on Saturday the ice having tightened another search was made but all to no avail. He was one of those who was always ready to run any risk, however great, and willing to do anything in his power to help his fellow man. Loved by all who knew him. He was a member of the L.O.A., Keels, and also of the R.B.P., Port Rexton. Left to mourn him are a loving wife and one daughter, one sister and four brothers. He is gone, we trust, to join his loving son, who gave up his life in the Great War. A deep gloom is cast over the place and all sympathize with the bereaved ones in so sudden a calamity.

Ireland's Eye Notes
On Monday night, March 3rd, the young men of No. 60 S.U.F. and a few others outside the society with their lady partners held a very enjoyable time in their Lodge room. The season of Lent was near at hand and they thought it would be their last chance for forty days of having a good time, so they proposed to have it on the said date. The night proved to be a very disagreeable one, but nevertheless a fine crowd showed up, eager for the dance to start. The hall was opened at 7.00, when after a short interval the dance commenced, which was kept up until too late or rather too early to mention. Between these hours refreshments were served by the ladies, which made the time the more enjoyable.

Flowers! Spring Seeds in Demand
Toronto, March 18.—Gardens are not made in a day, nor yet in a month, but already they are sprouting bravely in divers cellars, garrets, spare bedrooms, and any other available corner where the enthusiastic amateur may nurse his pet seedlings. The flowers that give strength to spring's promises, and those later blossoms that make summer fragrant and colorful, are beginning their short but brilliant careers under the tender guidance of hopeful souls whose one passion is to rear gardens in the desert waste of an ordinary backyard.
