kind of game which has won them the championship in the past. They won because the Y.M.C.A. team was so utterly lacking in every department. The team which humbled the Tigers, the only time in the history of the organization, showed poor form. Their greatest failing was lack of team play. It was all individual work with the Y. It is but little wonder that a team which has played together as ong as the champions, should have but little trouble in defeating op-
