LONDON AND PRECINCTS.

Dr. Wilkinson, of Mooretown, is visiting Dr. Cattermole, his father-in-law.

Mrs. Spence, of London, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alex. Gilchrist, of Thorold.

Principal Woods, of this city, conducted the services in St. Andrew's Church, Nairn, last Sunday.

Miss Edith Armstrong, London, was in town over Sunday. She occupied her old place in the Methodist choir at the evening service.

The death is announced at St. Louis, Mo., of Mrs. Helen Cowing, sister of Mr. Thomas Muir, of this city. The funeral took place at Hamilton today.

Five drunks appeared before Magistrate Peake at the Police Court this morning. Two of them were discharged and the others fined 82 or five days in jail.

Mr. J. M. McPherson, of this city, who has been for some years in the Mission's Bank, Owen Sound, has been moved to the General Manager's office, Montreal.

The first colt of the season arrived at the Excelsior Stock Stables, corner of King and Clarence streets. It is a fine large brown colt, sired by Abeldar, dam Nellie of Middlesex, and is doing well.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. John Paul, formerly of this city, has been appointed to the lucrative position of M. C. R. ticket agent in the city of London, Ont. Congratulations.—(St. Catharines Star.)

The Colored Glee Club, consisting of six ladies from London, will appear at Monday on the evening of April 4, under the auspices of the Baptist Church. The company is a very popular one.—(St. Thomas Journal.)

Robert Allister, the young man who was charged with attempting to break into Boyd's clothing store was before the Magistrate this morning to answer to the charge of vagrancy. He was remanded until to-morrow when both charges will be dealt with.

According to a telegraphic dispatch the Hamilton minstrels have determined that in future they will act a manly part. They have "resolved" themselves into a male choir. Had they resolved themselves into a female brass band all the world might have wondered.

Baggageman W. H. Hunt removed shortly to London, where he will take the run from London through to Toronto, instead of the run between Stratford and London which he has at present. Mr. Hunt's removal will be regretted by his many friends here.—(Stratford Herald.)

Witnesses for the Hodgins Inquest. Summonses have been issued for the appearance of a number of witnesses at the inquest on the death of Freeman Hodgins, which is to be held to-morrow evening. The following, who are said to have been in the crowd with John Hutchinson which purchased drinks from the deceased, are among the witnesses: Frank Watson, William Holmes, Joseph Lake, Albert Bolton, George McKenzie, Henry Monte.

The Great Horse Sale. The sale of horses, held by D. H. Grand yesterday afternoon, was largely attended by admirers of horse flesh from many parts of Canada and the United States.

The stock offered was of an exceptionally fine quality; the trained saddle horses and hunters were the principal attraction, however, and the best of these were disposed of at good prices. As a whole, the prices fell from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than in former years owing to the depressed state of the market. The sale is still going on.

At Gray Street Church. Last evening at St. M. E. Church, Gray Street, the coffee and sandwich social given by the Ladies Aid Society was quite a success. Mrs. H. L. Cephas, acting president, presided, and a program of musical interest was presented. It consisted of songs by the society, an address by W. L. Taylor; recitation, Mrs. Peter

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System, often Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of over-worked business men, wearied brain-workers, industrial mechanics, and tired women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort.

The Principal Thing. Mr. Parvent (after paying for two places at the concert)—Well, all we have to do now is to listen to the music, and that won't take long. We have got through paying.

The subscribers having bought the business formerly carried on by G. Park, Covent Garden Market, who is retiring from business in this city, will be found at park of every description, also fresh eggs and butter. We are retaining Mr. Park's old curer, so that patrons will find our meat cured in the same style as formerly.

Out—The Kickers are everywhere. 82-1

Why will you allow a cough to lacerate your throat or lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when, by the timely use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger averted? This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc.

W. A. Brock, gunsmith, has removed to No. 102 Dundas street, between Richmond and Clarence, north side.

New Florida cabbage and cucumbers. A. McKenzie.

Spring shipment of ladies' and gent's fine shoes. Prices low. R. KUKERTRICK, 219 Dundas street.

Money saved by buying furniture and getting upholstering done at Ironbuds, 97 King street.

Dried beef, sausages, bolognaes, black pudding, smoked ham, bacon and lard. New stock, new store. M. A. ANDREWS, pork butcher, Richmond street, near Dundas.

John Cooper will be found at his gallery, 442 Park avenue, and hopes all his customers and well-wishers will note the fact. Remember he copies old pictures of any kind beautifully. Need not send such work out of our city.

No Pain. Teeth extracted without pain; consciousness retained during entire operation. O. H. ZIEGLER, 192 Dundas street, yw.

A GOOD CIGAR. Five-cent cigars have enjoyed such an unprecedented run of success as the "Highland Lassie," and it is continually finding new admirers in the large army of smokers who are all united in its praises.

Now is your time to get your furniture repaired, upholstered or varnished; made to look as good as new at a small outlay. Drop a post card or telephone to No. 479; it will be sent for and returned. All kinds of furniture very cheap. W. J. BAYANTON, No. 123 King street. yw
