THE NEXT CENSUS

Will Include All Those in the Country on March 31, 1901 - The Mode.

[Special to Advertiser per C. P. R.]

Ottawa, Jan. 10. - The next Dominion census will be taken dating from Sunday, March 31. This is also the day fixed for taking the census in Great Britain and Ireland. All persons who are living at midnight on Sunday will be counted. The census will be taken by name, and according to the de jure system.

The country will be divided into census districts consisting of as far as possible of electoral districts. The polling sub-divisions agreeing to the boundaries adopted for recent general election are taken as units of enumeration.

There will be one commissioner for each electoral district, and one additional commissioner where local circumstances require his services. There will also be one enumerator for each polling sub-division or a group of polling sub-divisions where the population is sparse.

The work of enumeration will begin on Monday, April 1, and in a great majority of polling sub-divisions it is expected that the work will be through in a fortnight.

Provision is also made for the appointment of four chief officers for the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and one for each of the other provinces and the Northwest Territories. It will be the duty of these officers to instruct the commissioners concerning the work of the census and the commission in turn will instruct the enumerators. There are twelve schedules against nine in 1901.

RAILWAY WRECK.

New York, Jan. 10. - A passenger train of the Central Railroad of New Jersey was run into yesterday by a freight locomotive at the Perth Amboy station. One passenger car was wrecked and two other cars were derailed. Seven or eight persons were injured.

Duart, Ont., Jan. 9. - A distressing accident occurred about three miles east of the village yesterday afternoon, on William C. McArthur's farm when Conrad Schweitzer was crushed by the falling of a truck load of logs. His injuries were very serious.

DIES AT THE AGE OF 105 YEARS.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10. - Emanuel de Souza, an old settler of Sangamon county, died at his home in this city on Wednesday at the age of 105 years. His death was due to old age. Mr. de Souza was born in Madeira, and came to this country together with over 200 Portuguese immigrants in 1825.

persecution in that country.

A NEW SECT.

New York, Jan. 10. - A new religious organization, national in scope, and composed of foreign citizens of the Salvation Army, is contemplated, to have headquarters in this city. There are, it is said, 7,000 persons in this country who have left the Salvation Army and many of them desire to continue work along the line of the army. The name of the new organization is to be the Christian Comrades, and its aims are declared to be to preserve and promote the out and out zeal that used to characterize the original army, and bring persons into touch with the churches.

WINDING UP INSURANCE COMPANY.

Toronto, Jan. 10. - The Covenant Mutual Life Association of Illinois is being wound up - the Canadian end, under the supervision of the master-in-ordinary at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. The master-in-ordinary gave judgment in regard to $25,000 Canadian claims. He finds that during the seven months in question the Northwest Insurance Company acted as agent for the Covenant Mutual, therefore the claimants had a right to come on the government deposit at Ottawa of the latter association. Jan. 21 is the date for hearing claims regarding the winding up.

THE RAID ON CAPE COLONY!

Five Thousand Boers From Vryburg Pressing Into the Heart of the Country.

Situation Growing Worse Instead of Better - The Zandfontein Fight - How 200 British Troops Were Ambushed.

London, Jan. 11. - Five thousand Boers, supposed to be trekking west from Vryburg, says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, are now making their way into the heart of Cape Colony. The supposition is that they have captured several small garrisons on the way.

RAIDERS CLOSE TO PRETORIA.

The situation in South Africa grows worse rather than better. This morning's dispatches report that a small party of Boers carried off cattle close to the east fort at Pretoria. Nine hundred Boers, under Commandant Britzinger, are fifteen miles from Richmond in the direction of Murraysburg.

Rumors are spreading at Porterville that the rebels have joined the Boers in the Calvinia district.

The military commissioner of police at Johannesburg has warned the public to beware of the dangerous dynamite mines laid in the Rand to protect the mines, as the authorities cannot hold themselves responsible for injuries resulting from their use.

A Cape Town telegram says: On the Piquetberg road the Boers occupying Calvinia and Sutherland consist of two columns, one advancing in the direction of Clanwilliam, and the other towards Worcester, or in this direction. All passes in front of Worcester have been occupied by seasoned troops, which are gathering at strategic points. The Boers' intention apparently is to move towards Ceres and Worcester. Only a few passes are passable for the guns, and the whole country is difficult to traverse. The passes are narrow and easily defended.

According to the latest reliable reports another party of 500 Boers has reached the Doorn River, 70 miles south of Calvinia. The authorities are doing all in their power to meet the situation. Refugees from Calvinia and Clanwilliam are flocking to Piquetberg road. They state that many poor whites are certain to join the Boers. Then, too, many bitter handmen in the neighborhood of Clanwilliam and Malleburg openly declare that they intend to join the invaders.

A small commando about two hundred strong crossed the Orange river near Aliwal. It was met on the borders of the Aliwal, the Woodhouse and the Barkley East districts by a body of police and mounted farmers, and was repulsed with some loss.

DEWEET'S WHEREABOUTS.

Dewet was last reported in the neighborhood of Elandsburg, Orange Free State. All the towns in Orange Colony, on the main line of railway, are strongly held by the British, and the Boers show no disposition to approach them.

THE FIGHT NEAR ZANDFONTEIN.

Pretoria, Jan. 10. - In the recent fight between Gen. Babington's command and a Boer force near Zandfontein, the Imperial Light Horse suffered severely. Having learned nothing by previous experiences, they advanced in close formation up a hill that had previously been scouted by the Boers, who reported that they found no sign of the burghers. The Boers, however, were lying in the grass. They allowed the Hussars to pass without molestation, reserving their fire until the Imperial Light Horse were within 50 yards of them. When the British found they had ridden into another ambush, they dismounted and kept up a hot fire. Seeing that his men were losing heavily, the colonel ordered them to retire. Subsequently they again advanced in extended order, and drove the Boers from their positions, and captured a good part of their convoy. The colonel rode at the front of his men, and stimulated them by his extreme bravery. The leading squadron sustained several casualties. Sen hundred Boers, including a mounted 200 of the men who formed Lord Roberts' bodyguard when here, and killed Lieut. Lang. There were numerous other casualties.

Gen. Botha's commando, reported to be 1,500 strong, is east of the Springs.

HOW DEWEET GOT AWAY.

London, Jan. 10. - A dispatch to the Daily News, under date of Dec. 13, says: On the 11th Gen. Knox came up with the Boer rear guard at Helvetia. As usual the enemy scampered off at full speed. From Helvetia Dewet struck off the road, and by trekking all night reached a farm called Geluk, about eight miles due east of Dewet'sdorp. Here he evidently felt he could no longer keep ahead of his pursuers except by fighting, and he therefore chose a magnificent natural position, which he strengthened with sangars and trenches.

He had hardly finished his defenses when the untiring Knox appeared, just before nightfall, and camped within three miles of the farm of Daspoort. This was on the 13th. Soon afterwards Dewet received intelligence that Col. White had marched out from Reddersburg to cut him off. He had no alternative but to strike camp and once more trek. This was, perhaps, the most costly march in horses which Dewet ever undertook. The whole veldt was dotted with discarded horses, some of which our men caught and were able to use. Gen. Knox, as soon as he was informed of Dewet's departure, again started off in hot pursuit. It was evident from the spoor that Dewet was heading for Springhaansnek, and Gen. Knox made dispositions to come on to him on three sides. Soon Springhaansnek was sighted. Gen. Knox was only four miles behind Dewet, and everybody was in the highest spirits, when the heliograph flickered out a message that Dewet had broken through. Never, perhaps, was a more bitterly disappointed lot of men than those of the pursuing columns. Somebody had blundered.

TOWNS TO BE EVACUATED.

Cape Town, Jan. 11. - Horses and vehicles are being commandeered for the use of the colonial defense corps in the districts in which martial law has been proclaimed.

It is understood that Gen. Kitchener has decided to evacuate all the towns outside the lines of communication. Thus there will be no convoys for the Boers to capture and loot, his idea being to prevent the burghers from replenishing their supplies at the expense of the British taxpayers. All districts that cannot be adequately protected and patrolled will be demoted, while lines of communication will be more efficiently guarded.

Reports from Durban say that the Kitchener Fighting Scouts are being largely recruited locally, and it is fully expected that 1,000 men, well mounted and well equipped, will soon be in the field. Recruiting for the Scottish Horse is also proceeding successfully.

ENTRENCHMENTS ARE BEING CONSTRUCTED.

across the Cape Flats from False Bay to Table Bay, says a Cape Town telegram.

SECOND CONTINGENT MEN.

Montreal, Jan. 11. - A number of the second Canadian contingent arrived by the Intercolonial at an early hour this morning, and the remainder will not arrive until several hours later. They will leave for the west in the morning.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 10. - Twenty-five per cent of the returned soldiers did not get away last night, and now the men from the west will have to remain till tomorrow, instructions having been issued for the return of their tickets.

LIEUT. SUTTON'S FUNERAL.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 11. - With full military honors the remains of Lieut. Sutton were removed from the naval hospital yesterday and placed in the baggage car of the Maritime express. All the imperial troops in the garrison turned out, and the procession was witnessed by great crowds. A Quebec dispatch says: The president of the citizens' civic reception committee has issued an invitation to all citizens to attend the funeral of Lieut. Sutton.

THE CZAR'S CONDITION.

London, Jan. 11. - A dispatch to the Daily News from Berlin denies the recurring reports that the czar is suffering with pulmonary complaint. It says that a slight attack of influenza is confining his majesty to his rooms, but the disease is of such a mild form that there is not the slightest apprehension.

UNDER A NEW EDITOR.

London, Jan. 11. - The Daily News makes its first appearance under its new editorship this morning. It bears no outward mark of change. The name of the editor is not announced. It makes no comment on the war. The first leader is devoted to an onslaught on the Duke of Norfolk, full of fiery Protestant indignation, punctuated with unbridled adjectives.

The duke's behavior is dubbed contemptible, and his address to the pope as despicable. Other papers say that the earlman, R. C. Lehmann, is the editor of the paper.

4 KILLED AND 20 INJURED.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Jan. 10. - An explosion of gas in coal mine No. 5, at Honda, Coahuila, Mexico, caused the death of four men and the injury of upwards of twenty others.

SUDDEN DEATH AT DUNDAS.

Hamilton, Jan. 11. - Mr. George F. Burrows, age 74 years, manager of the Dundas Gas Works, died very suddenly at his home, Ogilvie street, Wednesday night. He had had a cold but nothing was thought of it, and he was at work as usual during the day. About 11 o'clock at night he retired. Half an hour later his wife went up to give him some medicine and found him dead in his bed. Deceased was an old and highly esteemed resident.

Mr. Charles Horn, Carpenter, died at the Hamilton City Hospital Wednesday evening from injuries received a month ago by falling from a scaffold at the Imperial Cotton Company's factory. He was 36 years old and unmarried.
