Increase of 35 Cents Per Cwt. Over Last Week - Quotations on the Local Market

There was almost a record delivery of the local market this morning.
loads were in and sales were fairly Despite the large quantity in, the price remained almost as high as last week. One load went at $16 a ton, the majority at $15.50, while none went be-

Live hogs went up to $9.35 a cwt. This is an increase of 35 cents on last week's figures, and higher prices still are in sight. They will probably be up to $9.50 next week, and may again reach $10. The high prices are not caused by any undue scarcity of hogs in the country, but are attributed by the buyers to the fact has made excellent pasture for the cows, and butter should be plentiful for some time to come. The dealers are already overstocked, and several of them are commencing to put their surplus stock in the cold storage.

P. M. Love Will See That He Is Compelled to Act as a Witness.

William Donaldson, the young farmer from St. John, who is held as a witness in connection with a case of assault, which has been laid against John Crockett, was released by Magistrate Love this morning on giving personal sureties for $200. Donaldson stated that he had property of his own. He was represented by Mr. T. H. Luscombe, who took strong exception of Magistrate Love's demand that Donaldson, who is held for a witness, should be compelled to furnish security. Alleged Fraud. Thomas Lawrence, alias Donovan, of 84 Dundas street, appeared on a charge of fraud, laid by Sadie Sulley, who alleged that she had given him speakers at the Chesley avenue school $2 to do some moving for her and he had not done it. The case was withpresented with the prizes for the best drawn on condition that Lawrence re-

EMPIRE DAY

Mrs. Becher and Mrs. A. T. Edwards presented the prizes won by Miss Ruth Meek and Miss Catherine Campbell for the best essays on King Edward by the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades, donated by the Woman's Canadia Club.

Interesting Letters. One of the most interesting features of the day was the reading of letters received by pupils of the seventh grade from public school pupils in all parts of the British possessions. These letters were read in the seventh grade by the pupils receiving them, and it proved to be a most eniovable feature. Letters were receiv ed from New Zealand, West Australia, Newfoundland, Bombay and other parts. They will be finished this afternoon.

The children sang a number of choruses, "O, Canada," being partic-ularly well done. The rest of the schools will complete their exercises this afternoon.

The Park School.

The Empire Day exercises at the Park school took place in the Public Library building this morning. Mrs. Gibbons, president of the Canadian Club presented the prizes gicen by the club for the best essay on King Edward the Seventh.

In grade 8, Kizzie McCormick and in grade 7. Catherine Sabine, were the successful ones. In the senior division the prize presented by Miss Zimmerman was won by Kittie Hague. The students were adddressed by Col. Hodgins. His remarks were an inspiration of the sense of responsibility and duty each girl owes to the empire. The patriotic songs and drills were most creditably given by the school.
