Berlin Union Jacks Too Much for Londoners-Game Ends in a Tie, 3 to 3-Visitors Blame the Poor Ice.

[BY BERT PERRY.]

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—Western University Juniors made a gallant effort to stay in the O.H.A. running here at Berlin tonight, but the local Union Jacks' two-goal lead, was too much for them, the game tonight resulting in a tie, 3-3, Berlin winning the round by a margin of 2 goals.

Handicapped by the two-goal advantage which Berlin secured in London, the Collegians went out tonight with determination and spunk written all over Berlin got the jump on them in the first five minutes' of play by scoring two goals. Shortly after Western scored when Walden broke through the Berlin defence and beat Merner. A few minutes later Walden was laid out when he was struck in the face with a stick, a nasty gash which closed one eye being inflicted. He was forced to quit and Ott went off to even up. The teams finished with six men a side.

With Walden and Ott off, Western's speed and individual work was more effective, and the Londoners had the Union Jacks on the run at several stages. Berlin Saved By Defence.

Berlin's great defence work was all' that saved them. Berlin was only able to score once after securing the 2 goals in the first period, Shirk finally beating Reuter after the University goal minder had made some remarkable stops. They falled to score at all in the third period.

The game was fast and had the the crowd on edge throughout. Western always looked dangerous and in the third period played a far better game than their opponents.

The Collegians back up the opinion of London fans that on hard ice they would give the Union Jacks a real battle. Had the ice been hard in London, Berlin never would have and Western would now be in the semi-finals.

Reuter, Phillips, Sinclair and Nelles starred for Western tonight, Phillips showing more speed and stick handling than any player on the ice.

Brodison was not as good as usual, and loafed a great deal. He only showed flashes of his real form. Reuter's work in the nets was great; he stopped many Berlin rushes right at the goal mouth. Bell was also effective, although he served too much time on the fence. Walden played a strong game while he was on.

Exciting Third Period. The third period was the most exciting. Western scoring the only two goals of the session and making a great fight for the district. After seven

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Richard (Rube) Marquard, who jumped from the New York Nationals to the Brooklyn Federals during the middle of the winter, had a lengthy conference today at the New York National League office with President A. N. Hempstead and Secretary John B. Foster. Secretary Foster refused to make any positive statement as to the outcome of the interview.

"We cannot very well discuss Marquard's status without half admitting that he at one time ceased to be under contract with us," said Foster. "I will say, however, that we have good reason to expect Marquard to report to the Glants' training camp at Marlin Springs next month."

Secretary-Treasurer Huston, of the local American League team intimated this afternoon that if there was any salary difference between J. Franklin Baker and the Philadelphia Athletics, he would be glad to make Connie Mack a fine offer for his star third baseman.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—A few more disgraceful incidents such as those which took place in the National Hockey Association game tonight at the Arena between Ottawa and Toronto and professional hockey will have a short life in Toronto. Ottawa won the game, 3 to 1.

The trouble came in the third period. MeGiffin was looking for trouble and got it. He had several tiffs with Art Ross, in which the honors were about even, but the climax came when both players dropped their sticks and used their fists instead. Ross gave McGiffin a bad laeing, although the gloves saved him from any real damage. The majority of the players joined in, but the officials managed to quell the disturbance without any further trouble. This fracas, however, only paved the way for more.
