PROMISED CONSIDERATION FOR FUTURE CONVENTION

London's Claims Presented to Rotary Convention-Had Good Time.

A promise that London would be considered for a future convention of the Rotarians was the information brought back by the London delegates from the annual convention just closed in Cin

"We received the kindest treatment possible, and as we marched down the main street of the city the American bands played Canadian and British airs while we reciprocated with singing America," said William A. Martin to

The Advertiser today. The convention, one of the biggest of ts kind, dealt with questions tending to promote business efficiency. "We found practically no pro-German sentiment in a supposedly German city, and the expression always heard was: 'We ances. are neutral,'" said another delegate. Atte Those who attended from London were: William A. Martin, Ray Lawson, M. Greer, Ald. E. S. Little and wife, John C. Beemer and wife, and T. L. Partridge and wife.

THE LOCAL MARKET

There was a fairly large local market this morning, although the continued hot spell has prevented the articles which are usually sold at this time from being brought to town. Both butter and egg prices remained firm, although there was a considerable shortage, particularly of dairy butter. Hot weather is not conducive to the making of good butter, and warm weather, which although it is good for the hay, has dried up pasturage. Poul-

OF CANADA HEAD OFFICE: LONDON, ONT.

The Northern Life has a paid-up capital of $481,127.50, which constitutes a safety fund for the protection of its policyholders. During 1915, twenty-four Canadian companies were licensed by the Dominion Government. Of these only two have a larger paid-up capital than the Northern and proportionately to the amount of insurances in force the Northern has more paid-up capital than either.
