

I have said that the atmosphere was more than chilly: and the master of Holmedeane was not one of the favored mortals who look well in cold weather. His always pale face looked almost blue, and the color which should have been elsewhere was in his sharp nose. But, as usual, his tall spare figure was dressed to perfection, and his shiring teeth gleamed as white as ever under his black mustache, and looked a intolerable. His thin fingers were so cold when I took them that a shiver ran through me, and I saw Nat fairly jump when she gave him hers. His manner was as bland and as deferential as ever, and his self-possession as complete. Fraser Froude was not a man of moods; he was at one dead polite level at all times and seasons.

'This is a very early visit, Mr. Froude,' said Nat, receiving him not too graciously, and not particularly pleased, I dare say, to have her pretty tender dream of love broken by the actual presence of another. Indeed I have not the slightest doubt that, had the little lady strictly followed her private inclinations, she would have boxed the master of Holmedeane's ears with all possible promptitude and heartiness. As it was, it was a very reuctant and chilly little hand that she gave him, and she withdrew it from the clasp of his long thin fingers as quickly as might be.

'Not so early that I disturb you, I hope?' Mr.

'Solve and the atmosphere was more than tool well in cold weather. His almost his part of the master of Holmedeane's ears with all possible promptitude and heartiness. As it was, it was a very reuctant and chilly little hand that she gave him, and she withdrew it from the clasp of his long thin fingers as quickly as might be.

'Not so early that I disturb you, I hope?' Mr.

as might be.
'Not so early that I disturb you, I hope?' Mr Froude said in reply.

He was so much taller than she that he stooped in speaking to her; but he need not have made a whisper of it, I thought. Nat dropped back like the condon authorities realized that a new power had risen in the metropolis. Here was a man whose word of command was obeyed by the masses without a was obey into her chair.

'Oh, dear, no! Ned and I were only staring at the fire and waiting for lunch-time. He is lazy, and I am supposed to do nothing to-day. I am only just down-stairs. Won't you sit down, Mr. Froude?'

'I hardly hoped to see you down at all,' he said, complying; and Nat's big bright eyes opened to their widest extent.

'What—because I was foolish enough to tumble over Daphne's head and graze my forehead? Surely you did not think I would consent to be made an invalid for that?'

made an invalid for that?'
I heard a much more serious account of it than that. I understood that you were badly nothing about it.'

'As Doctor Yorke was there, and picked me up when I fell, I fancy he knows more about it than any one else does,' Nat said, tartly—so tartly indeed that Mr. Froude's keen dark eyes shot a sharp glance at her.

'Indeed!' he answered. 'He was fortunate.'

'I was, you mean, for Ned was almost scared to death. If it had not been for Doctor Yorke, I believe I should be lying in front of Wilde's cottage now.'

cause of labor. I know for a fact that he refused £5,000 to go through the Australian colonies on a lecture tour.

"He is no believer in S'anley Africanus. As a member of the Lond on County Council he successfully opposed its official and public recognition of the explorer's doings in Africa. 'Stanley's expedition was nothing more than a commercial total line.

ottage now.'

'Oh, Wilde's cottage!' I am not sure that Mr.
Froude did not whistle very softly. 'Was it there that you fell, Miss Orme?'

'Yes. Fortunate for me, wasn't it? It would have been very pleasant if I had come in one of those horrid mud-puddles in the middle of the common.'

'And Doctor Yorke was there?'
'Yes, luckily for me.'
'He seems to spend a good deal of his time there,' said Fraser Froude, dryly, looking back there,' said Fraser Froude, dryly, looking back at the fire.

'More time than he likes, I dare say,' I put in, for somehow the smooth tones of that last speech had grated upon my nerves. 'That old reprobate of a Wilde has got the gout awfully,' 'Ah, a very long attack! By the way, what a pretty little rustic beauty his daughter is?'

'Very pretty,' said Nat. indifferently, leaning back in her chair. 'Ned, won't you let madame know that Mr. Froude is here?'

Now this was merely a neat little bit of hypocritical diplomacy on the young lady's part, as I knew very well. In the first place, if I ventured to leave her alone with her present companion, I certainly should not hear the last of it for some time to come; and, in the second, Mr. Froude did not particularly seek the stately societ, of madame when he could avoid it, and certainly had not paid this early visit to see her. Of course he wished me at Jericho, and he gave me an impatient look, but I was densely stupid just then, it happened, and would not go.

'What -go after the mother just now? No, thanks, I think you will have to excuse madame this morning, Mr. Froude. She and mademoiselle are up to their eyes superintending the pudding:'

Miss Nat's diplomacy had its effect. Mr. Miss Nat's diplomacy had its effect. Mr. Froude rose from his it and took up his Pray don't trouble May My Chavasse for me. I came only to see how Mis was. I am beyond measure relieved'—this to ber, with one of his sudden, gleaming, intolerable smiles that the account I heard was so absolutely ex-

'Charming man, isn't he, Nat?'
'Ugh!' she cried, shrugging her shoulders, vindictively. 'I do believe he is the most unbearable creature on the face of the earth. I wish he'd go and smile at mademoiselle instead of me. There would be a charming couple of them then. I say, young lady, I hope you are grateful to me for not going to hunt up madame? then. I say, young lady, I hope you are grateful to me for not going to hunt up madame?

'Rather! You are a dear boy, and very clever—for a boy. Oh, dear, I wish it were luncheontime! I'm getting hungrier and hungrier every manue. Oh, what's that?'

She knew, and she forgot all about being hungry as she dropped into her chair again, turning her suddenly rosy face away, and trying to steady the two slender brown hands which she clasped in her lap. The smart gray horse which Roger Yorke always drove had a step of his own, and we were both familiar with it. I said nothing as I got slowly out of my chair and with an elaborate yawn stretched my arms over my head, but I wondered if it would not be as well if I went and tried to pave the way a little with a few words to madame. I thought it would, I had been useful just now, but I should be decidedly in the way presently, and I approached the door with a highly successful assumption of sauntering indifference. I do not think I have ever been more astonished in a small way than I was when the door opened, and there walked in—not Roger, but old Dizarte!

To be continued. Have You Read

How Mr. W. D. Wentz, of Geneva, N.Y. was cured of the severest form of dyspepsia? He says everything he ate seemed like pouring melted lead into his stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla effected a perfect cure. Full particulars will be sent if you write C. I. Hood & Co, Lowell, Mass.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient

The total value of watches made annually throughout the world represents a value of $185,000,000.

Mrs. W. J. Lang, Bethany. Ont., writes:—"I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifwas one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. As a last resort I tried Dr. Thomas's Eclectric Gil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, &c.; in fact it is our family medicine."

In Tokio there are more than 800 bath-houses in which a bath can be had for 1 cent.

Cent.

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable pre-Hyphenated names are increasing among New York fashionable people at a rate sclutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regthat suggests a fad.

clothes and at the same time keep them child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep clean and white, use "Peerless" Washing Castoria is the children's panacea-the mother's

THE LONDON LABOR CHAMPION

Labor M. P., John, or rather 'Jack,' Burns, for thus is he more familiarly known:

"Burns first won his spurs during the Trafalgar riots, when but for his presence the damage done by the mob along the line of clubdom and in St. James's street might have been much more scrious than it was. His second triumph was on the occasion of the great dockers' strike. It was then that the London authorities realized that a new power had risen in the metropolis. Here was a man whose word of command was obeyed by the masses without a murmur.

"Mr. John Cameron, Chairman of the Committee on the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, reported favorable progress. The report was received and the Committee permitted to prosected their labors.

Rev. A. Henderson, of Appin, reported the result of the applications on behalf of augmented congregations. Reductions were made in almost every case for which application had been made by the Presbyterv. Special reference was made by Mr. Henderson to the case of Avimer and Spring-lid, and he contended that the case should be referred back to the Augmentation Committee, and the claim of this congregation passed. Commissioners from Aylmer were heard. The report was received, and a committee appointed to consider it and report at the evening sederunt.

"To-day the workingmen of the United Kingdom feel sure that they will have a representative in the Commons who will in the future, as he has in the past, devote himself exclusively and unselfishly to their interests. 'If ever I get into parliament, I'll be able to serve them better there than at public meetings.' For that reason has he sought Parliamentary honors.

doctor fellow. Dizarte's partner. What do they call him? Yorke—'

If Mr. Froude, leaning back in his chair and looking at the fire as he talked, could have seen the angry gleam of Nat's black eyes as the crimson surged into her face, it might have opened his own a little; but he only added, with a kind of contemptuous complacency which made me long to tilt him off his chair—

'To be sure I might have known that he knew ingly contributed by those on behalf of whom he toils. He fixed the amount him future meet bi-monthly instead of quarrerly.

As the house was thin it was resolved to leave To be sure I might have known that he knew othing about it.

As the house was thin it was resolved to leave the discussion of the matter until the September 2 cause of labor. I know for a fact that cil he successfully opposed its official and public recognition of the explorer's doings in Africa. 'Stanley's expedition was nothing more than a commercial "rig," he said to me.

"If he passes the Guard's barracks the soldiers wave their tunics from the windows, with a 'Bravo, Jack!'

dows, with a 'Bravo, Jack!'

"If he enters the Houses of Parliament
—I am of course now talking of a time when he was not an M. P.-- he receives exceptional favors and attentions from Lords as well as from Commoners, and I have witnessed the Inspector of Police, on duty in the lobby of the Commons, touching his cap to the Labor leader, saying at the same time:—'What can I do to-day for you, Mr. Burns?'

"His talent for keeping order over meetings composed of thousands has earned him the gratitude of the metropolitan police. A high police official—this is historical—once requested him to wear on public oc-once requested him to wear on public occasions the battered and torn straw hat which he donned all through the dockers" strike. 'We do not fear any riot when we see that hat. It is a guarantee of order, explained the official. "Burns is ready and well-equipped for conversation or argument, and he is an omnivorous reader. His knowledge of the labor movement in the United States is to be marvelled at.

"He is as frank and to the point in his utterances as he is modest and unassuming while receiving almost homage from the component parts of London's social fabric.

"He abstains from intoxicating beverages not because he is a 'prohibition crank,' aggerated.'

He took himself off with that, not seeming to notice how the little lady bit her lip, or what a flash her great velvety eyes sent after him.

Watching her, I laughed.

Note:

But as an example to the masses. It also spares him the company of men who carnot control their cravings for 'something watching her, I laughed.

too strong for them', he remarks.

"Buras is married, but has no children.
His wife, 'Pat,' as he affectionately calls her, is the fitting mate for such a man. From what I know of her she must to-day glory in her husband's election."

THE DOCTORS PERMANENTLY

Services first three months free. The staff of eminent physicians and surgeons, who have so long enjoyed such unparalleled success in Montreal and New York, having cured thousands of cases of male and female weakness, catarrh, catarrhal deafness, etc., where others have failed, are now permanently established at their residence, No. 428 Park avenue.

All who visit these eminent doctors before August 1st will receive services for the first three months free. The object in pursuing this course is to become rapidly pursuing this course is to become rapidly acquainted with the sick be held the Monday previous at 2 o'clock.

The doctors treat every variety of disease and deformity. but will not accept incurable cases. They will examine you thoroughly, free of charge, and if incurable they will frankly, kindly tell you so; also caution you against spending money for useless treatment. Go promptly if you wish to consult them, as their offices will be crowded during the latter days of free services.

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant nero drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disor iers, and it is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1.

Remember, it costs nothing whatever to consult these emicent gentlemen, and there-children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and abeach bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and abulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhocea and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys If you wish to save labor, save your worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the fend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

THE LONDON PRESBYTERY.

Regular Business Meeting of the Presbyterians of the London Dis-

A regular meeting of the London Presbytery was held in the lecture room of Park Avenue Church on Tuesday afternoon and evening, Rev. D. Currie, of Glencoe, moderator, presiding After devotional exercises, the minutes of two previous meetings were read and confirmed.

Rev. Mr. Hall, of Vanneck, was granted leave of absence for eight weeks, he having made provision for supply of his pulpit during his absence. Mr. D. Currie made a similar request, which was granted.

Rev. Dr. Proudfoot made his report of attendance at the General Assembly. Having been put in charge of an overture from the Hamilton and London Synod re extra-mural sessions, and also in regard to the year in the mission field required from ministers who were received from other churches, Dr. Proudfoot stated that both overtures were laid on the table by the assembly, principally on the ground that these rules had not had sufficient trial.

Rev. Messrs. Cameron, of Thamesville; Dewar, of Alsa Craig; Sutherland, of Fingal; Dawson and Talling, of London; and Mr. Shields, an elder, also gave brief reports of their attendance at sessions of Assembly. All these reports were received, and the thanks of the Presbytery tendered to the brethren for their faithful discharge of duty.

tendered to the brethren for their faithful discharge of duty.

Commissioners from St. James' Church, London, presented a motion passed at a congregational meeting, asking permission of the Presbyterv to mortgage their property for $800 additional to the $5,500 which is now held upon it, thus increasing the debt to $6,300. On motion the petition of these commissioners was granted.

Mr. John Cameron, Chairman of the Commit-vening sederunt.

The treasurer of the Presbytery asked if he

The treasurer of the Presbytery asked if he should pay the expenses of commissioners to the General Assembly in full. He was instructed to pay only the railway fare.

Rev. A. Henderson presented report re the rearrangement of a number of stations in the Presbytery. The report was received, and a committee appointed to visit the fields and further consider the matter of re-arrangement,

A Committee was a pointed to confer with A Committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Fowler, who comes from the Methodist Courch, and makes application to be received as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and

'I heard a much more structured and then that. I understood that you were badly thurt.'

'Really!' cried Nat, staring at him and then at me. 'What an exceedingly imaginative person! May I ask who it is who thinks a scratch worth a sensation?'

'No one in particular—I should have known better than to pay attention—only that young doctor fellow, Dizarte's partner. What do they call him?' Yorke—'

call him?' Yorke—'

call him?' Yorke—'

call him?' Yorke—'

call him? Yorke—'

call him? Yorke—'

call him? The regulars of the Presbyterian Church, and report at the evening sederunt.

The Presbytery having received permission from the General Assembly to receive Mr. Joseph Elliott from the Presbyterian Church of the United States, Mr. Elliott was asked the questions prescribed by the Book of Forms, and having signified his willingness to sign the formula required from ministers of the Presbyterian Church. was a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyterian Church, and the requires it, for, night and day for the presbyter in the evening sederunt.

The Presbytery having received permission from the Presbyterian Church of the United States, Mr. Elliott was asked the questions prescribed by the Book of Forms, and having signified his willing as a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and the presbyterian Church of the United States, Mr. Elliott from the Presbyterian Church of the United States, Mr. Elliott fr Church in Canada.

Rev. Mr. Clark moved that the Presbytery in earnings ere he became an agitator in the cause of labor. I know for a fact that he refused £5,000 to go through the Australian colonies on a lecture tour.

"He is no believer in Sanley Africanus. As a member of the Lond in County Co

Church. The committee recommended that Mr. Fowler be taken on trial for license after he has laken an extra-mural session, in connection with Manitoba or some other of the colleges. The report was adopted. Mr. Fowler was transferred to the care of Winnipeg. Presbytery.

The report of the committee to examine students who are candidates for the ministry, reported having examined Hugh Leitch and E. Harris, and recommended that they be certified to the senate of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

committee persists in reducing the grant to that church.

Alma street, St. Thomas, submitted to the decision of the augmented committee in regard to the reduction of aid granted. The consideration of Wardsville and Newbury was postponed to the September meeting. The report was adopted as a whole.

Alma Street Church, St. Thomas, asked permission of Presbytery to mortgage the church property for the sum of $22,000, for the purpose of enlarging their church building. On motion the permission asked was granted.

Standing committees were appointed as follows:—State of Religion, Messrs. Wilson, Kelso and McCrae, elder. Sabbath Schools, Messrs. Franis, J. Currie, D. K. McKenzie, elder. Temperance, Messrs. Talling, Clark and Arnott, elder. Home Missions, Messrs. Henderson, Macdonald and McNish, elder. Systematic Beneficence, Messrs. Hamilton, Sawers and Thomas Baty, elder. Statistics, Dr. Thompson, Mr. Dewar and J. Currie, Mr. Shields, elder. Finance, Mr. Gordon, J. Ballantyne, Mr. Gilmour, elder. Sabbath Observance, D. Currie and Messrs. D. K. McKenzie and J. Young, elders.

Assembly returns gave permission to London Presbytery to receive Joseph Elliott. Leave to withdraw application in behalf of Rev. Mr.

respytery to receive Joseph Elliott. Leave to withdraw application in behalf of Rev. Mr. Lowry was also granted.

The Assembly granted the application of the London Presbytery on behalf of Rev. Duncan Cameron to retire and be placed on the aged and infirm ministers' fund.

Rev. J. Currie reported for the Committee appointed to examine Mr. Gauld, a graduate of Knox College, for license. It declared the trials highly satisfactory and recommended Mr. Gauld for license. The report was sustained, and Mr. Gauld licensed in due form to preach the gospel and given the right hand of fellowship. Mr. Gauld, who goes to Formosa, is to be ordained at the South Church, Westminster, on Thursday, July 21, at 7.30 o'clock, the 1'resbytery to meet at 6.30 to hear ordinatin trials. Mr. Sawers was appointed to preside, Mr. Sutherland to preach, Mr. J. Currie to address the missionary and Mr. J. Macdonald to address the people.

address the people.

Rev. Mr. Sawers was permitted to moderate in a call at Belmont.

The English mint posse ses an elec ri-cally operated machine for counting coins.

fore the most humble in circumstances can avail themselves of their vast experience. Catarrh and catarrhal deafness is positively cured by their new treatment. The London office is permanently established, but free services end August 1st. The President and first consulting physicians are now in charge.

Office hours, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Sundays, 1 to 4 p. m.

Mr. Joab Scales, of Toronto, writes:—"A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of North-rop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

It is believed that nickel carbon is soon o play an important part in metallurgy.

Grip, misery, woe, pain, etc. Anybody can escape these galling chains for a trifling sum. I had such dreadful attacks could not shake off its deadly fangs. Go a supply of nature's mysterious life-giving and am 67 years of age. T. Rivard Joliette

A man who always cuts an acquaintance -The barber.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

C. W. A.

To the Editor of the Free Press. SIR,—Please give me the name and address of the Secretary of the C. W. A. (Canadian Wheelmen's Association.)
Yours, 'A WHEELMAN.

Answer.-H. B. Donley, Simcoe, Ont.

Chicago Fire of 1871. To the Editor of the Free Press W tford, July 11, 1892. SrR,—Kindly give through the columns burnt at the great Chicago fire?

And oblige HICKEY. ANSWER. -17,450.

of the FREE PRESS the number of houses

Grain Deliveries. To the Editor of the FREE PRESS. London East, July 11th, 1892. DEAR SIR, -Being a constant reader of the FREE PRESS will you please answer the following: — Is London abead of Hamilton or Toronto in the quantity of grain that comes into the city, which is purchased and shipped out again. ANSWER.—The annual grain deliveries in London exceed those of damilton, but Coronto is ahead of either of them.

Over Niagara Falls

To the Editor of the Free Press. DEAR SIR, - Kindly answer the following question in your valuable paper (Daily):—A bets B that a man has succeeded in going over Niagara Falls without being killed. B bets that nobody has done so. Who wins the bet? If A wins kindly give all particulars.

Yours truly,

Forest, Ont., July 11, 1892. Answer,--Graham in 1890 went over he Niagara Falls in a barrel which he invented, and which he had constructed according to his own design. He went over the Falls, and was picked up, after being shaken up considerably, safe and sound.

TRY OUR Fancy Bread, Vienna Rolls, Home-made Bread and Fancy Bread of all descriptions. JOHNSTON BROS

Beaver Bakery, Wellington Street. Telephone 818. xC19hn

NERVE BEANS are a new according to the covery that cure the worst cases a Nervous Deblity, Lost Viger as Failing Manhood; restores the most obtinate cases when all of the country cures the most obtinate cases when a country cures the most obtinate cases when a country cures the most obtinate cases when a country country to the price by addressing THE JAMES MED Toronto, Ont. Write for paughtet. Sold the country cure the most obtinate cases when a country country that the country country country to the country cure the country cou

HAVE YOU BACK-ACHE WILL CURE YOU

"Delay is

"Backache the scavengers means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's dangerous. Neg-Kidney Pills give lected kidney prompt relief." troubles result "75 per cent. f disease is first caused by disordered kid-Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most danneys. "Might as well gerous of all, Brights Disease, try to have a Diabetes and try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price 50 cents. per box or six for $2.50. Dr. L. A. Smith & Co. Toronto. Write for book called Kidney Talk.

to business can readily see that the Lo:

DON FREE PRESS is a solendid mediux through which to create a demand for and increase the sale of goods in Londo. and throughout the surrounding country as it is the only morning paper in Western Ontario, and guarantees the largest ch culation of any maperin London.

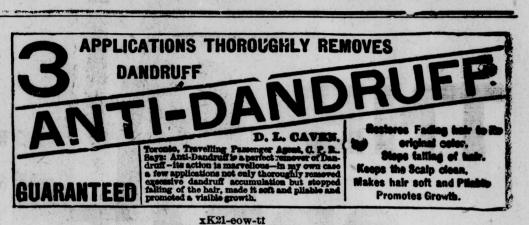

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED SPANISH NERVINE The great nerve and brain rete to cure all nervous diseases, such as Weak Memory, Loss of Brain Power, Fits and Neuralgia, Hysteria, Dizziness, Convulsions or loss of power of the generative organs in either sex. Involuntary Losses, or Self Abuse, caused by Over Rection, Youthful Indiscretional to consumption and insanity. With every $5, order we give a written gnarantee to cure or refund the money. Price $1. a package, or, 6 for $5. By mail to any address. Ask your druggist for it if he offers you a substitute or imitation which pays him a larger profit, leave his dishonest store, and mail price to us. A. A. BROWN & CO., Windsor, Ont., Agents for Can., Spanish Med. Co., Madrid

SAXONY TWEED GOAT AND PANTS 5.5C.

SAXO Y WEED 3-PIECE SUITS $10

PETHICK McDONALD. 898 Richmond Street.

IN LONDON.

Geo. Wood & Co

OUR GREAT MAMMOTH STOCK OF

DRY GOODS

Must be cleared out by September 24th. That day our doors will be closed and the store to let. We leave the city for Brandon, Man.

THURSDAY

CLEARING'

Commences. From that date we guarantee to show the public goods at prices never heard tell of in [London. This is a genuine sale.

George Wood & Co

COR DUNDAS & RICHMOND STS.

We are showing very fine Oak, Mahogany, Birdseye Maple Bedroom sets.

184 to 198 King St., London, Ontario.

RAM LAL'S Pure Indian Package Tea

Don't be inveigled into buying imitations. Always insist on having the old reliable Ram Lal's, for sale in Chatham by

H. MALCOMSON. HAYWARD & KITCHEN J. H. BOGART J. L. SIMPSON

ROBINSON & GONNE.