Information, Rules and Regulations

The Graphic's Big Prize Competition

Any lady or gentleman married or single, or boy or girl, is eligible to enter the Campbellton Graphic's Big Prize Competition. No money or other consideration is required for any of the prizes. Contestants may nominate themselves or be nominated by friends. Fill out the nomination blank on this page or the information blank found on the back page, clip out and send or mail it to the Campaign Department of The Graphic, Campbellton, N. B. Votes will be issued on all payments of subscriptions during the campaign whether paid to a solicitor, candidate or at The Graphic office. A coupon good for votes will be placed in every issue of The Graphic up to a certain period, starting with coupon good for 1,000 free votes. Save them. They count votes.

There will be two ways to secure votes---(1) By clipping coupons good for votes from The Graphic, and sending or mailing same to the Campaign Department. (2) By securing subscriptions for The Graphic, for which votes will be issued. The management reserves the right to reject any nomination without giving any reason for doing so. Contestants may secure subscriptions anywhere to The Graphic. Any payment made to a candidate by a person now taking The Graphic extends the subscription from the date to which the subscriber is paid. Old subscribers as well as new, by paying in advance or by paying both arrears and in advance may help the candidate. All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the campaign, and will be pooled at the discretion of the candidate, subscriber or the management. In the event of a typographical error, it is understood that the management will not be held responsible, except to make the necessary correction on discovery of same. The management reserves the right to add more prizes or give extra prizes. In case of a tie, the prize will be equally divided. Candidates who seek to lessen competition by discouraging other competitors, or whose friends endeavor to lessen competition, by the same means, will be disqualified and dropped from the competition. Votes are not transferable except under the following conditions: If a certain candidate wishes to withdraw from the competition, he or she may transfer his or her votes to a suitable substitute, but said substitute must be a new candidate, who has not before been accepted in the competition. The management reserves the right to encourage the candidates in every way possible. The management reserves the right to give extra votes, club votes or other votes, but it guarantees that all subscriptions turned in from the beginning of the competition up until the time of any of these offers will be counted for the benefit of same. The management reserves the right to give prize vote ballots. When several nominations, all contestants must accept and abide by the above conditions. A committee of well-known business men will be selected by The Graphic to count the votes and decide the prize winners. The Graphic guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and should any question arise, the decision of the management will be considered final. Any statement or promise made by any solicitor or agent varying from the rules and regulations published in The Graphic will not be recognized by The Graphic. A candidate is not required to be a regular subscriber to The Graphic to enter the competition. The Graphic reserves the right to alter any rule, everything in fact, except the value of the prizes will not be reduced. The Graphic reserves the right to give votes on advertising and job printing accounts during any part of the contest if they deem it advisable to do so.
