English Gentlemen v. Ontario.

Play was resumed this day (Saturday) in the presence of very few spectators. It game were the excellent base running of John Lucas and Frank Baby, and the will be remembered that the Englismen will be remembered that the Englismen made 225 in their innings. At 10 minutes past 12 o'clock Vickers and Stratford went in to the bowling of A. J. Thornton (lobs) and Horner (fast round arm), Hine-Hay which pesition he filled to the admiration of the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and frank Baby, and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the bat without a mask until a four the large and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the large and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the large and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the large and the remarkably good catching of Harry Lucas, who stood behind the large and the remarkably good catching the remarkably good catching the remarkabl and Horner (fast round arm), Hine-Hay oock keeping wicket in the place of Newton. A single was the result of the first over of the lob bowler and three overs later on Stratford was clean bowled by a trimmer for 3, (1 for 6). Boyd joined Vickers, and the last ball of Horner he played on and Jimmy Wright in coaching the players created roars of laughter. John his wicket. (2 for 6). Sanders was the his wicket. (2 for 6). Vickers then cut the lob bowler for two, and in the next over Saunders cut Horner for a couple, bringing up the double figures. Four overs later on Vickers had his middle stump rooted clean out of the ground by Horner for six. (3 for 15). Cummings then partnered Saunders and with his third ball he was also clean bowled by Horner for nothing. (4 for 15). Ogden now went it to bat and in the lob bowler's next over Turner let off Sanders at mid off, but in his succeeding over Mr. Thornton caught and bowled over Mr. Thornton caught and thornton caught and Orden for nothing. (5 for 16). Allan came it and hit Thornton to square leg for Modesty third; time 1.58. Two overs later Sanders cut the same bowler to the ropes for 4. With the score hat 43 Whitby took the ball from Horner.

Lever hit him to have for the score of the same of the score at 43 Whitby took the ball from Horner.
Jones hit him to leg for three and shortly after was caught at short leg by Horner off Whitby for 14 (7 for 53). Ledger joined Sanders, who was playing good cricket, but their partnership was short, for after making a two to leg the latter was bowled by Turner for a very good and patient linnings of 23, for which he received well-deserved applause (8 for 55). A recess was taken for lunch. After lunch Dickson joined Ledger, who was soon caught and bowled by Whitby (9 for 61). Ferrie was the last man, and after scoring two Dickson was neatly caught at slip by Newton off Bruen, and the innings closed for 63.
