THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Peter McDonald, aged eighty, for forty years a resident of Brooke township, and for thirty years a resident of Metcalfe, died at his home in the latter township Wednesday of last week, after an illness extending over some time. He came to this country from Scotland as a lad. The funeral was held to Strathroy cemetery Friday afternoon.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

St. Catharines, April 2.—Mrs. Wm. Pennell, of Thorold, who last week charged her husband with drinking while on the Indian list and admitted to the magistrate that she had another husband living, Edward Bradley, to-day in court admitted still another husband, Henry Herbert, with whom she said she had gone through a marriage ceremony at Niagara Falls since her marriage to Pennell.

Ottawa, April 2.—The Ottawa public school board to-day issued an order that the Union Jack must be raised on all schools in its jurisdiction between the hours of 8.45 a.m. and 4 p. m. on days when classes are held.

Cruelty To Animals

(Toronto Star)

A great work lies before the humane societies in Toronto and elsewhere. The people need education on the subject of humanity to animals. The instinct to destroy wild life is very widespread. The other day a squirrel was seen on a street where a sewer is being constructed. A laborer who saw it at once became widely excited. He was not satisfied to watch the graceful movements of the harmless little creature. His destructive instinct was aroused. He pursued the animal as furiously as if it had been an inveterate enemy of the human race, and only the badness of his aim saved its life.

Now this man was probably no monster, but an ordinary good-natured human being. If anybody had asked him why he wanted to kill the squirrel he would have been puzzled to answer. A live squirrel is a thing of beauty. A dead squirrel of that size is of no use to anybody. The instinct must have come down from some savage ancestor roaming the woods in search of prey, and afraid that he would starve to death unless he devoured whatever came in his way.

But it is the business of education to remove those savage instincts. It is proposed to teach religion in the schools. There is not the least difficulty in teaching at least such elements of universal religion as kindness to animals. Such teaching is never forgotten. The savage instinct is easily eradicated. Many a boy who has been in the habit of destroying animal life has experienced a sudden revulsion of feeling at the mere sight of the lifeless body; has asked himself the question: "Why did I do that?" Tens of thousands of children have been converted to humane ideas by "Beautiful Joe," or "Black Beauty."

There is a splendid field for work here. Those who engage in it do not benefit the dumb animals alone. They help to civilize the community. Cruelty to animals is a relic of barbarism. When it disappears other relics of barbarism are likely to go also.

The poor old bach, he has to scratch, To get his day's work done, What with getting meals and other jobs Of rest he can get none.

Of course he always keeps his place So very, very neat, And when one chance into it It always smells so sweet (?)

You knock the door, "Come in," says he, You go in, but can't stay, You feel obliged to hold your nose And long to get away.

He'll ask, "Have you had dinner yet?" You'll tell him "Yes," though starving, You would rather go without for weeks, Than eat what he is carving.

Some burnt up meat he tries to eat, His bread is more like dough, And how on earth he drinks that tea You really do not know.

On Sundays while his neighbors are at He washes all his clothes; [church, Tho' that's not the day it should be done But they need it, goodness knows!

His socks are worn, his shirts are torn, His clothes, they all need mending, But for the poor lone bachelor There's trouble never ending.

So girls, just make up your minds, To be the best you can, And pack your shoes in the trunk Of some nice bachelor man.

For they are not all monsters; No, I know of more than one beauty, Who I can very safely say As husbands would do their duty.

A Pill that proves its Value.—Those of weak stomach will find strength in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they serve to maintain the healthful action of the stomach and the liver, irregularities in which are most distressing. Dyspeptics are well acquainted with them and value them at their proper worth. They have afforded relief when other preparations have failed, and have effected cures in ailments of long standing where other medicines were found unavailing.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME

Overcome by Simple Remedy.

Hurried and careless habits of eating, irregular meals and foods that do not harmonize, tend to weaken the digestive organs and result in different forms of stomach trouble.

If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this condition, eat simple foods only, slowly, regularly and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, Thomasville, Ga., says: "I suffered from a stomach trouble, was tired, worn out and nervous. A friend advised me to take Vinol. My stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have a perfect digestion and I wish every tired, weak woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good."

The recovery of Mrs. Smith was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's liver—aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonics iron, which are contained in Vinol. We will return the purchase money every time Vinol fails to benefit.

PAINTED WITH MARTIN-SENOUR 100% PURE PAINT
ORDINARY PAINT REQUIRES 3 GALLONS MORE

HOW TO PAINT FOR LESS MONEY

PAINT is not cheap simply because the price is low—if you would economize on paint, you must look beyond the purchase price per gallon.

The cheapest paint for you to use is the paint that takes the least amount for the job. It may cost a little more per gallon, but because it thoroughly covers more surface, wears better and stays bright longer, it is the most economical in the long run.

Martin-Senour 100% Pure Paint—
"The Paint for wear and weather", is absolutely the cheapest paint to use, because it goes farthest, and endures longest.

"100% Pure" Paint has a covering capacity of 900 sq. ft. of surface one coat, per gallon, as against a covering capacity of hand-mixed-by-guess lead and oil paint of only 500 to 550 sq. ft. of surface, per gallon, or the lower priced Prepared Paint with a covering capacity of not more than 600 sq. ft. of surface per gallon.

Give us the dimensions of your house—let us tell you how few gallons of "100% Pure" Paint it will take to cover it thoroughly—then, you will realize that it pays to use the best. Investigate.
