King, deceased.

TAKE NOTICE that all persons having claims against the estate of James King, late of the city of Regind, in the Province of Saskatchewan, and formerly of the town of Watford, in the Province of Ontario, retired farmer, are required to send full particulars of such claims and of any security held by them therefor, verified upon oath, to the undersigned, solicitors for Archibald William McGregor, of Regina aforesaid, the executor named in the last will and testament of the said James King, deceased, on or before the 1st day of May, A.D. 1915, after which cate the said executor will proceed to distribute the estate of the said deceased, having regard only to such claims as shall have been received, verified upon oath as aforesaid, DATED the 3rd day of March, A.D. 1915,

ALLAN, GORDON & GORDON, Barristers, Regina, Sask.

In behalf of the members of the Watford L.O. L. 505, we, the undersigned, wish to express our heartfelt sorrow for and sympathy with the widow and family of our late departed and much exteemed brother, Robert Moody. Many of us knew and esteemed him when he was engaged in business here in days of old, and when, after engaging in the service of the church of his choice, he entered the evangelistic work, we appreciated very much the reports of his success. Then followed years of affliction and suffering which, with true heroism and much Christian fortitude, he endured as seeing Him who is inwhich democracy stands, he joined our noble order, whose object is the realization of a common and universal brotherhood, if haply he might the first measure its attainment. His may be a compared to the first measure its attainment. His help at our monthly sessions we shall not soon forget. Suddenly, however, on Pebruary 19th the call came, and he left us for higher service. On Feb 23rd his remains were taken to their last resting-place, Watford cemetery. The funeral was conducted by Rev. P. G. Robinson, assisted by resident himisters, and the Foresters and Orange orders, both of which he was an hourord member. Sorrowing with the sorrow of his loved ones and extending to them our heartfelt prayers and sympathy, we make this record of our appreciation of his personal worth and talents and our sincere regret at his removal from our midst. Yet let his loving ones take comfort in this, that while earth is the poorer, heaven is enriched. May we all live so that we may meet him where pain and sorrow are no more
